A NEW song, words and music by Wm. Willes, entitled "Have you seen our beautiful city?" has just been issued by Coalter & Snelgrove, music dealers.

YESTERDAY afternoon, Peter Olse who was arrested on the charge of unlawful cohabitation, failed to obtain the required ball, $500, and was sent to the penitentiary.

THE views of different people in relation to the new law are various as to detail but nearly unanimous as to the general result-that it will produce no good and be of no benefit to anybody.

THOSE flags don't float very triumphantly after all. Perhaps some people are beginning to understand that the "Mormons" can live where they can, and that the sword of the lawsometimes has two edges.

For Emma Abbott's closing performance this evening "Linda di Chamouni" will be given. In this Miss Abbott will sing "Sweet Home," and by particular request, "The Last Rose of Summer," in which she has no equal
