A newspaper in Ottawa county has the following: "Last week we announced the marriage of a young friend, and now it becomes our pleasant duty to announce that he is the father of a bouncing boy."

The latest from Lawrence is that a judge reproved a witness in the following classically forcible manner: "Young man, if you speak that way again, this court will forget its dignity and punch you in the speat."

A rural gentleman standing over register in one of our stores attracted general attention to himsel by observing to his wife, "Mariar, I guess I'm a going to have a fever, I feel such hot streaks a runnin up my legs."

"What is the use of trying to be honest?" asked a young man the other day of a friend. "Oh, you ought to try it once and see," was Some questions very naturally gether the best thing of the kind ever put in the market.

A Connecticut clergyman was sent for to marry a couple, but was delayed several days by a storm. When he reached the place he found the would-be bride with her sleeves relied up, kneeding dough, and the would-be groom with his coat off, snugly seated beside a warm stove, smoking his meerwarm stove, smoking his meer-schaum. The couple concluded they "mought as well be married at that time as any other," and they
