WEDDING BELLS

The week witnessed a number of interesting events, especially in the way of weddings, while other affairs have been liberally sprinkled throughout the week. The nearness of the holidays will probably impress coming events with an exceptional tinge of cheer and a number of special holiday functions are being planned.

Mrs. John T. White and Miss Best were hostesses at a large reception on Tuesday at Whitehall, given in honor of Miss Julia Herne, the rooms being bright with chrysanthemums, carnations and ferns, and a half dozen guests assisting. An orchestra was stationed in the balcony and rendered delightful selections during the afternoon. About 150 were present.

Mrs. M. H. Walker was hostess at an elaborate luncheon on Tuesday, the table being for a centerpiece a cut glass bowl filled with pink roses, while the same flowers were at each plate. Afterward a notable musical program was given by Prof. J. J. McCallan, on the beautiful organ, and Mrs. C. G. Plummer, the latter rendering a number of vocal selections, accompanied by Prof. McCallan. About a dozen guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Broadhurst entertained informally at bridge on Monday night, four tables being played and the affair being in honor of Mrs. J. M. McGregor of Los Angeles, who are here to make their home. The decorations were in yellow and white chrysanthemums and the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Clint B. Leigh.

The Misses Bancroft were hostesses at a bridge tea on Monday and Tuesday, the decorations being in red roses and a number of friends assisting.

Mrs. J. T. Wyche entertained on Thursday at a second bridge party, the decorations being in white chrysanthemums, and prizes going to Mrs. Benjamin Brewster and Mrs. C. D. Moore. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. E. D. Miller, Mrs. John F. Critchlow, Mrs. George Rust and Mrs. Stenger. Six tables were played and a number of other guests came for tea.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Walker gave a dinner on Thursday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shepherd of Boston, the decorations being in red roses and the same color scheme. Covers were laid for about a dozen besides the guests of honor, including Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Beatty, Mr. and Mrs. Ledyard M. Bailey, Rev. Elmer I. Goshen, T. Ellis Browne and Miss Lena Hague.

VINOL CURES CHRONIC COUGHS, COLDS AND BRONCHITIS

After Other Remedies Fail

"I have been troubled with a chronic cold and bronchitis for a long time and have tried many remedies without finding relief. Through the kind suggestion of a friend I tried Vinol, and after taking four bottles, am entirely cured." A. H. Wilde, 733-8th Avenue, Minneapolis, Minn.

St. Paul, Minn., writes: "I contracted a severe cold last winter and thought I would never get rid of it. I tried Vinol as a last resort, and it has completely cured me."

Vinol combines two world-famed tonics, the healing, medicinal properties of cod liver oil and tonic iron, deliciously palatable and agreeable to the weakest stomach. For this reason, Vinol is unexcelled as a strength-builder for old people, delicate children, weak and run-down persons, after sickness and for Chronic Coughs, Colds and Bronchitis.
