

THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

The Great Country Paper of the West. Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Ceris for Waiters—The cooks and waiters are to organize a union Wednesday night next, in Knights of Columbus hall.
Breaks Both Wrists—Mrs. Ann McGee, a chambermaid employed at the Boston building, fell over iron lawn guards on Fourth Street last Monday, fracturing both wrists.

Halloween Party—There will be a Halloween party at Gordon academy Saturday evening next, with booths of fancy work and games of various kinds suited to the day and date.
Clinton Back at Desk—After a sabbatical of nearly two weeks under a physician's care, James E. Clinton, chairman of the board of county commissioners, was at his desk again this morning.

Case of Typhoid—One new case of typhoid fever was reported to the city board of health Monday. The patient, a 12-year-old boy, of 455 North Second West street.
Where is W. Barlow?—Mrs. A. Moore of No. 8 Lathbury street, Queens Park, Harpurg, Manchester, England, would like to know the address of W. Barlow, who is thought to be living somewhere in Utah.

Mrs. Borg Convalescent—Mrs. A. E. Borg, wife of the treasurer of the Utah Light & Railway company, has recovered from severe injuries caused by a gasoline explosion, and is able to be out once more. She will soon recover the entire use of her arm.
Fading Without License—Lulu Morris and Marcella Virkalis are charged with fishing in the Jordan river without licenses in complaints issued by the county attorney yesterday. "Bill" Hingray, deputy fish warden, is a witness, rounded by both of them Sunday.

Struck By Street Car—The wagon in which James Sheffield and family were driving across the Third Avenue truck at M street Monday evening, was struck and demolished by street car 425, Motorist H. B. Stevens. The occupants were thrown out into a heap, none scathed than hurt.
H. E. Hunt III—Assistant General Manager R. E. Hunt of the Utah Light & Railway company is again very ill, and has not been able to go out since his return on attendance at the Denver street car convention. In the meantime, Chief Clerk Baker is holding down the managerial throne.

Application for Water—Charles Humes of Heber has applied to the state engineer for five second feet of water from streams near Heber for irrigation purposes. Joseph L. Lee and E. K. Lloyd of Irapah apply for eight feet of water from Johnson creek, Juno county, for irrigation and domestic uses.
Released on Bond—On furnishing bond of $200, W. Christensen, charged with having gotten valuable blankets from Z. C. M. I. on the credit of the Daynes-Bloch Music company and selling them to the latter concern for $30, was released from the county jail by order of Judge Bowman, Monday afternoon.

Col. W. F. Jenkins to speak—Col. W. F. Jenkins, provincial officer for the intermountain province of the Salvation Army, which includes Utah, Wyoming, Colorado, Idaho, Arizona, and New Mexico, will speak at the intermountain army hall, on east Second South street, tonight. He is accompanied by Major Waite.
Felt Building Looming—Work is being pushed at the felt building on south Main street, which is being built by the Whitney-Steen company. The structural steel is practically all in place, the reinforced concrete for the second floor has been laid and the contractors are preparing for the concrete work on the third floor. The first floor is ready for the finish, though it will be some time before it can be put on.

Theological Society—The Salt Lake Theological society was organized Monday night, in Unity hall, with 40 members. E. W. Madison, president, W. Rice, vice-president, H. W. Nielson, secretary, and S. D. Jerome, librarian. Meetings will be held Sunday evening, in Unity hall, and a charter will be sent for from the parent association. It is said that the Salt Lake society is the only one of the kind in the intermountain country. Theosophists believe in reincarnation.
Church Social Guild—Sixty members of the Young People's Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church, organized Monday night a social club for the ensuing season, with these officers: J. A. Teevese was chosen president; Mrs. J. W. Gates, vice-president; A. F. Groves-Walker, secretary; and Eva Lundford, treasurer. Meetings will be held twice a month and social programs will be arranged for each meeting. The first social will be a Halloween party at St. Paul's Mission house next Monday night.
A. V. P. E. Congratulatory—D. H. Christensen, city superintendent of schools, has received a letter from Director General W. H. Howe of the Utah exhibit at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition at Seattle, congratulating him on the excellent exhibit of the Salt Lake City schools, and thanking him for the interest taken in the matter. The schools of Salt Lake were awarded a gold medal for their exhibit at the exposition. Mr. Howe also compliments Prof. Fred N. Poulsen of this city for his work as director of the educational exhibit. Lindsey Hillman also commends him for a share of praise for his work in preparing the exhibit for return to Utah.

KNOCKOUT COSTS TEN.

Expressman Fined One Dollar a Minute Dr. Lindsay Was Unconscious.

A unique rule of law was set by Judge Bowman in police court, Monday afternoon, when it was settled in a battery case that the defendant should pay a fine amounting to $1 per minute for the total length of time that the complaining witness had lain unconscious as a result of said defendant's blows.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Prigritful Fate Averted. "I would have been a cripple for life, from a terrible car crash, by knee life," writes Frank Dierker, Kollher, Minn., "without Buckner's Arnica Salve, which soon cured me." It is a reliable for wounds, cuts and bruises, it soothes burns, scalds, etc. It is the best for Piles. 25c at Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept., 112-114 So. Main St., Salt Lake City.

TWO BARN DESTROYED.

Fire of unknown origin destroyed two barns, valued at $500, in the rear of the home of Dr. T. M. H. Hotop and H. K. Russell, 27 and 24 south Third East street, early Monday night. By quickly responding to an alarm which was not sent in until after the barns had burned, the fire department was able to prevent the flames from spreading to nearby buildings.

ROYAL STALE BREAD DEPOT.

Open 3 to 5 p. m. daily. Entrance on Third South. Good bread very cheap.

Christmas is coming again and with it the Red Cross stamps to carry on the crusade against tuberculosis. The stamps are to be posted upon Christmas packages. Last year the net proceeds of the sales of stamps amounted to $150,000. It is estimated that was used to equip a tuberculosis patient with a camping outfit. $100.00 of it went to the purchase of a set of books upon the cure and prevention of the disease.

ROYAL STALE BREAD DEPOT.

Open 3 to 5 p. m. daily. Entrance on Third South. Good bread very cheap.

NEW EDISON RECORDS.

Oscar Hammerstein announces that the new American Grand Opera which Victor Herbert is now composing for him, and in which Mary Garden will assume the leading role, will positively be produced during the coming season. Mr. Herbert has promised to deliver the score by January 15th. The noted composer-conductor has been engaged in supervising and criticizing the work of recording at the Recording Laboratory of the National Phonograph Company, at 73 Fifth Avenue, New York City, and has also directed his orchestra in a number of selections for Edison Records.

DONT.

Don't think because you have taken many remedies in vain that your case is incurable. You have not taken Hood's Sarsaparilla. It has cured many seemingly hopeless cases of syphilis, catarrh, rheumatism, kidney complaint, dyspepsia and general debility—many cases that may have been worse than yours. This great medicine has done for others it can do for you.
