Impecunious.—Transients in destitution, from various parts, are becoming numerous in Salt Lake.
Five such obtained a night's lodging and victuals at the City Hall last night.
Will It?—If the New York Herald has any regard for its own reputation, will it not be shrewd enough to recall Mr. Stillion and send a sober man to investigate Utah affairs? Morality is the great point here.
Theatre.—On Tuesday evening, June 6, the famous orator of Brooklyn, Theodore Tilton, will deliver his celebrated lecture on "The Problem of Life" at the Theatre.
The lecture and the ability of the lecturer are highly spoken of by the press generally.
For Provo.—Presidents B. Young and John W. Young, and a number of members of the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles, left yesterday evening for Provo, for the purpose of holding a special Conference, to last three days, commencing this morning.
A Very Thin Story.—The drilling sensation having fallen through, it is now in order to get up a big excitement over an alleged attempt to murder "the New York Herald's" commissioner of investigation." It's too thin, neighbor, for the Mormons. We know well that Stillion has no documents in his possession that can affect him in any way whatever, and consequently there could be no good reason for their attempting to murder him, and something else.
—Corinne Record, June 1.
Severe Accident.—The many friends of Mr. John L. Rhythe will regret to learn that that gentleman met with a very severe accident yesterday, in the vicinity of Parley's Park. A wagon with some heavy logs on fell over upon him, severely crushing him about the head and body. He was brought to the City this morning, and lies at his residence, in the 13th Ward, suffering much from his injuries.
Broke His Leg.—We regret to learn that, while Edgar Nealen, a three year old son of Mr. R. F. Nealen, was at play, last evening, with another little boy, a cousin of his, he fell from a wall in lot adjoining east from Mr. Nealen's residence, and broke his leg. It is supposed that when he stumbled a rock rolled over and fell upon the limb, doing the principal injury. Dr. Richards is attending the little fellow, and he is progressing as well as could be expected. The accident occurred between six and seven in the evening.
Conference at Leeds.—The Leeds Conference was held as per announcement on Sunday, May 6th, in the Mechanics' Institute, Bradford, Yorkshire.
There were present on the stand, Albert Carrington, President of the European Mission; W. W. Taylor,
President of, and C. D. Evans, Traveling Elder in the Leeds Conference; Wm. Galtwater, President of, and Stephen L. Richards, Traveling Elder in the Manchester Conference; and Elder H. W. Nalbit, from the Liverpool Office. The congregation, afternoon and evening, numbered some five to six hundred, who were very attentive to the speakers, President Carrington and H. W. Nalbit; the hall is a very compact and pleasant one, much more so than usual, the alleged shooting of the Conference being going on, and the speakers were kindly cared for by the Bradford Saints, who, with their usual hospitality, made their crowding visitors feel quite at home.
A priesthood meeting was held on the morning of the same day, in the Cross Street regular meeting house, during which the statistical reports were presented by the Branch Presidents, the financial reports of the Conference, and the reports of the several Branches, all being presented by President W. W.
Taylor, the whole being satisfactory and encouraging to those assembled.
The authorities were then satisfied in the usual manner, and an interesting meeting closed, and the Conference was an altogether agreeable one; the day was fine, and everything seemed to conspire to make the occasion such as should be long remembered by one of the local men gave a good spirited and fair report, another was of the usual type, accompanied with the usual type of nothing good could come out of anything, and the last was of the usual type.

INVESTIGATION OF THE ASSASSINATION FABRICATION.
A Foundationless Sensation—A Villainous Plot to Create Prejudice Against the "Mormons." For the purpose of investigating the alleged assassination of Jerome B. Stillion, New York Herald correspondent, Mayor Little, the City Attorney, Chief of Police and others met at the Walker House at 2 o'clock, yesterday afternoon. There was considerable interest in the proceedings, manifested by the presence of a large number of gentlemen, most of whom were not "Mormons." Mayor Little was appointed chairman, Messrs. Byron Kilgus and J. C. Young Secretaries, and George F. Gibbs stenographer.
Mr. Baskin appeared to object to the appointment of Mr. Gibbs, giving no other grounds than that he did not know him. There being no other stenographer handy, and being given to understand that the reports would be submitted, for approval, to the witnesses before publication, Mr. B. waived his objection.
In reply to a question the chairman stated that he was not there by virtue of his office as Mayor, but to take part in an informal investigation of the subject under consideration.
Mr. James B. McKean expressed his regret that the proceedings were to be extra-judicial, as the oaths administered would have "no binding force," and there was no power to issue a subpoena for any witness that might be wanted. He thought it might be necessary in order to get a witness named Davidson, who, in his hearing, had asserted he had "heard that shot" which Mr. Stillion asserted had been fired at him.
The Mayor asked Mr. McKean if a notary public had not authority to administer oaths, when the latter replied, he did not wish to be understood as objecting.
Half an hour passed, and Mr.
Stillion who had been invited, put in no appearance.
General Bane suggested that a committee be appointed to wait upon him, and tender him a formal invitation.
Hon. Barbour Lewis thought Mr.
Stillion could speak the truth as well without a committee as with one.
Mr. C. W. Stayner, notary public, administered the oath to the stenographer, and subsequently, to each witness who testified.
Mr. Stillion, who was sufficiently under the influence of strong drink for it to be plainly perceptible, arrived, and, by request of Mr.
Rawlins, gave a statement of the two alleged attempts to assassinate him.
In brief it was to the effect that, while driving along First South Street, on his way from Camp Douglas, about 11 o'clock on Saturday night, a man, who was standing under a shade tree, near the corner of Pine Street, close to the residence of Mr. B. H. Schettler, fired a shot at him, the ball whizzing past his head. He was a large man, the same he believed who attempted to stab him on Thursday afternoon, at the Walker House.
He had been informed by gentlemen that such occurrences were not extraordinary in this Territory.
He then proceeded to relate the alleged attempt at his assassination in the Walker House, at about two o'clock on Thursday afternoon, a substantial account of which, according to his statement was published in yesterday's News. Mr.
Ploutz, his amanuensis, called a short time before the occurrence, and he had been told to return shortly, as he was about to change his clothing. In the interval occurring between the leaving of Mr. Ploutz and his return, shortly afterwards, the attempt was made, as he described it.
Mr. Stillion, by request, was about to proceed to describe the alleged attempted assassination, when Deputy Marshal A. K. Smith objected. Some discussion ensued, and finally the chairman deciding that the description be given.
It was about as follows:—A tall, dark, gentlemanly, good mannered man, black coat on his chin, dark hair, and a complexion of a white shirt front, black coat and dark cravat.
Mr. Stillion said that the blow was made with a knife. As the man delivered it, he said, "Take that, you damned son of a bitch." and it was so powerful as to knock him down, rendering him insensible for some time. He exhibited the evidences of the cut, which was a hole, about an inch wide, through the left breast of the vest, also through two photographs, the cut in one of the latter being an inch long, and the other a little longer. He also exhibited a small handkerchief with several cuts in it, which he said he did not discover until this morning. There was an indentation or bend in the buckle of his suspender and a small hole in the cloth part of it, just above the buckle, and a probe in the shirt front, and a small wound or abrasion on his breast, which was not exhibited. Mr. Stillion said that he believed the man was a Jew, and that he had seen him in the Walker House, and that he had been told that he had been there. He also said that he had been told that he had been there. He also said that he had
