RESCUE MISSION WORK.

The Crittenton Meeting So Well Attended as to Demand an Adjournment to the Tabernacle.

Never before in the history of the city has interest in rescue mission work shown itself to such a great extent as that which was evident at the Crittenton meeting held in the Tabernacle last night. The meeting was well attended and the Assembly hall, not before starting time, was quite expectant that the seating capacity would not fill requirements, and accordingly Elder Elmer Morris, speaker and an associate in an adjournment to the Tabernacle, where an audience of about 4,000 people was called to order.

After the usual preliminaries—opening by the Tabernacle organist, followed by a Scripture reading and sermon by Mrs. Frank Wallace—the speaker of the evening, Mr. C. N. Crittenton, was introduced and addressed the congregation.

His remarks were marked by a life-like narrative, beginning with the origin of the Florence Crittenton missions thirteen years ago, and tracing their history from then until the present time. There are now twenty-six missions in various parts of the United States, and the number of girls who have been rescued from lives of crime and led to follow Christian lives. Stella Conroy, one of the first girls taken from a home of shame, became a model woman and prior to her death had given 100 to the Tabernacle of the fallen sisters. The speaker stated that the average life of girls was about five years and that in the United States there were 200,000 of these unfortunate creatures.

Evangelist Mr. Crittenton followed Mr. Crittenton and spoke of the kindness that had been accorded to the party in their journeys. Their treatment in Salt Lake City had been greatly appreciated and he expressed his thanks to the party for their kind invitation to the Tabernacle to speak to the congregation gathered to meet. The speaker said that he was at one time a morphine fiend and drunkard. He had been rescued, however, by Christian friends, who had encouraged him to seek his God. In his efforts to assist others Mr. Crittenton read a letter from an inmate of one of the missions to Mr. Crittenton in which she desired him to help her to overcome her evil ways.

Subscription blanks were then distributed to the present which resulted in a good amount of money being contributed, and after a short talk in endorsement of the mission work by President of the State Augus M. Cannon, Mr. Wallace said, "Samuel Cannon, and we will turn the same to the use of President Augus M. Cannon."

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

The rehearsal of "Sappho" at the Tabernacle last night is spoken of as a grand preliminary to the performance tonight, justifying the prediction that the entertainment will be a pleasant surprise to the public. The play does not profess to be a spectacle, yet the appearance of so many of the representatives of the youth and beauty of the city, in picturesque costumes, and the brilliant lighting of the stage makes it numbers many spectators. The dancing and drill of the ladies went entirely unnoticed, but the singing of the intermission will be the chief attraction to Mr. Elmer Morris. Judging from the advance sale of tickets a good attendance is already secured.

Sappho will be given tonight and Saturday matinee and matinée and Sunday evening.

The advance sale of seats for the Preaching Words engagement at the Tabernacle next week commences tomorrow morning.

Mr. Ward is distinguished not only as a lecturer and producer of plays but also as a lecturer before educational institutions on Shakespearean plays and other subjects concerning literature and its influence on forming public opinion rather than mere expression of current taste. Therefore, his lecture on his return to the Tabernacle will be given Saturday evening and matinée and Sunday evening.

The celebrated actor will appear at the Tabernacle for four evenings, commencing on Monday evening.

Society night generally draws a good house at the Grand, and this evening should not prove an exception. There is a high-class comedy well played by the members of the company.

In The Matrimonial Mass at the Vicarage Mr. Clark continues the central figure of attraction. The farce is very much saluted by the patrons of the house.

MEXICAN COLONIZATION.

Rules That Are Strictly Enforced in Relation to Intending Colonists.

To the Editor:

COLUMIA JUANES, Jan. 22, 1896.

Quite recently the department of colonization at Mexico has required strict adherence to the law relating to the formalities required for the introduction of colonists. Some leniency had been shown to our colonists in the past, but now the law will be strictly enforced.

The provisions of the law are, that each colonist shall obtain a certificate from a competent officer, having a seal, that he is fit to be a colonist and that his intentions are good. This said certificate will have to be sent to Henry Kyring, assistant secretary of the Mexican Colonization and Agricultural Commission at Chilpancingo, Guerrero, Mexico, and will return the same to the City of Mexico.

In addition a complete list of property should be sent to the said Henry Kyring. Live stock must be properly described and pedigree given, where possible.

When all this has been done and orders are obtained from Mexico to the colonist, then the customs issues, more will be sent, so that they may be at once upon their way. This will be the only way to save time and expense, and also will enable them to know how far they may be permitted to come in free of duty.

Following are some forms that should be followed in substance for obtaining the certificates:

STATE OF: COLUMIA JUANES.

I, _____, do hereby certify that _____ is personally known to me as an honorable moral and industrious person and that his/her immigration is that—

The condition that it is in her or his intention to become a colonist and to establish himself in Oaxaca, Mexico, in the place of _____, in the state of _____, in the colony whereat I set my hand and seal of office, this ____ day of _____.

To be signed by a notary, sworn of, and witnessed by two or more neighbors, or any other officer, having a seal.

This follows the certificate of the Secretary of State.

—Secretary of the State of Utah do hereby certify that _____ whose name is subscribed in the foregoing certificate is the qualified qualified public or other officer as the case may be, duly elected or appointed, or said office as shown by the records of my office.

Further certify that I am well acquainted with the handwriting of said _____ and verily believe that the signature and seal on said certificate are genuine and not my hand and seal of the State of Utah, this day of _____.

Secretary of State.

Then follows the certificate of the Mexican mount at El Pico or Durango, certifying that _____ is the Secretary of said State.

Very respectfully,

HENRY KYRING.

To the Editor:

I think we were quite up with the times with our statewide celebration. The people gathered together and had a right royal time for over two hours. Wm. F. Kirby was the master of ceremonies and gave a grand speech in behalf of the cause of education and early settlers of the valleys of Utah. We had other speakers, songs and others, that put us in mind of the good times we used to enjoy in the frontier days. The people were always good, and always will be, we say,故乡 to the new State of Utah. The celebration finished a dinner in the afternoon for the little kids, and one for adults in the evening. Our people are still employing good horses, and we are trying to get along as we can. All have come in and everybody seems to be comfortably situated.

The ward organization seems to be all right, although we have had a few bad ones, and day school seems to be all in good running order. All the quorums are holding meetings, and if there is anybody that can't do right now, it is his own fault. The young men are doing their duty, and the old men and toll weight guarantee. We had a visit from Elder John W.

Taylor last evening, the 29th. He was engaged by Elder Isaac Smith, Tabernacle, to speak at the Tabernacle. He is a tall, robust, well-made man, dressed in a simple suit, and has a decided manner of speaking. He urged the Tabernacle to be seated. The people have continued to take his advice and have a steady, and at the same time, a few nights since about 5,000 or more have been seated.

Yours very truly,
Judas N. Dorn.

RESOLUTIONS OF RECEIVED.

In Memory of Joseph A. Ott, Minister to Germany, who died in Defense of Truth and Righteousness.

Whereas, Our heavenly Father, His infinite wisdom, has seen fit to remove from our midst by death our worthy and long-endured friend and brother, Joseph Alma Ott;

And, whereas, An intimate relation so long existed between him and the Latter-day Saints of the Troop ward of the Pangolin Banks of Zion, as a cushion, as to make it fitting that we record our appreciation of him in these words:

Resolved, That he be held in grateful remembrance for his love of truth and right, his integrity to his family, his patriotic, brotherly and sisterly and Christian conduct, and the example he has set in living the principles of our religion.

Resolved, That the removal of such a brother from the earth in which he has so nobly labored in the service of his Master, is a loss to the church, and that we record our sympathy with those who are bereaved.

Respectfully,
John M. Dunham,
