EMERYVILLE CARD

Was Only Fair But Was Run in Mud And Rain.

San Francisco, Dec. 17.—The card at Emeryville today was a fair one, but the weather was disagreeable and the track heavy.

The third race resulted in one of the best contests seen here between Anvil and Salable, and it was only after a desperate drive that Anvil poked his nose past the post. The favorite, Fury, ran in very poor form. Burleigh's gallant victory in the fifth aroused great enthusiasm when the big chestnut gelding nodded in ahead by a narrow margin.

First race, six and a half furlongs—Herzog, 119, Sandy, 3 to 1, won; Pachuca, 119, F. Miller, 2 to 1, second; Cheripe, 119, Lawrence, 18 to 5, third. Time—1:23 3-5. Miller's Daughter, Lady Fashion, Dora J. Pickles and Mai Lowery also ran.

Heart Like a Clock

The pulsation of the heart marks the passage of the blood through the veins, just as the ticking of a clock indicates the flight of moments of time. Palpitation, fluttering or irregular action reveals the fact that the heart is running down—and unless strengthened, is liable to stop at any time under some weakening influence, such as excitement, over-work, or intense mental or physical strain. To regulate the heart action, you should take Dr. Miles' Heart Cure when any symptoms of a weak heart is apparent. It has no equal.

"Sometime ago I had a very severe pain around my heart, and most of the time I had a heavy beating or throbbing of the heart. It would beat so that when I lay down at night it would sound like a small clock in bed with me. I could count the ticking. With every little exercise, or walking I felt like my heart would give out, and I would be so tired I would have to lie down and rest. I suffered quite a while in this way, then I concluded to try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I had not taken it long until I began to feel easier, and so continued, and the medicine entirely cured me. I am very grateful for the great good I received from Dr. Miles' Heart Cure."

BACK GIVES OUT.

Plenty of Salt Lake Readers Have This Experience.

You tax the kidneys—overwork them—

They can't keep up the continual strain,

The back gives out—it aches and pains;

Urinary troubles set in.

Don't wait longer—take Doan's Kidney Pills.

Salt Lake people tell you how they act.

Mrs. W. J. Green, of 21 Orchard Square, Salt Lake City, Utah, says: "While I have little faith in the common run of proprietary medicines, I must admit the value of Doan's Kidney Pills which I have discovered through actual use and through the most gratifying results. My trouble was backache and a disordered action of the kidneys. Within a short time after using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at the F. J. Hill Drug Co.'s store, I found relief and was soon restored to my former good health. I am, therefore, ready to recommend them to anyone suffering from similar troubles."

QUARANTINE ORDER.

U. S. Supreme Court Holds Secy. Wilson's to be Unconstitutional.

Washington, Dec. 17.—In deciding the cases of the Illinois Central Railroad company vs G. Edwards and J. U. McKendree of Kentucky, the supreme court of the United States today held to be unconstitutional the agricultural department's quarantine order, because the line fixed by it was made applicable to the state as well as the interstate movement of cattle. The court's opinion, announced by Justice Day, reversed the finding of the circuit court of Carlisle county, Kentucky.

The decision distinctly holds the act invalid because of its interference with interstate commerce.

THE VZRAL FAMILY.

Six Died Strange Deaths, Two at Least From Poison.

Chicago, Dec. 17.—Poison was responsible for the death of at least two of the Vzral family, six of whom died within a few months of each other in the last year. Herman Billik, a fortune teller, is now in jail on a charge of having administered poison to the family so that the mother of the dead children could collect the insurance money. Mrs. Vzral was found dead in her home two weeks ago, a few hours after an investigation into the cause of the death of the other members of the family was begun. At first it was believed she committed suicide, but the police are of the opinion that the same agency that caused the death of the children was responsible for her death.

Positive evidence of the presence of poison in the internal organs of Ella and Mary, two of the daughters of Mrs. Vzral, whose bodies were exhumed last week, was discovered today by Prof. Walter M. Hines of the Rush Medical college and Dr. Lewke of the coroner's staff. Arsenic was found in the liver and stomach of both victims in sufficient quantities to cause death. The bodies of the other members of the family will be exhumed and an examination made for traces of poison.

LOTS OF BOMBS.

Moscow Police Make a Big Find in a Public Library.

Moscow, Dec. 17.—In the course of a search in the Basmanoff quarter of this city yesterday, when seven bombs were discovered a number of books from the library of the Dasarieff institute of oriental languages were also found. Following up this clue, the police searched the library itself and discovered more bombs and a quantity of apparatus and material for the manufacture of explosives. Up to the present time 50 members of the revolutionary fighting organization have been arrested in connection with the affair.

Searches were conducted to day in the agricultural institute and in the suburb of Vyselki, which is largely inhabited by students, and many arrests were made.

LAND FRAUD CASES.

Solicitor-General Hoyt Moves to Advance Them in Supreme Court.

Washington, Dec. 17.—Solicitor-General Hoyt today presented a motion in the supreme court of the United States to advance the argument in the cases of Will E. Gould, David M. Goodwin, Warren Gillelen, R. W. Kenney and Lee B. Mathers, all of whom seek to avoid removal from California to Oregon, where they are under indictment up on the charge of conspiracy to defraud the government of the United State of large tracts of public lands. The court took the motion under advisement.

STATUE OF BOB INGERSOLL.

New York, Dec. 17.—The model of a statute of Col. Robert G. Ingersoll, the agnostic and orator, ordered some time ago by the Ingersoll Monument association of Peoria, Ill., has just been finished in clay in this city. It will be cast in bronze early next spring. It is expected that the statue will be ready for unveiling in Glen Oak park, Peoria, on the anniversary of Col. Ingersoll's death, July 21. Frederick F. Trieber of this city, who is a native of Peoria, is the sculptor.

The statue, which will be one-third larger than life, shows Col. Ingersoll with his hands on his hips, a characteristic and well remembered attitude of his.

ITALIAN IMMIGRATION

Reaches Such Proportions as to Become of National Importance.

New York, Dec. 18.—The secretary of the Society for Italian Immigrants, which was organized five years ago to assist and safeguard newcomers here of that race, in a report says:

"The enormous immigration of Italians to this country has reached such proportions that it has become a question of national importance."

In the first six months of 1906, he says, nearly 130,000 Italians arrived at Ellis island, of whom 18,213 were assisted by the society. The aim of the organization is not only to help and protect the new arrivals, but to follow them to the great labor centers and by the formation of labor camp schools, to make them intelligent, self-respecting citizens. The Italian government gives the society a subsidy equal to whatever is contributed to it on this side of the Atlantic.

FEAR BELGIUM WILL ANNEX CONGO FREE STATE.

Chicago, Dec. 18.—The Record-Herald today says:

Fearful that the Congo Free State has been annexed formally by Belgium, leaders of the Congo Reform association rushed to Washington last night prepared to urge immediate action by the United States.

Herbert S. Johnson, a leader of the propaganda which would free the African interior from the sway of Leopold received a telegram in theh midst of a banquet last night summoning him to Washington. He departed for the capital at 11 o'clock, and said just prior to leaving that it had been decided to urge with the utmost pressure that the senate take definite action before the holiday adjournment.

The telegram to Mr. Johnson was from Rev. Dr. Thomas S. Barbour, head of the Baptist missions in Africa and the commissioner-general of the Congo Reform association in America. The telegram stated that advices by cable from Brussels indicated that Belgium had through its parliamentary action, assumed sovereignty over the Congo Free State pending the closing up of formalities between King Leopold as personal proprietor and international landlord and the representatives of the Belgian government.

The fact about the transaction which has so stirred up the interested leaders is that the deal is to be consummated far ahead of the death of King Leopold and the terms of the will of the king, which were formally ratified by Belgium several days since are to become effective at once.

H. H. ROGERS' LIFE THREATENED

New York, Dec. 18.—H. H. Rogers, of the standard Oil company, received a letter Sunday in which the writer, who signed his name "A Trader" and described himself as a broker who had lost heavily on speculation, threatened to kill Mr. Rogers. Mr. Rogers' offices in lower Broadway were guarded by police detectives yesterday in consequence, although Mr. Rogers said last night, in speaking of the letter, that he had not bothered the police about the matter.

Mr. Rogers said further that letters of the same character and written apparently by the same person had been received within the past few days by Police Commissioner Bingham and several other persons.

A RUSSIAN REFUGEE.

Lt. Col. Petroosky Arrives in San Francisco From Nagasaki.

San Francisco, Dec. 18.—On the Japanese liner Nippon Maru, arriving yesterday afternoon, was Ieslar Petroosky, late a lieutenant-colonel in the Russian army and now a refugee from the czar's dominions.

Petroosky was an army officer at Vladivostok last January, when a riot broke out in that city. He was found in a revolutionist's house by secret service officers, and upon trial was sentenced to a year's imprisonment. He obtained permission to visit his wife and escaped with her from Vladivostock. They reached Nagasaki, Japan, in a junk.

At Nagasaki Petroosky, so it is said, published articles advising the Russian soldiers to look after their rights, even at the point of the bayonet. Things were getting warm for him, even in Japan, when he disappeared. He was next heard of in Honolulu, where he boarded the Nippon Maru for this city. He claims that all his troubles resulted from an interview in Vladivostok, in which he uttered sentiments not particularly friendly to the czar. Both he and his wife have been detained on the steamer pending an investigation of the case.
