ANOTHER PISTOL MATCH.

Fiftcenth Infantry Officers, Prison Guards and Militia Officers to Meet.

Another three-cornered pistol match is to be shot July 3, the match taking place at the targets at the state prison, The competition will be between offiters of the Fifteenth infantry, state prison guards and the officers of the National Guard of Utah, teams of five representing each.

Lieut, Fred Smith, field artillery, has been assigned by General Wedgwood to to select the preliminary practise and to select the team. The practise is being held in the battery gun room inbeing held in the battery gun room in-geors at 50 feet, which is somewhat of a handleap to the militin officers. The state prison guards have their own range and the post officers have the use of the targets on the regular range. Warden Pratt, however, has iondered the use of the prison range to the officers for practise and with this opportunity, they expect to make a better showing by far than they did at the last match a week ago.

Mrs. A. W. McCune and Susa Young Gates Return from Important Trip.

Mrs. A. W. McCune and Susa Young Gates have beturned from an extended trip to the east to investigate some of the best schools and colleges of the United States, with the object of of the United States, with the object of getting pointers for the new depart-ment of domestic science and arts, which it is proposed to equip at the Agricultural college, Logan. The fourstory dormitory will be changed to meet the requirements, the legislature hav-ing appropriated $15,000 for that pur-pose, and $5,000 for equipment.

After visiting many schools in Ne-braska and Illinois, they went to the Drexel institute, Philadelphia, the Columbia university, the Manhattan Trade school and the Pratt Institute, Brook-lyn. They called at Hartford, Conn., where they met the accomplished young woman who is going to be the head of the domestic department of the Logan the domestic department of the Logar college next year. They also met Mrs. Ellen Richards, the dean of woman's work in America, at the Boston School of Technology. at the Boston School of Technology. Other women of prominence in school work whom they met were Mrs. Kinney of Columbia college, and Miss Schultze, head of the Louise Alcott school for girls at Boston.

All of those met were well informed as to the condition of things in Utah, and were much interested in the deci-sion of the Agricultural college to send uation ball tonight.

Principal V, Prettyman congratu-lated Nan and me said, "Nan is a good girl, none finer in this school." All the teachers spoke to me of Nan, and said teachers spoke to me of Nan, and said their regret awas, she would not be with them next year-a favorite with teachers and pupils, one and all. The greatest day she will ever see-certain-ly the happiest. Tomorrow West Point, Ross Beattle with her. Monday, "Tug boat party" up the Hudson, will stay with Florence Miller' at St. Andrews hotel four days, to visit her Aunt Janet."
