THE GREAT COUNTRY PAPER OF THE WEST

Is issued Mondays and Thursdays and contains all the cream of the Daily and Saturday News

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The Socialists are arranging to celebrate the first of May in this city, with good speaking and music.

Col. T. M. Fisher, in charge of the immigration bureau at Port Townsend, arrived in town last night, from the northwest, to take part in the Chin Quai Chan deportation case.

The University Dramatic club will give an excursion to Saltair this evening, and dancing will be the order of the evening in the enclosed pavilion. A large attendance is promised.

Capt. Bailey of Saltair was in town yesterday afternoon, and says the level of the great lake has risen one inch in the last three days, and is now four inches higher than it was a year ago.

There was a lively fall of hail late yesterday afternoon, accompanied by a thunderstorm. Following this display of petulance on the part of the weather deity, the sun shone brightly, and made the remainder of the day very pleasant.

A west first South street grocer has a curiosity in the shape of hairy chickens hatched in an incubator from eggs brought from Alaska. The hair seems to be a thick coating of nature for better protection from the cold.

The children left by Mrs. Temple, who died of cancer at the L. D. hospital, have been cared for. The oldest girl and baby were sent to Seattle where their grandmother will bring them up, and the second child has been taken by his half brother to Pueblo.

A meeting of the principal fruit growers in the state will be called in this city during conference week, with a view to organizing a horticultural association. One object of the society will have in view will be the disposition of the surplus fruit product of the state.

Commencing on tomorrow the reading room of the free public library will be open from 2 to 6 o'clock p. m. each Sunday. No books will be issued on Sundays, but the rooms may be used by the public as reading rooms. This new rule does not apply to the juvenile department.

A messenger boy tried to throw a large marble, yesterday, up the alley beside the Houston building. The marble went wild, and striking one of the large panes of glass in the Postal Telegraph office, cracked it. The glass is 12x15 1/2 inches, and cost $650. It is insured.

There was a large attendance last evening at the reception by the ladies of the Third Presbyterian church in the new Gunton chapel on Eleventh East street. There was a program and refreshments were served. The program included a reading by Miss Mary Maxie, a violin solo by Master George Clark, and a stringed orchestra.

The Jeffersonian Democrats of the Fourth precinct will give an informal reception at the residence of Mrs. J. A. Meynes, 175 G street, at 8 p. m., April 13, the anniversary of the great statesman's birth. All lovers of Jeffersonian principles are invited to unite with them on that occasion. Popular speakers will address the meeting, which will be interspersed with music and refreshments.

James D. Stirling is the possessor of a unique postal card, 2x3 1/2 inches in size, issued by a Glasgow, Scotland, business house, and bearing a highly colored lithograph of the "Mormon" Temple at Salt Lake City. On the reverse side of the card is postmarked "Salt Lake City," and made to appear as though it had been sent to Glasgow from this locality. Altogether it is a clever advertising scheme.

The preliminary hearing of Jerry Nuccio, who shot his brother, Frank, is charged with the murder of Louis Perne at Bingham Junction on July 5, 1904, will be held before Justice M. the Peace Bishop, Farmers ward, on Monday, April 3. Mr. Hamilton has been employed to defend Nuccio. It is said that since the Austrians' confinement in the county jail he has been learning the English language with the assistance of some of the prisoners and seems to be getting along very well in his studies.

C.S. MARTIN COAL CO.

Rock Springs, Cumberland, Castle Gate and Clear Creek lump, nut and slack.

UNIVERSITY SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Prof. J. M. Mills will speak tomorrow in the University Sunday school on "The Rise, Progress and Fall of the Jaredite Nation," while Dr. Talmage will deal with the subject, "Honored and Rejected," referring to Christ's reception by the people at that time. The meeting begins at 12:30. All are invited.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

The great success of this preparation in the relief of cholera, dysentery, and other ailments has brought it into almost universal use. It never fails and when reduced with water and sweetened is pleasant to take. It is equally valuable for children and adults. For sale by all druggists.
