SCHOOL CONVENTIONS.

Two More Candidates for the Board of Education Named Last Night.

BOTH OF THEM ARE MEMBERS NOW.

E. B. Critchlow from the First and W. J. Newman from the Third—Second Precinct Convention Tonight.

Nominating conventions were held in the First and Third precincts of this city last night, the people assembling in each of these districts for the purpose of naming candidates for the board of education to be voted for next Wednesday. The convention in the First precinct was very largely attended, more than 100 persons being present. The candidates were Attorney E. B. Critchlow and Prof. J. H. Paul, the former of whom was elected.

The meeting was held in the Exposition building. In the Third precinct it was held in the old Fifteenth ward school house. The men whose names were passed before the meeting were Wm. Newman and W. N. Williams, the former was the choice of the convention. The interest, not to say excitement, in the First was very intense. The building was thronged by people from the opening of the doors until the business for which the meeting was called had been transacted. It was held in the south wing of the building and the meeting was called to order by Samuel Allen, chairman of the Democratic precinct committee. The names of Willard Done and A. T. Schramm were presented. Such a demonstration followed the presentation of the names of these gentlemen that the chairman was unable to decide satisfactorily which of the two had been chosen. The solution of the problem was found by the citizens moving that the chairman be made permanent presiding officer. Willard Done was chosen secretary, after which the following precinct committee was elected by Judge J. M. Bruce and adopted unanimously:

"As citizens of the First precinct of Salt Lake City, assembled to select a candidate to be voted for at the approaching election for members of the board of education so approved and indorsed the course of our representative members in our body, and, inasmuch as we are proud of the good standing attained by our schools as a part of the great system of free education in the state of Utah, and desire to maintain the same at the present high grade of efficiency and to advance the same [illegible] purposes, to nominate the name of the present incumbent, Prof. J. H. Paul, the well known educator, [illegible] connected with the Agricultural College of Utah, and now with the University of Utah, with which he has been identified for many years past. The name of Edward B. Critchlow was also presented by John Le Grande Young, who made glowing tribute to Prof. Paul's qualifications.

Judge George F. Goodwin then presented the name of E. B. Critchlow, and the nomination was seconded by Fred H. Lorser and Judge C. W. Bunnis. A good deal of confusion followed, and there was talk on either side about adjourning and settling the matter at the polls on election day, but finally the nominations were declared closed by the chairman and the ballots were cast. They were: Joseph Christensen, T. M. Bell, A. M. Woolley, John Halvorson, George Peterson, Daniel Hamlin, Joseph Openshotter and J. W. Sanford.

The utmost difficulty was encountered during the counting of the votes, confusion and excitement bordering on pandemonium prevailed. When the tellers completed the count Prof. Paul was declared elected by a majority of [illegible] votes.

Mayor Woolley, one of Paul's advocates, moved that the nominations be made unanimous, which was done, and a vote of confidence was given the chairman and tellers for their work.

NEWMAN NAMED IN THE THIRD.

His Opponent Was W. N. Williams and the Meeting Was Spirited.

In the Third the meeting was spirited. It was called to order by J. H. Haslam and Eli A. Pollard was chosen permanent presiding officer over H. A. Smith. F. S. Tinney was made secretary. The preliminary part of the proceedings being over nominations were declared in order and Councilman Arthur Barnes proposed the name of W. J. Newman. Councilman Lowell Anderson suggested the name of W. N. Williams. Both nominations received seconds. Then came a series of speeches were made. There were only two nominations and these were declared closed, after which the chairman appointed as tellers Messrs. Hall and Hinds and Foster. Carried was a separate ballot for each. Ruth Booth acted as clerk. The result was announced as follows:

Newman, 19; Williams, 15.

Whereupon Prof. Newman was declared elected.
