EVENING NEWS.

Friday, - Oct. 5, 1888.

Sunday School Union.

The regular meeting of the Sunday School Officers and Teachers of this Stake was held in the Social Hall on Monday Evening, October 1st. Superintendent John C. Cutler presiding. All the city schools, except the Ninth and Twentieth, and several of the country schools were represented.

The opening and closing singing exercises were rendered by the Seventeenth Ward School, led by Brother H. S. Goddard.

A very timely essay on "Methods of Primary Teaching" was presented by Sister Alice Merrill, of the Seventeenth Ward. A simple programme was given, and many practical suggestions presented that would be a great aid to any school adopting them.

The congregation sang: "Did you think to Pray."

Elder Geo. E. Howe, in speaking upon "methods of conducting reading exercises," urged that the success of profitable work in the Sunday School depended largely upon the attention given to the reading lesson; upon the thoughts it developed in the minds of the scholars. No lesson should be passed over till so well explained that all the class understand thoroughly. Training and practice, with close attention, would enable each scholar to not only understand the lesson himself, but also to give a fair outline of its purport to others, providing the lessons were imparted in an intelligent and thorough manner by the instructor. The speaker gave an interesting outline of the exercises of the Seventeenth Ward theological class, which were frequently varied to make them the more interesting.

"The Boys of the Old Brigade," a solo, was effectively rendered by Brother H. Goddard.

Elder Alonzo Young delivered a short address on the duties of a Sunday School teacher, urging as among the best qualifications a regular and punctual attendance. Nothing so demoralized a class as the frequent absence of its teacher, or the want of punctuality.

Elder Wm. Bradford urged the need of making our class work more attractive and interesting; a great educator has said that the mind of the child grows only when it is pleased. Thoroughness should be the watchword of every teacher; whatever the lesson be it should not be left till thoroughly ventilated. In order to make the exercises interesting and be able to teach the principles of the Gospel thoroughly, the teacher should prepare himself for his work. A personal interest in the welfare of his pupils will bring them nearer to the teacher, and much more good can be accomplished when the pupils feel that the instructor has a personal regard for them.

Brother Thos. McIntyre led the congregation in singing "Love at Home."

Assistant General Superintendent John Morgan urged the importance of thoroughly training all the faculties, mental, moral and physical, in order to accomplish all that was comprehended in the term education, as understood by the Latter-day Saints.

Benediction was offered by Brother J. H. Parry, and the meeting adjourned for one month. The Eighteenth Ward Sunday school will furnish part of the singing and regular exercises at the next meeting, and the congregational pieces to be sung are, "the Lord will Provide" and "Give us room that we may dwell."

JOS. H. PARRY, Secretary.

JETS OF GINGER.

A sign before a New York office reads: "Women treated for ugliness." If somebody would treat men for ugliness there would be a wild rush for the bar without a moment's delay.—Lincoln Journal.

Judge: Mulatto Customer—See heah boy! you ain't got dem shoes half black enough. What's de matter wif you?

An English coroner's jury recently decided that a man who was found dead at the bottom of a river had died because of a "sudden immersion after a hearty meal." People who wish to lie down in the bed of a river should be careful not to do so after a hearty meal.—N. Y. Tribune.

"I see," remarked the proof-reader, "that one bad error went through in one of the poems last week. The boys printed 'padlock' for 'wedlock.' Shall I reprint it, or call attention to it as a correction?" "N-no," replied the editor, "let it go as it is. Everybody will understand it."—Burlington Hawkeye.

"Yes: father," he said to old Mr Hayseed, "I've graduated, and my education is complete. I s'pose I know about everything. Now I must choose a field where my abilities can be used to the best advantage. I want a large field where I will have plenty of room." Son," replied the old man, "there is the ten-acre cornfield and you can have it all to yourself."—Harper's Bazar.

A Scotch boy injured his leg severely. The cure progressed slowly, and the mother who was very anxious, concluded to consult a "bone setter." The latter worked hard over the leg, and at last "got the bone in" to the music of the boy's lusty screams. "Didn't the setter do it well?" asked the mother after it was over. "Yes, he did, mother," said the lad, "but I was as sic a fool as to gie him the sair leg."

Why an Illinoisan Abandoned the Practice of Law.

Senator Cullom tells a good story, says a Washington letter to the New York Tribune—and not being given to practicing law much himself I suppose he can afford to do so—of a prosperous storekeeper in a small Illinois town, the name of which has escaped me, who once practiced law, but who has long since abandoned it. Being met by an old acquaintance he was asked for all the particulars of his giving up the profession.

"Didn't it agree with your health?"

"Oh, yes," answered Uncle Joe, as he was familiarly called by his friends.

"Didn't it pay?"

"First rate."

"Meet with sufficient favor from the courts?"

"All I could ask."

"Then what was it compelled you to quit?"

"Well, I'll tell you—I was too honest."

A loud laugh from the bystanders aroused "Uncle Joe" into earnestness, and he repeated the strange statement, and nailed it to his show-counter with his huge fist. But his cross-questioner went on:

"When did you find this out?"

"In my very last case."

"What was that?"

"One in which I was retained to prosecute a neighbor for killing a dog."

"And he was acquitted! And so you lost the case and gave up your profession discouraged?"

"No, he was convicted."

"Then he was guilty?"

"No, he was innocent."

"But didn't the evidence prove his guilt?"

"Certainly it did."

"Then why do you say he was innocent?"

"Because I had killed the dog myself a few nights before for trespassing on my poultry, and I came to the conclusion that any business that would aid a man to convict a neighbor of his own crimes wasn't the business for me, so I gave it up."

JUDGE CARLTON'S LETTER.

SALT LAKE CITY, August 7, 1888.

Dear Doctor:—Before leaving for the east I wish to express my appreciation of your treatment of a complicated case of the eyes. I have tried for several years to get far-seeing glasses, and I had concluded that I could get none that would be of any benefit to me. But after I saw the wonderful benefit of your system, I take pleasure in saying that the glasses furnished by you have restored my vision both for reading and far-seeing to the same condition as in my boyhood. I resolved to have you furnish me glasses after I witnessed your system applied to a beautiful young lady of 16 years, from Summit County, afflicted with a complicated condition of the eyesight. She told me she had never been able to distinguish one's face at a distance of six feet. With Dr. Prentice's glasses she could see as well as any one. As she looked up and down the street, and for the first time in her life saw the distant mountain tops, she was greatly delighted, and inquired with childish simplicity, "Do other people see this way?" It seemed that a new world was opened to her view, as novel and beautiful as "Eden's rosy bowers," appeared to our first parents.

Yours truly,
A. B. CARLTON,
Chairman Utah Commission.
DR. PRENTICE,
Salt Lake City, Utah.

The following are a few of the many cases of cross eyes Dr. Prentice has straightened in this city in less than one minute:

Geo. A. Smith, Salt Lake City.
Susie M. Shettler, Salt Lake City.
Frank J. Hocking, Salt Lake City.
Florence Peppers, Salt Lake City.
Lester Riggs, Salt Lake City.
Sarah Wilder, Salt Lake City.
Joseph McRae, Salt Lake City.
David M. Cambell, Providence, Cache County.
Catherine Bivens, eye turned outward, and many others.

PILES.

I have been tortured with Piles for many, many years, and have tried a great number of so called cures without any benefit. About two months ago Dr. Prentice treated me just once and has effected a perfect cure, and I feel confident from the condition I am now in they will never return.

DAVID S. DAVIS.
Spanish Fork.

For twenty years I have suffered very much with Piles. I have often been obliged to quit work, and had become discouraged of ever being cured. Two months ago Dr. Prentice gave me one treatment, and I consider myself entirely cured. My health is better than it has been for years.

HUGH MOORE.
Spanish Fork.

I have been afflicted with Hemorrhoids (or Bleeding Piles) for the past twenty-five years. For several weeks past the pain has been so intense that I was forced to quit work. I found no relief either day or night, and was frequently compelled to walk the floor all night long, as it was impossible for me to sleep. In this condition I called on Dr. Prentice at the Continental Hotel, who, after a painless operation of less than one minute, relieved me from all pain, and I have been able to sleep and rest well ever since.

I consider myself perfectly cured, and unsolicited offer this testimonial for the benefit of those who may be similarly afflicted. HENRY GREGORY,
149 N. West Temple Street.

MADE HANDSOME.

Mr. B. H. Shettler, of Zion's Savings Bank, has a bright and intelligent little daughter nearly nine years old, but she has suffered the unfortunate disfigurement all her life of being badly cross-eyed. Susie M. Shettler's parents were very loath to trust any one to operate on her eyes. But they had faith enough to trust Dr. Prentice, and he has made the eyes perfectly straight, which was done in less than a minute, and Susie Shettler is now a handsome little girl, while her parents are well pleased.

SATISFIED AT LAST.

Geo. A. Smith of Salt Lake City is a young man favorably known throughout Utah. He has been troubled with a bad case of cross-eyes all his life. Several years ago he had an operation performed by an oculist, but it was not successful and did no good, consequently his faith was very much shaken about its ever being made straight. But at the Continental Hotel on Monday of this week Dr. Prentice made it straight in less than half a minute. Mr. Smith is delighted with the result and his friends astonished. Mr. Smith said it caused him practically no pain.

At Continental Hotel, Salt Lake City, until October 10.
