"Health, Wealth and Wisdom." -The lecture given in the Nineteenth Ward school house on this subject last evening, by Charles W. Stayner, was listened to with deep interest by a large audience. It was an intellectual treat to those who attended. At the close a hearty vote of thanks was given Judge Stayner for his able effort.

We understand this lecture will soon be repeated in other wards of the city, when all who desire a feast of good instructions tastily presented, should

From the Coast .- We had a pleasant call yesterday afternoon from Mr. E. E. Ames, manager of the branch house of Studebaker Brothers' Manufacturing Company, situated in San Francisco, who with his family is paying this city a brief visit. Mr. Ames has been here on numerous occasions before, but this is the first visit which his family have made to this region. Though the season of the year is rather unpleasant for sight seeing, they are quite pleased with the appearance of the city and its surroundings.

He then went on to say that he had seen Mr. Carpen. THE wife of John N. Lees, of the on to say that he had seen Mr. Cannon in bed with Miss Hughes at the Hospital. On one occasion he saw through the open door. At other times ne peeped through the window and saw them. He did this out of curiosity He also said he could find others who could give evidence. When he came to my office he said that Anna Oisen, a laundry-girl at the Hospital, coul tell something. She had been to Bing-ham, then back to Salt Lake, and he thought she had gone to Bingham again. He also said Mattie Hugher was stopping at the house of a man named Gorringe, and that is what prompted the raid or search at that

A NOTE from Manager Thomas L. Kimball, dated Omaha, December 11th, 1886, says Mr. Samuel C. Nash having am not responsible for what I say Commissioner-Have you ever been in an insane asylum? Parsons continuing-No, sir, I don' remember the conversation with any of the men; I remember seeing Mr Dyer, but didn't know who he was. I I bad not been drinking I would have remembered what I said. I TOLD YOU THE TRUTH UNDER OATH day before yesterday. The conver-sation alleged with Mr. Dyer is untrue. I don't know whether said what he states or not. It isn't true anyway. Marshal Dyer-I should say he was not under the influence of liquor; he seems in about the same condition now that he was then.

Deputy Pratt testified—I suppossed Mrs. Parsons; she said she knew what we wanted, but he WOULD NOT TESTIFY UNLESS PAID; he knew enough to send Mr

Cannon to the penitentiary; I saw Robert; he told me he wanted money, but I teld him I could give him nothing, he might see the Marshal; he said he knew enough to send Mr. Cannon to prison; he was then in Whitte-more's hotel; I left him to come up town; he was in as sober a condition as he is now. Witness Parsons, to the Commiswitness raisons, to the commis-sioner—I do not know what was said to Mr. Pratt, as I had been drinking when he came to me. I am sober now. Deputy Cannon testified—I heard the conversation as related by Mr. Pratt Parsons said he would tell the truth if there was anything in it. He was as ober as be is now.

Mr. Parsons-You can't tell that. Deputy Cannon-You acted the Mr. Parsons—You didn't see me drinking, and you don't know.
This closed this branch of the proeedings for the time being.

The Commissioner then took up the Cannon case. Mr. Richards suggested that the charge on which Mr. Dickson asked that the defendant be held, had already IGNORED BY THE GRAND JURY, on similar testimony to that given on the present occasion, and the circumstances were such that no magistrate would bind over on the evidence.

The Commissioner then said that he had conducted the case before the grand jury on the former occasion, and had determined that he would not hold the defendant now unless there was more against him than developed at defendant's son, George M. Cannon. THE INDICTMENT WAS NOT FOUND because of lack of evidence, but hehad so changed it as to be infamous. However, as nothing new or additional had been developed at the examination, the defendant would be discharged on all the charges against him.

The Parsons case was then taken up again, and the Commissioner said he would like to hear Messrs. Sheeks and Richards on the question whether witness Parsons was
