Chairman Jones Protests.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Senator Jones, chairman of the Democratic national committee, today issued a statement protesting against assertions by Re-publican leaders that Mr. Bryan, if elected, would deliberately evade the law to carry out revolutionary pur-poses. Senator Jones says:

I repeat that there is nothing in any Democratic utterance upon which fear of attack upon the Supreme court can be founded. The construction put upon the expressions in the Democratic platform of 1896, which were perverted and misconstrued as a basis for such charges, was unwarranted and untrue. No such purpose has ever entered the mind of any Democrat, but the leading idea with Democrats everywhere is to return to the principles of the Constitution and faithfully administer the law

Beveridge on Trusts.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 18 .- United States Senator Beveridge tonight addressed more than 4,000 persons at Tomiluson hall. He was excerted to the hall by marching clubs of rough riders, several thousand in number. Mr. Beveridge told the origin and de-velopment of combinations of business popularly known as trusts, and said "In this country this great develop-ment of combination and co-operation has taken hold of every branch of in-dustrial life. It has spread faster and wider in America than anywhere else simply because the American people are more intelligent than people; simply because we cate with each other more than any other people; simply because we depend upon each other more than any other people. And all this merely means that we are more civilized than any other people. Continuing, he said:

"All of these developments are as inevitable as they are natural, and they ought to be full of blessings for all mankind. But in their development evils have developed, just as evils have attended every advance in human reco attended every advance in human prog-ress. No man is perfect. No nation is perfect. No society is perfect."

Mr. Beveridge declared that the Republicans favor the good in the prin-ciple of business combinations and the elimination of the evil, while the Demo-crats make war upon the whole system indiscriminately,

Continuing, he said:
