recent election for a judicial examination of all void and protested ballots in New York county was made today by A. S. Gilbert in the supreme court Mr. Gilbert, who is a law parner of Atty.-Gen. Mayer, is chairman of the law committee of the Republican state committee. The application is in the form of a writ of mandamus to have the board of canvassers of the county of New York show cause on next Wednesday why the court should not judicially examine all ballots rejected as void and protested as marked or identification.

Justice McLean signed an order for the board of canvassers to show cause why the court should not examine the vold and protested ballots, but de-clined to sign another order for which uplication was made, to prevent the application was made, to prevent the board of canvassers from completing the canvass. The justice said the lat-ter application was based on informa-tion too vague to warrant an order. hairman Timothy L. Woodruff of the Republican state committee, is-sued a statement tonight in which he

"I have not been requested by any andidate upon the Republican state icket to institute any contest or proceedings to open ballot boxes. So for So far is the procedure of having a count of he vold and protested ballots' by or-der of the court is concerned, that is mply the method provided by the ection law to correct any errors that ay have been made by the board of ors of the various election ets. This proceeding can be insti-ied by any candidate who has been ed for in any election district. Of course this has nothing what to do with the question of open-the ballot boxes, as these 'vold and Ingine ballot boxes, as these 'void and protested ballots' constitute a part of the returns of the inspectors, placed is sealed envelopes and sent in with the returns."

WONDERFUL CURE BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"Last year at this time I suffered with a tremendous itching on my back, which grew worse and worse, until it spread over the whole body, and y my face and hands were free, four months or so I suffered the only torments of the damned, and I had to scratch, scratch, scratch, until I bled. At night when I went to bed things got worse, and I had at times to get up and scratch my body all over, until was as sore as could be, and until] suffered excruciating pains. I did not know what it was, and resorted to a number of blood purifiers, using at times also Cuticura Soap. They told me then that I was suffering from erzems. Then I made up my mind the I would also use Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Resolvent. I used them according to instructions, and very soon indeed 1 was greatly relieved. I continued until well, and now I am ready to recommend the Cuticura Remedies to any one who suffers as did your obedient servant. Mrs. Mary Metzger, Sweetwater, Okla., June 28, 1905.'

Burke, the girl who was suspected of having caused Dougherty's death. The authorities are of the opinion that the girl is innocent of murderous intent. She says that she had been mending her brother's clothing with a long needle, used hereabouts in mend-ing miners heavy outer clothing, and that on going down town in the even-ing she stuck the pin in the boson of her dress. Dougherty, who had been her sweetheart, halled her and asked her to take a walk with him. He at-tempetd to embrace her and the point of the needle that was in her dress caught in his vest, while the "eye," or blunt end, rested against her cor-set. In the embrace the needle was forced into his body, through the fifth rib and into the cavity between the rib and into the cavity between the pericardium and the heart. Hemor-rhages resulted that caused death.
