Group of Seven Mines in Grand County, Utah, in Dispute.

CLAIMS OF THE FINDERS.

Business collector Chapman and friends sue to recover valuable interest in a Utah Property.

It has been commented in the district court by Attorney H. H. Chapman, agent of United States revenue collector J. Henry C. Chapman and C. M. S. against Anthony M. P. (Perry) in the federal court, to recover a one-half interest in a group of seven mines in Grand County, Utah.

According to reports the mines are exceptionally rich. The suit declares that the interest was acquired by one of the late Perry's partners, but that Perry's partner, who was the owner by location of the mine, had no right to sell the same.

On the 10th day of the year, several parties were present in Utah, and the same day, Perry's partner, who was the owner by location of the mine, had no right to sell the same.

Chapman was sufficiently wise, however, to keep the same location, and the same day, Perry's partner, who was the owner by location of the mine, had no right to sell the same.
