EDITORIAL NOTES.

Rose cuttings and all other flower cuttings need only clean, moist sand till they have roots to receive nourishment, then leaf mould, or any light, moderately rich soil will answer.

A Wisconsin clergyman preached on the sin of attending to money matters on Sunday, and when the deacon passed the contribution plate, not a person would put a cent in it. And somehow the preacher didn't feel flattered at the effect his sermon had produced.

A cable dispatch from Liverpool gives the number of emigrants who left there during the month of May as 29,992. Of these, 7,923 were English, 6,339 were Irish, 270 were Scotch, and the remainder were "foreigners." The increase over May of last year was 12,931.

The pachymeter, an instrument lately patented in Vienna, accurately determines the thickness of paper to the one-thousandth part of an inch. Another Austrian invention is the daymeter, a small pendulum which indicates in seconds just the amount of force which is necessary to break a strip of paper stretched between two points by means of a screw, until it can no longer bear the tension.

Warlike talk is still indulged in between China and Russia. It may be interesting to some to know the military strength of the great European Power. The Russian army comprises 908 generals, 51,414 officers, and 881,425 men. The reserves number 745,144 men, and the Cossack troops 1,372 officers and 51,259 men, with 103,946 men on furlough.

Fly season is at hand. Horses are tormented by the winged pests perhaps more than men. It is claimed that if a couple of handfuls of the common black-walnut leaves are put into a vessel of water all night, and next morning boiled for 15 to 20 minutes; then when cold, you take a sponge or rag and moisten the eyes, neck, legs, etc., of a horse, the flies will give those places a wide berth. In some cases this application may be valuable.

The public debt during the past eleven months has been reduced in round figures to the sum of $75,000,000. This is attributed to the revival in trade. If the Republicans had been in a congressional majority during that time, they would have claimed these figures as proof of an economical management of the national finances. But as the Democrats have been ahead, of course they have no political but only commercial significance.

Japanese paper air cushions are curious and serviceable articles, and one of them will sustain without bursting, a man weighing one hundred and sixty pounds. The cushions, it is said, are water-proof, and make good life preservers. For pillows they are superior to rubber, because they will not stick together, and will emit no odor. When not in use they may be rolled up in small packages.

This is how romantic damsels often play the fool, and how their romance is sometimes taken out of them in a hurry. Fortunately this one had her eyes opened before matrimony. Miss Wilson, a Delaware belle and beauty. She fell in love with a farm hand, because she deemed him heroic; but when they eloped, and he ran away from her across the fields at the approach of her pursuing father, she concluded that she had overrated him, and went back home contentedly.

The increase in the number of suicides is attracting attention in both hemispheres, and it is attributed by many to the increase in the habitual use of intoxicants. A Norwegian writer claims that the favorable figures of his country on this question arose in consequence of the stringent laws against "drunkenness." Statistics of suicides during the past ten years show the annual suicides per million of inhabitants in Northwestern Europe and Asia to be: Saxony, 300; Denmark, 285; Wurtemberg, 180; Mecklenburg, 167; Baden, 153; Prussia, 153; Austria, 125; Bavaria, 103; Sweden, 81; Belgium, 73; and Norway, 40. During 1878, 6,000 persons committed suicide in France.

RIGHTS OF PASSENGERS.

The rights of passengers, notwithstanding the rules and by-laws of railroad and steamboat companies, have been once more sustained by the courts. A student of Harvard College, named Ward McAllister, bought an ordinary limited ticket over the Old Colony Line, from Boston to New York, for $1. Arriving at Newport, only part of the distance, but to which place the regular fare is $1.60, he started to go ashore, when he was stopped by an officer of the company and not allowed to leave the boat until he had paid the thirty-cent difference in fare. He acceded to the demand, and then brought an action against the company for assault and false imprisonment. The material point of the case was to determine whether a corporation, having agreed to carry a passenger over a through route at a reduced rate, less than that asked for transport to some intermediate station, has a right to prevent the passenger from stopping at that station until he has paid additional fare.

The case was tried and, on appeal, came before Judge Bacon in the Superior Civil Court at Boston, Massachusetts, when the Judge held that companies had no such right. Judgment was therefore rendered in favor of the plaintiff for $75 and costs, altogether amounting to about $200.

According to the decision, it seems that a railroad or steamboat company cannot lawfully prevent a passenger from leaving the car or boat at any station, when a regular stop is made for the exchange of passengers. The company may demand the difference in fare between the local and the through rate, and if payment is refused, recover the same in a civil action, but have no other remedy.

A PETITE POLITICAL FARCE.

The Democrats of Utah will be surprised to learn that the tactics of the few Republicans who recently presumed to act for the body without the consent of the latter, have been copied by a handful of professed Democrats. The assumption of the Republican Central Committee met with a severe but fitting rebuke at Chicago. The unauthorized action of these so-called Democrats will amount to nothing either here or in Cincinnati. Last evening, a meeting was held in this city, pursuant to a call by a gentleman claiming to be "Chairman pro tem, of the Democratic Territorial Central Committee." It was attended by eight persons, who proceeded to elect a Delegate to the Democratic National Convention. The whole proceedings can only be regarded in the light of a farce. We know of but one Chairman of the Democratic Central Committee, and his name is Hadley D. Johnson. He had nothing to do with the call or the meeting, and neither one nor the other was authorized by him or the members of the party in Utah. The octagonal assembly, without any warrant or authority from the party, appointed a gentleman not present in the Territory to attend as Delegate, a convention which admits no delegates from the Territories. The eight also selected the names of seven other persons, who with themselves were designated the Central Committee.

Utah contains a large number of Democrats. They have not been consulted in this matter, and are not likely to pay any attention whatever to the action of this self-appointed committee. If the party in this Territory has become disorganized—which we by no means assert, it would be only decent for those who consider that it is in such a condition, and desire that it may be re-organized, to call its members together and attempt its resurrection. Eight men, no matter how intelligent or ambitious they may be, have no right to constitute themselves the representatives of the body, nor to presume to make appointments as its chiefs. There is about as much democracy in such a course as there is in Granite Radicalism.

If half a dozen or eight persons choose to hold a meeting and elect for themselves a delegate to any convention under the sun, whether it is likely to recognize him or not, no Democrat will offer any objection, but will accord them as much liberty to play such antics as he claims to laugh at them for their pains. But in no sense whatever can their nonsense or assumption be recognized as coming from the Democratic party. The whole thing was but a small circus, and we are surprised to see such smart men cut so ridiculous a figure before the public.

A NUT FOR MALCONTENTS.

It is very amusing to note the complaints of the anti-"Mormon" adventurers, who desire to ride over the will and votes of the great majority of the people in Utah. They first whine about being "practically disfranchised," and then turn round and threaten, as though the whole army of the United States was at their command, to enforce what they please to call their "rights." No legislation would please them, unless it empowered the small minority to rule and legislate instead of the large majority.

These persons all told would not make up a twentieth part of the population, for it is safe to say that at least one half of the non-"Mormon" element despises their mingled nonsense and malignity, as much as the "Mormons" do. Yet this little knot of plotters want to lay the fault of their impotence in local affairs, not to their lack of comparative numbers, but to some imaginary despotism in local management. It is not funny, as well as singular, that a very few individuals compared with the bulk of the people, should even feel aggrieved—to say nothing of appealing to the country and to political parties and to Congress for relief—because they cannot regulate and control the majority and handle their finances? Yet this is all their grievance, simply told. It is nothing more. For their reflection we have clipped the following paragraph from the New York Journal, which goes straight to the mark and illustrates the subject clearly. We commend it to their careful consideration.

AMERICAN.
Quick Traveling.
 JERSEY CITY, N. J., 15.—A train on the Pennsylvania road ran from Philadelphia to this place, 90 miles in 38 minutes, stopping four times and slowing up twice to cross bridges.

Great Britain's Marksmen.

A London dispatch says: The following are the total scores in the Edinburgh international rifle match—England, 1,733; Scotland, 1,705; Ireland, 1,661.

Democratic Politicians.

CHICAGO, 15.—The Inter-Ocean's Washington special says: The first instalment of politicians left for Cincinnati last night. To-morrow night, if it is reasonably certain that Congress will adjourn the following day, there will be a stampede of statements. The Field boomers, from appearances, are supplied from a large barrel, as quite a number of strikers are going to Cincinnati in special cars, and with their expenses paid. They are very confident and fear but one man, Seymour. Senator Kernan, who went to see the latter's office reply regarding the use of his name, is expected back in the morning, as he made the trip at the solicitation of many Democrats who will accept, much depends upon the word Senator Kernan brings.

The Candidates.

The Inter-Ocean's Washington special says: The best information is that Seymour will most emphatically refuse the use of his name on account of his health. Your correspondent has carefully compared the estimates and submits the following possible roster of candidates for Cincinnati: Tilden 200, Field 150, Bayard 150, Thurman 75, Hancock 70, Morrison 18.

Washington Notes.

WASHINGTON, 15.—General E. D. Townsend, Adjutant-General of the army, will be placed on the retired list to-morrow. He will be succeeded by General Richard C. Drum, at present Adjutant-General.

The Senate has confirmed James Longstreet, of Georgia, minister resident at St. Petersburg, without discussion, and by a very decisive vote of 89 against 2.

The Struggle at Cincinnati.

J. Ellcehnath, C. H. Maddox, W. W. Foster, Wm. P. Frost, and D. Stephens, all delegates to Cincinnati, arrived here last night. Delegates Carr and Metcalf registered on Saturday. Governor Johnson, Senator Givens and E. J. Coleman, Harry Thornton and Judge Cope also put in an appearance in Washington, yesterday; all of them have been busy since their arrival in settling the political horizon with the aid of Washington friends and acquaintances, in and out of Congress, but the delegation have not yet held a meeting for an exchange of views on Saturday. Governor Johnson, Senator Givens and E. J. Coleman, Harry Thornton and Judge Cope also put in an appearance in Washington, yesterday; all of them have been busy since their arrival in settling the political horizon with the aid of Washington friends and acquaintances, in and out of Congress, but the delegation have not yet held a meeting for an exchange of views on Saturday. The Dreadful Floods in Wisconsin.

MILWAUKEE, 15.—The Sentinel's special says: The damage by the flood amounts to $150,000. The water is falling and no more danger is apprehended. The Sentinel's Chippewa Falls special says: From Friday night to Sunday the Chippewa river rose 24 feet and the entire upper river was cleared of logs. Both bridges at Chippewa Falls were swept away and all on Dunceon Creek except one. The great locks of the dam were swept away and fears are entertained that they will carry off the lower part of the city. The total loss will probably reach a million dollars. The Chippewa Lumber Co. loses nearly all the logs, piers and booms, but commence as soon as the river subsides to repair. About twenty million feet of logs remain in the pocket at Delta Eauclaire, but will probably go out with the rest. The Badger mill below the city is carried away. The French Lumbering Co.'s big mill at Grand Island is badly damaged.

The Louisville Riot.

LEADVILLE, 15.—Ten companies of infantry and one of cavalry are on duty. The committee of safety are in constant session. The mines have been crowded all day with miners waiting work. Ex-Mayor James is brigadier-general of the strikers' army. The strikers have issued resolutions to assassinate Governor Taylor and other prominent men.

Carded for Washington.

PITTSBURGH, 15.—Garfield passed through at 9 o'clock last evening for Washington.

More Seymour Denial.

UTICA, 15.—Mayor Harrison, of Chicago, has been to see Horatio Seymour. He finds that the latter says he is in no sense a candidate, but no man has authority to say he will not accept the nomination.

What the Tornado was Worth.

PITTSFIELD, N. H., 15.—The estimated loss of property by the tornado yesterday, amounted to $100,000. Acres of trees from two to four feet in diameter were snapped like pipe stems.

The Charlie Murder Case.

MASSACHUSETTS, 15.—The jury in the Currie case is filed out. The defendant pleads not guilty. Three witnesses on the part of the State were examined. The testimony of Maurice Barrymore, the principal witness, who was present with Miss Cummins and Porter, the actor, when the latter was shot, clearly fastens the guilt upon Currie.

The Oil Fire Out.

TRUSTVILLE, Pa., 15.—The great fire has now spent itself and the city is quiet. A relief committee has been around all day and raised funds for the relief of the indigent.

Tilden and Field.

NEW YORK, 15.—Tilden last evening said he could not be kept busy making denials of statements. He would only say he is in the hands of his friends.

Judge Field has some western supporters on the ground that his opinions, as the Judge would help the ticket on the Pacific votes, and would secure the favor of corporations, but there is an avowed intention to taking a candidate from the Supreme bench.

Asked to Resign.

The Times Washington special says: It is reported that the surveyor of the port of New York, Graham, has been asked to resign for any fault committed, but to make way for a more active man.

Thirty-nine Corpses.

The death roll of the terrible sand disaster now numbers 39 persons, of whom six still remain to be identified.

Contestants both Admitted.

The Herald's Washington special says of the morning Cincinnati Convention, that both the New York delegations will be admitted and given a vote each.

The Mirzan Case in Egypt.

The Herald's Paris cable says: Our Alexandria (Egypt) correspondent telegraphs as follows: Minister Maynard, in pronouncing the final judgment in the Mirzan case to-day, declared that Mirzan was guilty of murder and sentenced him to be hanged at Alexandria on the first of next October. The defense was impulsive mania, which it was hoped would reduce the crime to manslaughter. A motion to arrest judgment on the ground of a want of jurisdiction of the ministerial court was refused. Mirzan's counsel gave notice of an appeal to the Circuit Court of California, in accordance with section 4095, and 4125 of the Revised Statutes, which put the Minister of Turkey in the position of the Minister to China and Japan, as regards the appeal to the Circuit Court of California.

California Objection to Field.

The Herald San Francisco special says: The chief objections to Field are that he is not sound on the Chinese question, nor the paramount issue in this State, and that his decisions have always been in favor of the right railroads and other monopolies. The delegation is here, counted nine for Tilden, two for Thurman and one for Field.

Brief New York Items.

The World has had strong leaders for several days past arguing the manifest fitness of Tilden for the Cincinnati nomination. It also publishes prominently everything unfavorable to his candidacy it can glean from other journals throughout the country.

For the 24 hours ending at noon yesterday, 108 deaths were reported in the city. This is an unusually high rate.

The artesian well at the Fifth Avenue Hotel is now down 1,108 feet, and is still going.

The newspaper train was run from Jersey City to Philadelphia yesterday morning in 43 minutes. The train made four stops. The distance run was 90 miles. Taking out time for stops, the average run was over one mile a minute and is the fastest on record.

The Brooklyn City Directory, published yesterday, contains 2,855 names more than last year, and indicates the population of the town over 625,000.

The census enumeration closed yesterday in New York and has been satisfactorily done. The enumerators report they found more trouble in wealthy sections of the city than in the districts inhabited by the poor. The carelessness, laziness and indifference of the rich was a greater obstacle to obtaining the required information than the ignorance of the tenement house population. Thirteen hundred and forty immigrants arrived from Europe yesterday.

The weather is warm, but threatening.
