

Walker, Mrs. Frank Wilson, Mrs. Pickard, Mrs. Ray and Mrs. Short.

The junior class of the west side high school will give a "hard times" party at the Ladies' Literary club tonight.

Mrs. R. C. Woodruff entertained the Sewing club at luncheon this week.

Mr. Emri Needham was guest of honor at an enjoyable dancing party at the Twenty-seventh ward hall this week.

The Misses McDonald entertained the Sewing club on Wednesday.

CARDS AND KENSINGTONS

Mrs. J. S. Daveler was hostess at a delightful card party on Wednesday about 36 guests enjoying the afternoon. The colors of violet and white were carried out in the decorations, the flowers being easter lilies, marguerites, lilies of the valley, and violets. The same idea was carried out in the tables, refreshments and prizes, the last being won by Mrs. Joseph T. Richards, Mrs. D. P. Simmons and Mrs. D. E. Kelley.

Mrs. W. R. Wallace entertained the Euchre club this afternoon.

Mrs. Jacob Moritz and Mrs. Oscar Lehman were hostesses at a card party on Tuesday given by the Jewish Relief society, about 50 people enjoying the pleasant affair. The games of "hearts" and "lotto" were played, the prizes in the former being won by Messrs. Henry Cohn, Bochner and Marks of Portland, and in the last by Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Loeffler.

Mrs. Edwards entertained the Card club at her home yesterday.

Miss Birdie Vincent was the recipient of a pleasant surprise on Monday night. A number of her friends gathered at her home unexpectedly, and enjoying a delightful time with cards and music. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Langton, Jr., Misses Mae Crane, Bertha Cowburn, Mayme Haslam, Laura Wilderson, Clara Peterson, Emma Fellows, Ada Vincent, Gay Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Art Selander, Messrs. Ted Green, William Dunlap, David Williams, Alma Elkins, Horace Vincent, George Webb, Milo Vincent.

Miss Marie Luce entertained at a Kensington on Thursday in honor of Mrs. Albert S. Day, about 25 guests being present. The rooms were decorated entirely in green and were most effective. An amusing guessing game was enjoyed and there was a delightful musical program furnished by Mrs. H. S. Pinkerton, Mrs. P. A. Foley and Miss Edna Dean Davis. The prizes in the guessing contest were won by Mrs. Day, Miss Martha Alexander and Miss Horne.

Mrs. Henry Dinwoodey entertained at a Kensington on Tuesday afternoon, the guests being chiefly members of the family.

Mrs. Murray Godbe was hostess at an informal afternoon affair on Thursday, about 12 guests being present.

WEDDING BELLS

Miss Emma Hewitson and Mr. Joseph Ungerman were married Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. H. Asquith, the ceremony being performed by Judge Frank Clark, in the presence of the near relatives. The bride is of this city and the groom is of Allegheny, Pa., at which place they will reside.

The engagement of Miss Christine Bockholt and Mr. Alma C. Clayton is announced, the wedding to take place in the near future.

An announcement that will interest many Salt Lake people is that of the approaching marriage of Miss Bertha Shores of Ashland, Wis., and Mr. Guy Eldredge which will take place at the bride's home on April 8. They will visit Salt Lake after the ceremony but will probably make their home in New York.

COMING AND GOING

Mrs. E. B. Wells has gone to attend the meeting of the National Council of Women in New Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Jennings left last night for Boise where they will probably make their home. They leave behind a very large circle of friends, who will sincerely regret their absence.

A number of Salt Lake women were visitors in Ogden this week, among them Mrs. A. C. Ewing, Mrs. John Reed, Mrs. J. B. Marshall and Mrs. E. A. Wedgewood.

George Nelson, Jr., who has been spending a few days in Salt Lake, returned on Thursday to Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steiner have returned from the East and are at home at 76 R street.

Mrs. Genevieve Kimball has returned.

THE PERPETUAL WAR

There is always a fight going on in every human body between health and disease. On one side are poor food, bad air, over-work, worry, colds, accidents. On the other are sunshine, rest, cheerfulness and nourishment.

The reason Scott's Emulsion fights so powerfully for health is because it gives so much more nourishment than you can get in any other way. Get in the sunlight and try Scott's Emulsion.

We'll send you a sample free upon request. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl Street, New York.

from New York. Mrs. T. F. Mulloy remained over for a short visit in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Shepherd have returned from California.

Mrs. W. W. Armstrong of Park City is visiting friends in Salt Lake.

Mrs. A. M. Paul, mother of Mrs. Fred J. Hill, leaves in April for a visit with her daughter, who is sojourning in Paris.

Mrs. V. B. De Leury, formerly of this city but now of San Francisco, has arrived here to visit relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Shepherd have returned home from their wedding trip.

Mrs. Crismon and daughter, Miss Bessie, have returned from a two months' visit to the coast.

Rev. and Mrs. Clarence I. Brown are expected to return from Chicago the first week in April.

Mrs. Harry Ayers left this week for California to make her home.

Mrs. H. F. Hoyt left this week for Indian Territory, where she will join Dr. Hoyt and where they expect to make their home.

Miss Leta McMillan, who has spent the past few months in Denver with Mr. and Mrs. Adams, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilkes have returned to their home on First and Q streets.

Mrs. W. F. Hill will return in a few days from a two month's visit in California.

Mrs. Frank Day leaves early the coming week for Chicago, having spent the winter in this city as the guest of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Hodges.

Mr. and Mrs. Walters left on Thursday for California to make their home.

Edwin Peabody, a prominent resident of Salem, Mass., is visiting his nephew, A. H. Peabody, for a week. Mr. Peabody is on his way to California.

Mrs. Ira O. Rhoades leaves shortly for a visit in Omaha.

Miss Veda Eccles of Ogden is the guest of Miss Banks of this city.

Miss Vera Holden, who has been the guest through the winter of her aunt, Mrs. Walter Scott, returned to her home in Los Angeles this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Jones have returned to the city, after a visit of several weeks in the east.

Mrs. George Joy and brother, George Ripley, leave soon for St. Louis.

Miss Bessie Peek, who has spent the past year abroad, sailed from Liverpool on the 14th inst.

Mrs. Shields of Park City will arrive here early the coming week to be the guest of Mrs. Bransford.

Mrs. W. D. Rishel returned on Monday from an extended visit in California.

The Misses O'Farrell and Miss Anna Dailey of Boise are guests at the Fifth East hotel.

Mrs. Stephen H. Babcock, children and maid, leave next Monday for a visit in Tennessee with Mrs. Babcock's father. They will be away some weeks.

After a pleasant month's visit on the California coast, Mrs. A. N. McKay has returned to her home in this city.

FUTURE EVENTS

Mrs. Stanley Price entertains at an informal musicale one week from this afternoon.

The Fort Douglas Dancing club will give a hop on Wednesday evening, March 25.

Mrs. M. B. Whitney will give a series of afternoon parties at the close of the Lenten season.

The High School Athletic association will give a dancing party at the Armory next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Melton have issued invitations for a card party on the evening of April 1.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

OGDEN SOCIAL NEWS.

An event long to be remembered by W. W. Burton and family took place Monday evening when Mr. Burton celebrated his seventieth birthday. The Fifth ward amusement hall was the scene of the very delightful gathering.

Mrs. Elizabeth Coombs, an intimate friend of the family, was present and celebrated her seventieth birthday anniversary. There were present 13 children, a large number of grandchildren, four brothers, one sister of Mr. Burton; also President Joseph F. Smith and family, President L. W. Shurtliff and wife, the Fifth ward Bishopric, and numerous friends. The guests gathered at the hall at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and at 5 o'clock a bounteous repast was served, after which speeches were made and an excellent musical and literary program was rendered by 17 grandchildren, nieces and nephews, and a two-act play was presented, entitled, "Grandpa's Birthday Party." Joseph T. Burton's family presented him with a gold-headed cane, appropriately engraved. The latter part of the evening was spent in dancing and other pleasures.

Prof. S. H. Clark of New York delivered a most interesting and pleasing dramatic reading Tuesday evening.

Miss Edith Wallis of Rexburg, Ida., is visiting in Ogden this week with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Gordon entertained the W. C. T. U. at her home on Twenty-fourth street Wednesday afternoon.

Cyrus E. Hanson of Kaneville and Miss Nellie Brown of Hunisville were married in the Salt Lake Temple Wednesday.

George Stanbury and C. W. Frazer, together with their wives, were guests of C. H. Corse and family this week en route east from the coast.

George H. Tribe and daughter Carrie returned home this week from an extended pleasure trip to California.

The Weber State academy students gave another of their enjoyable balls at Edman's academy Thursday evening, which was largely attended and greatly enjoyed.

Miss Nellie Van Zeezon and W. L. Humphrey were married Thursday evening at the home of the bride's parents on Second street. Bishop Sumner officiated at the ceremony. A sumptuous wedding supper was served to the in-

WALKER'S STORE.

AN EVENTFUL ANNOUNCEMENT OF NEW EMBROIDERIES.

20c to 75c Kinds—10c to 30c a Yard.

BEAUTIFUL cambric embroideries and soon will they be scattered among appreciative women. A very good reason is there at the back of such cheapness on new, choice kinds. The manufacturer wanted to dispose of a tremendous quantity all at once—without the effort and delay of sending them over the country by salesmen. We set about to arrange with several other firms in far away cities to join us in the purchase, providing—the price went low enough. That they are here shows we had our own way in the matter, and as fast as rail could bring them they were hurried along to be presented to you. Sheer, pretty cambric embroideries of every kind that shirt waist, summer gown or underwear demands—narrow edgings and insertions to nine inch flouncings. An extensive variety of patterns. Monday and the whole week, possibly.

15c and 20c a yard quality—10c.

25c to 35c a yard quality—15c.

30c to 50c a yard quality—25c.

And up to 75c a yard for—30c.

FRESH, NEW WHITE LAWNS and INDIA LINENS REMARKABLY UNDER PRICE.

The very best of news is this—graduation and class day dresses are wanted—eye, wanted badly enough, but expense is an important factor even in the best regulated families. Quality desired is often sacrificed to least price. This sale comes at the moment to solve such perplexity. Thousands of yards of fresh, airy white lawns and India linens that came to us via the bargain way and many bolts out of our regular stock, because of being like qualities but selling in the regular price way. Monday and week have these reductions—

25c white lawns, 40 inches wide—13c. 12½c and 15c white lawns, 40 inches wide—8c. 25c white India linens—19c. 15c white India linens—9c.

NAINSOOK PRICE REDUCTIONS. 25c WHITE MADRAS—20c.

Several full pieces—more than 200 yards of fine nainsooks go into this white sale, priced like this—20c a yard regular for—15c. The 15c for—10c.

Five different, pretty styles to choose from—lace stripe, figured and several variations of stripes in the mercerized effects. Will make into attractive shirt waists and dresses. Sell regularly at 25c a yard, Monday and week—20c.

An Extraordinary Silk and Dress Goods Occasion. Be Sure YOU Read Every Line of This.

NOT the least doubt is that every woman in Salt Lake City will be interested in this movement. Every hour from the beginning of sale to closing will find nimble fingers cutting and measuring, off the yards. Why such positive announcement? Because, first, the fabrics are the newest of spring arrivals in abundant variety to please every taste and next, such sharp savings at the very commencement of spring is an almost unprecedented occurrence. Store keeper and customer alike concede these should be profit-making days. Read—

60c and 65c Dress Fabrics—46c a yard.

More than 5,000 yards—which tells you how consequential is just this part of sale. More kinds, colors and weaves than could possibly be described here. Splendid Voiles in every color, sold at 65c a yard, London Twine cloths in every color, 60c quality. Scotch Tweeds, 65c a yard grade. Knickerbocker Suits, 60c regular. Snowflake and Granite Suits and others, all 60c and 65c goods, one priced Monday and week—46c.

Up to $3.00 a Yard Dress Fabrics—$1.25.

Handsome Novelty Suits—nearly 5,000 yards of these—the wide kind, 60 inches; only the very best of dress goods come woven in this width. Fancy Mistrals, French Plaid effects, Checkerboard checks, Scotch tailor Suits, and more—many more. New and choice every yard. The handsomest gowns will be made of these. Up to $3 a yard regular. Monday and week—$1.25.

Beautiful 65c Wash Silks—39c.

Popularity does not wane for wash silks. As long as fashion declares fabrics must be soft and clinging, so long will wash silks be favorites. Upward of 3,000 yards go into this wide reaching sale. White and all the dainty colors made; pure silk, the best quality woven, made to sell at 65c a yard, but during this sale—39c.

85c Changeable Taffeta—65c.

If you know of fashion news at all, you know in what esteem and favoritism the changeable taffetas are held. The practical, as well as very chic shirt waist frock finds nothing more attractive or desirable. Fifteen hundred yards, in which you'll find every color combination, make up this lot. 85c a yd. grade—65c.

$1.25 Peau De Levant—75c.

Peau de Levant is 24 inches wide and will launder. Therefore their great popularity for shirt waists. Tan, reseda, pink, turquoise blue and light blue shades to pick from. $1.25 a yard value—75c.

$1.00 Foulard Silks—72c.

Foulards at a sacrifice price! Think of it. Right in the face of the greatest Foulard season that has ever been known. More than 1,000 yards set aside for this sale. All 24 inches wide, navy blue and white, black and white, in dots of every description, $1 a yard quality for—72c.

Have you Seen Our $10 and $15 Women's Spring Dresses?

OBVIOUSLY cheap—but not that alone ever admitted them to the stock of the Walker store. Other commendation there had to be. The fabrics aren't the finest made, nor the styles the most exclusive. Such things could not be for the price. Each suit, though, is made of a superior quality cloth—well made—the seams all finished, well cut, well stitched. Three styles of blouse to select from—cape over the shoulders, collarless with stole effect, pectillion back and the bolero blouse. Blue, black, tan, brown shades and mixture cloths. Some trimmed. Some stitched. Gentle suits, $10 and $15.

15c and 35c. for Swiss Pillow Shams and Scarfs.

A very tempting lot at such cheapness. White Swiss pillow shams—can be used for table covers—with a row of lace insertion around, hemstitched, the scarfs have two rows of insertion. The 15c for 35c; the 35c for—15c.

Men's Sweaters One-third Off Price.

MOST men are now preparing for the pleasant rides along country roads and in the park. The sweater for such occasion is indispensable. Here's an attractive sale lot much under regular cost. Plain and striped; red, blue, black, white, honey comb and others. $2 to $4 kinds, Monday and week—ONE-THIRD TAKEN OFF THESE PRICES.

Sharp Savings on Curtains, Poles, Carpets.

Ruffled Swiss curtains, dots, plain, figured and colored border kinds, all three yards long and 40 inches wide. $1.25 and $1.50 curtains, Monday and Tuesday, won't last longer—85c a pair. Ruffled scrim curtains, 40 inches wide, 2½ yards long, sold regularly at 75c two days—45c a pair. Two hundred wooden curtain poles, three to five feet long, instead of 5c a foot—2c. Extra heavy Ingrain carpets, only one pattern to choose from, but pretty blue and rose shade, filling is all wool, cotton chain; good wear; 75c value for—50c. Two patterns Granite Ingrain carpet, yard wide, 25c a yard grade—20c. Two patterns Union Ingrain carpet yard wide, 45c kind—35c.

Two Offerings of Choice Writing Paper.

FINE correspondence paper is not an unusual Easter gift and this enclosed in dainty boxes will certainly express your greeting most pleasantly. Some of the boxes contain both note and letter size paper with envelopes to match. But a number of kinds are there—30c to $3.00 a box. Monday and week—ONE-THIRD TAKEN OFF THESE PRICES. Writing tablets, the Hurlbut Kelso bond, ruled and plain, three sizes, 15c and 20c each regular, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday one priced—8c.

Belts, Hose Supporters.

THE new postillion belts made of moire silk, some plain black others have white stitching; Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday reduced from 35c to—22c. A little lot of fancy silk hose supporters, frilled elastic, to dispose of quickly—instead of 60c a pair—37c.

Hair Brushes; Hair Barrettes.

EXCELLENT hair brushes with solid wood backs extra quality bristles, several sizes. Highly finished are these brushes and desirable—indeed about the best made, but only a few of each kind left, hence the reduction. Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday those sold at $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50, go at—69c; the $2.00 and $2.50 for—$1.37. Hair barrettes—shell set with turquoise in different pretty shapes, white stones set in gold and some others; were 50c, 60c and 65c each, clearance sale at—27c for any.

The Good Witch Hazel Toilet Soap at a Special Price. Face Powder.

MUNYON'S Witch Hazel toilet soap—conceded by people who have made practical test, to be more soothing to the skin than cold cream; improves the complexion by making it soft and fair. Sold usually at 15c a cake, Monday and week—8c. Pinaud's Xena face powder. High grade, absolutely pure. A desirable complexion—wider not often sold under regular, a few boxes, enough possibly for Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday reduced from 60c to—27c.

Walker Brothers Dry Goods Co. Walker Brothers Dry Goods Co.