From New Zealand.

Elder Sondra Sanders, Jr .. of this city, returned on Thursday from a mission to New Zealand, on which he started on June 29, 1885. On July 27 he arrived at New Zeals nd, and was assigned to labor among the Maories in the Waiapu district. Three months later he was sent to the Mahla district, where he organized a day school, the first in that land under the direction of the Church. Since then other schools have been organized and are now in operation. At the conference held in March, 1887, Brother Sanders, in connection with Elder Ezra F. Richards, was called to a new class of labor. These Elders were given the task of translating the Book of Mormon into the Maori language. This work has been completed and is now in the hands of the printer, at Auckland, for publica-tion. The work is being directed by President William Paxman. The native Saints have subscribed one-third of the amount necessary to pay for the printing of the book, but about $1000 remain to be collected for the purpose, and if this is raised by the New Zealand Saints it will be a la-bor of considerable magnitude.

Messrs. Johnson and Adams, resimple to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter, day Saints—having been previously nominated thereto by the atthorities of said Church; that as such the Court denied the motion.

On motion.

Now come William B. Preston, Robert T. Barton and John R. Winder, defendants herein; and respectfully represent to the Court and allegae:

That on the nineteenth day of May, A. D. 1887, they were duly appointed to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints—having been previously nominated thereto by the atthorities of said Church; that as such the Court when the court denied the motion.

On motion of P. L. Williams, Frank B. Stevens, of Nebraska, was admitted to the following described land and premises, situated in the city and county el Salt Lake City survey, described as follows: Commencing at the northeast corner of lot six (6), in block seven'y-five (75), Plat "A." Salt Lake City survey, and running thence south ten (10) rods, thence west ten (10) rods, thence as the five the court of the Court of the Cour the year 1878.

That the following described premises lying immediately west of and adjoining the premises above described, viz: A part of lot six(6), in block seven-ty-five (75), plat "A," Salt Lake City survey, described as follows: Com-mencing at a point ten (10) rods west of the nertheast corner of said lot, and running thence south ten (10) rods, thence west seven (7) rods, thence north ten(10) rods, thence east seven(7) rods, to the place of beginning, known as the "Historian Office" and grounds, are and have been ever since the year 1878, a part of said parsonage, and the building situated thereon contains the Church library and records; that the legal title to said last above-described premises is vested in one Theodore McKean, who holds it on the same trusts and for the same purposes as those hereinbefore set out, to-wit: as a part of the parsonage or residence of the President of said Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Wherefore your petitioners pray that all the premises above described, with the buildings thereon, and the appurtenances thereto, by proper order and decree, be set apart to said Church as a par-sonage, and the title thereto confirmed in the respective trustees who now hold the legal title to the same; and for such other and further relief as may seem to the Court meet and proper. James O. Broadhead, F. S. Richards, LeGrand Young, Sheeks & Rawlins, Solicitors for said Petitioners. P. L. Williams called up the question of compensation to Receiver Dyer and his attorney. Chief Justice Sandford said the court could not entertain the matter and said it should be referred in the manner usual in such cases. A referee would be appointed to take testimony.

Judge Judd suggested that perhaps counsel for both sides could agree upon a suitable referee.
The counsel conferred for a short Sprague, who was appointed.

Col. Broadhead inquired the scope of the order, and Mr. Williams replied that it was for services for the Re-rendered to date, and examine the accounts of the Receiver. court remained unchanged.

Mr. Hebson said the counsel on both sides were endeavoring to come to an agreement as to the terms of the final decree. There was considerable real estate that the government claimed would be forfeited, and inasmuch as it was in the hands of a Receiver, he asked that the govern-ment be permitted to commence suits for the forfeiture of that part of the Church property.
Col. Broadhead said they could make no opposition to the motion, but would contest the cases when suits

The order asked for was granted. Mr. Peters asked that Francis Armstrong and Jesse W. Fox be made parties defendant to the suit. Granted. Col. Broadhead said the counsel on get been received from the Solicitor-General, but it was expected daily. If no reply came by Monday morning, some agreement would be reached here and the case submitted.

OFFENDERS IMPRISONED The Sentences Imposed Today by

Judge Sandford. Six defendants were called before Judge Sandford today to receive the judgment of the court for having violated the laws. The first who came

A representation was made his former good character, and the court suspended sentence upon condition that he would refrain from stances, Court said he would theredrinking intoxicants, as that seemed to be the cause leading to the crime, ant's good behavior. Hamilton had been in the penitentlary four months awaiting trial, and has probably been punished severely enough for his actions.

JOHN THORNTON, who forged D. B. Brinton's name to an order, was brought forward to re-ceive sentence. He said he was 21 years old, and that his parents resided in San Francisco. He gave as a reason for having committed the crime, that he was afraid he would not get his pay. The court ordered that he be im-prisened in the penitentiary for one

W. A. HIBBARD, relieved E. Y. Taylor of his watch a few weeks ago, was made a partaker of the judgment of the Court for the crime of which he had been guilty. In passing sentence the Court re-marked, "I don't mean that this business of highway robbery shall be prefitable while I am on the bench." Hibbard was then relegated to the penitentiary for a term of five years.

The offense of which he had been convicted, adultery, was of such an aggravated character, that the Court could not feel that it would be consistent to show him any lenlency whatever. He was therefore given the full penalty of the flaw—three years in the penitentiary.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

Preliminary Steps Looking to Territorial Organization.

At noon today about one hundred gentlemen assembled in the City Hall, in the capacity of a Democratic mass convention, in response to a call previously published. Among those present were such Democrats as Hadley D. Johnson, M. Cassiday, Dr. W. R. Pike, and Judge W. N. Dusenbury. Judge W. N. Dusenbury was elected chairman, and S. W. Darke, secretary, as a temporary organization. Dr. Benedict moved to make the temporary organization permanent. A discussion followed in which S. A Kenner insisted that a committee on credentials should be next appointed, before organizing permanently.

Mr. Cassiday thought it would | be improper te have a committee on cre-dentials, as this was a mass convention. Hon. 3. R. Thurman thought it ought to be shown that the gentlemen comprising this convention were Democrats.

After several gentlemen had discussed the pending motion, it was put and carried by a vote of 19 to 16.

A gentleman who voted in the negative, moved a reconsideration, but the chair declined to entertain his motion. Dr. Benedict then moved to reconsider. Carried. The same gentieman then moved that a committee of five on credentials be appointed by the chair. Carried. Dr. Benedict, S. A. Kenner, J. B. Milner, W. K. Walton and I. C. Thoresen were made that committee. S. R. Thurman moved the election by the house of a committee of five on resolutions. Carried. The fellowing were elected: Dr. F. R. Kenner, H. D.

permanent organization and order of business. Carried. A. W. Ivins, Wm.
Creer chairman, J. B. Milner, Dr.
Deal and H. J. Faust were elected. Dr. Benedict as chairman of the committee on credentials asked instructions. Several gentlemen favored the making by that committee of a roll of those who would state that they were democrats, and would be bound by the action of this convention. A motion to that effect made by S. A. Kenner, was adopted.

The convention adjourned till 4 p.m.

Last night the Theatre was again filled at the Home Dramatic Club's performance of the "Shaugraun," and judging by the applause the audience was highly delighted. There was s slight hitch at one sime in the mechanical department, but this was soon remedied, and the piece went through in lively style. The piece was a great change from that of the evening before, and is of a class not quite se well adapted to the members of the club, but it showed the versatility of which some of them are possess d.

Col. Broadhead said the counsel on both sides had agreed upon all the facts except as to the escheat of the personal property. That had been submitted to the Solici or-General at Washington. This had been done to avoid taking a vast amount ## testimony. J. E. Schofield. At Provo, last Saturday, John E. Schofield appeared to change his plea from not guilty to guilty, to the charge of unlawful cohabitation. Mr. Peters stated to the court that he had ascertained that the wives had been separated about six weeks after the first date of the indictment, namely Oct. 15, 1885. The charge was merely technical, as it was understood that for two years of the time named in the indictment defendant had lived apart from his plural wife. Mr. Peters therefore recommended the court to take these facts into consideration. His honor the street and stated these facts substantially, and had referred him to counsel, so that the matter might come up in open court. Under the circumfore suspend sentence during defend-

Samuel C. Pratt. Today Brothers Milando and Lorus Pratt reached this city with the body of their brother, Samuel C. Pratt, whose death by falling into the boiling spring, in Nevada, we chronicled yesterday. They met the body at Terrace. Nevada, but could learn nothing of the manner in which he met his awful fate. They could not even obtain possession of the clothing he wore. It is quite probable, however, that a more definite knowledge of the circumstances surrounding the case will soon be obtained. Supt. S. W. Knapp, of the Southern Pacific at Ogden, Francis Cope of the Utah Central, and other rallway officials extended every courtesy.

The funeral of the deceased will be held in the Nineteenth Ward meetinghouse tomorrow, Sunday, at 12 s.m. The body of the unfortunate young man shows that he was entirely immersed in the heated water, and he is terribly scalded and flayed in places.
