

IN DEFENSE OF SENATOR SMOOT.

Attorney General Breeden Says
The Better Element Want Him Seated.

IS A PROGRESSIVE AMERICAN.

Tells Butte Paper What Utah is Doing
In Mining, Agriculture and Railroad Building.

Maj. M. A. Breeden, attorney-general for Utah, made a flying business trip to Butte yesterday, says the Miner, arriving on the early morning train and returning on the forenoon train to the city of Saints. The major's trip was purely a business one.

He was asked yesterday by a representative of the Miner of the feeling in Salt Lake city and the state of Utah in the controversy over the seating of Reed Smoot in the United States senate. Maj. Breeden is what is known as a "non-Mormon." He said: "The better element throughout the state is decidedly in favor of his being seated. Nothing was ever said of his being a polygamist until his candidacy for the senate, and to those who have known him, it is not thought there is the slightest basis of truth in the accusation.

"Reed Smoot is a wide-awake, active and progressive American of the purest type, and is well fitted to represent Utah or any other state in its highest congressional body. He is a young, of fine abilities and a shrewd business man, having the state's welfare always at heart.

"Utah has had a very prosperous year and is going rapidly to the front. Mining is progressing wonderfully and profitably. Many new claims are being developed, old diggings are being reopened and all the state is opening up great wealth in mineral.

"As to agriculture, that has always been one of our state's principal sources of wealth, and last year exceeded all previous records. Take the iron industry, for instance. In 1902, 11,300 acres of sugar beets were grown from which 3,000,000 pounds of sugar was produced. The farmers received for this crop $45,000 and as a result, the mortgages which have been held on the lands were almost entirely lifted.

"Senator W. A. Clark has earned the gratitude of the state for his aid in the stimulus of industries there. Not only have the moneyed interests felt the good derived from his entry into the state, but in all lines the increase in business is felt. His interest in the San Pedro railroad has materially been felt in Salt Lake City, and as a consequence of his plans for the future, in which he has evidenced so much good faith, he has been generously and heartily received by the people of the state."

Referring again to the Reed Smoot question, Maj. Breeden said that the old feeling of hostility between the "non-Mormons" and the "Mormons" is rapidly dying out. Their interests are now so nearly identical that the animosity cannot exist, and the elimination of this feeling is principally due to the belief that the "Mormons" are honest in their observance of the law prohibiting polygamous marriage. The irrigation congress, to be held in Ogden in September, is expected to accomplish much good in the agricultural welfare of the state and a large attendance, not only of delegates but also of farmers, is anticipated.

Social and Personal.

Mrs. Agnes Dahlquist of this city returned yesterday from Europe, where she has been studying music for the past three years. She was accompanied by her sister Olga, who has been abroad for a year in the art schools. The Misses Dahlquist had a delightful ocean voyage and overland journey and are glad to be in their home city once more.

Miss Lurera Snow was hostess at a delightful affair last night including a coaching party and an elaborate supper at the Commercial club. The table was spread in the large diningroom and was daintily adorned with pink and white sweet peas and asparagus plumes. After supper the evening was spent in dancing, music and ping-pong, the entire affair being a most enjoyable one. Mrs. Joseph Richards and Mrs. Harry Fennemore were chaperones.

Mr. and Mrs. Wetzell have opened a studio on the sixth floor of the Templeton building, where they will be easily settled by next week.

The rooms were decorated in naturalness and a pleasant feature of the evening was a guessing game in which prizes were won by Messrs. Heimbach and Hunter and Messrs. Grimmer and Everett.

Miss Leone Hogan and Len Love entertained delightfully at the latter's home in Forest Dale. The young people enjoyed themselves in dancing on the spacious lawn and playing several games in the house. Dainty refreshments were served during the evening. Those present were the Misses Cora Olsen, Albo Dunbar, Marion Cannon, Ida Morris, Lilian and Mavis Sumner, Edith Poulton, Irene Bassett, Ruth and Elsie Bull, and Mabel Hampton. Messrs. WATERMELON ANNUAL.

The Keith-O'Brien Outing Yesterday an Affair Long to be Remembered.

The Keith-O'Brien excursion to Lagoona yesterday brought out a big crowd, in fact, fully 1,500 people went out to the beautiful Farmington resort and spent a joyous afternoon and evening. The special train at 2:30 carried the largest portion of the crowd, but succeeding trains were all well patronized.

The essential feature of the outing was the disposition of 200 watermelons that had been secured by the big dry goods firm, pro bono publico. The act of cutting up the melons was watched with interest by a large crowd which subsequently sampled the generous portions handed around by two uniformed colored porters. A most enjoyable day was spent, the directorate heads of departments and employees mingling together like one large family. During the evening dancing was held in the big hall, and the socialistic tendencies well developed and were invited to assist in demolishing the delicacies. The occasion of the outing was the closing of the half-holiday summer season, and the management concluded to have just one more and make it a fitting wind-up to the season's vacation scheme. The closing of the store and the outing were expensive propositions, but the act was greatly appreciated by employees and patrons alike.

SILVER FOR CARPENTER.

Friends and Fellow-Associates Present Coal Man With Substantial Token.

E. L. Carpenter, who for the past 21 years has been connected with the Rio Grande and the Pleasant Valley Coal companies, was yesterday afternoon presented by his fellow employees with a handsome chest of silver-plate. Mr. Carpenter leaves tomorrow for New York, where he will enter the office of the Fairmont Coal company under Will G. Sharp. The presentation was made by Auditor Evans of the Fuel company in the presence of the employees who had gathered in the office, and a neat speech testified to the esteem in which the retiring general salesman was held by his associates. Mr. Carpenter was visibly affected and responded eventually in a manner that betokened that he appreciated the action of the boys. He thanked the men heartily and assured them of his lasting friendship. The chest, which is a handsome affair lined with satin and contains 50 pieces of table ware, was

AUGUST HEALTH REPORT.

With the Exception of the Typhoid Epidemic, Conditions About Normal.

While the health conditions of the city for August are not so good as the preceding month, the death rate and birth rate are about the same. The report of the board of health for the month shows that the deaths reported were three in excess of the previous month and five less than for the same month last year. Seventy-two deaths were reported being equivalent to an annual death rate of 11.52 per 1,000 estimated population.

The largest number of deaths from any one cause were due to cholera infantum, there being six deaths among children under 2 years of age; four deaths among children were caused by meningitis, with cholera infantum as the remote cause; four deaths were due to appendicitis and its complications; four deaths resulted from organic diseases of the heart and a like number occurred as a result of violence. There were three deaths each from scarlet fever, typhoid fever, diphtheria and dysentery.

Deaths among children under 5 years of age were the same as the preceding month. Twenty-six deaths were reported, 24 being reported as deaths between the ages of 5 and 45 were three more than for the month before (17) and the same as July among adults over 45 with 29 deaths. All of the deaths were whites, 40 being single and 21 natives of Utah. Deaths among males decreased eight as compared with last month, making the rate among the males more even, 37 males and 35 females.

The birth rate for the month represents an annual rate of 21.44 per 1,000, with four births in excess of the month previous. Two hundred and thirty-four were born during the month, 134 being males and 100 females.

Of the contagious and infectious diseases required to be reported, compared with July, scarlet fever decreased eight, diphtheria decreased three, smallpox decreased six, while typhoid fever multiplied more than seven times, the total cases reported being 11 cases of diphtheria, five cases of scarlet fever, two cases of measles, four cases of smallpox and 75 typhoid fever, an aggregate of 97 cases, as against 53 for the month before. Twenty-six houses having 125 rooms were fumigated by the department fumigator after contagious diseases had existed therein.

Sixty-four samples of milk were submitted to the city chemist during the month, of which 14 were found to be below the standard set by the city ordinance. Two samples of city water, four samples of ice and six samples of flowing well water form a part of the chemist's work for the month.

THE LIGHT THAT FAILED.

Superstition of Prisoners Who Saw the Flame Go Out in Mike Boyle's Cell.

"There is a peculiar state of affairs at the city jail since Mike Boyle died," said Jailer Kimball to a "News" reporter this morning.

"When Mike went to bed Wednesday night," continued Jailer Kimball, "he turned off the light above his bunk and the light has never been turned on since. The next morning he died. When I went to feed the prisoners I found the room quite dark and asked the prisoners why they did not turn the light on. The prisoners looked scared and some of the colored prisoners were frightened almost out of their wits. I tried to get one of the prisoners to take Mike's bunk, but I couldn't get him near it under any consideration. They all believe if they turned on that light that the man who did it would surely follow Mike."

"You won't get me to touch the light or go near the bunk," said old Tom King this morning. "Mike turned that light off and it will stay off for all of me. I won't go near that bunk either. But you should see them niggers. They are scared half to death."

Jailer Kimball says the prisoners will wait until they get a stranger in there and then have him turn on the light and occupy the dead man's bunk.
