Garnd-This week's bill at the Grand, "What Women Will Do" Dick-en's "David Copperfield"), is a play of considerable merit and is performed in a manner to win approval, as was evi-denced by the demonstrations of last night's audience. The story is of the "fishing folk of Yarmouth, and the cen-tral figures are Emily, the foster lassic of Skipper Peggotty, Ham Peggotty, her afflanced, James Steerforth, repuled gentleman, who steals from his host the one precious lamb, Rosa Dartle, whose love was scorned by Steerforth, and Wilkins Micawber. played at the Grand many times as Ca-mille Lewis, has done nothing so well as her rendition of the role of Emily, and next in point of excellence was Ar-ling Alcine, as Ham Peggoty, her broken-hearted foster-cousin. James A. Callahan had the part of Micawber, and his funmaking was profusely scattered throughout the five acts. The bill runs for the entire week, and bids fair to draw heavy natronage cantages offered in Emery county to the homeseeker and those looking for land for arid farming purposes. Under Since the dry farm congress was held in Salt Lake there is quite a boom in In fair parts there in que as there are the land business here as there are tens of thousands of acres of good land in this county that is not touched yet with the plow. If dry farming can be made a success on it there will be room here for hundreds of families to make draw heavy patronage.

Lyric—Another success must be credited to the Lyric theater in its ef-forts to put on the best works of standard playwrights at minimum prices. "Hazel Kirke's" run came to a close last evening. Good houses have greeted the Utahna stock company and as long as much care is given to its productions as was given to "Hazel Kirke," there'll be no anguish in the region of the box office. "Monte Cristo" follows. here for hundreds of families to make good homes. There is also plenty of water for many thousands of acres yet as soon as men of capital can be con-vinced that it will pay. Of course every good country has its drawbacks, and eastern Utah has her share. But it has what a great many other communi-ties lack and that it plenty of good ties lack, and that it plenty of good land, water, coal and wood, all handy, and as good a climate as there is in any county north of St. George. follows.

There is also between Huntington and Price river in a northeast direction other thousands of acres of good land not yet taken up, that the Cleveland canal and North ditch cover. All that is necessary is to store more water and enlarge the canals. There is a reservoir site at the mouth of Huntington canyon about five miles from town, its present surveyed ca-pacity is 2,200 acre feet, but which can be enlarged to hold over 4,000 acre feet, the Huntington Canal and Reservoir association has secured this site and has been allowed by the state engineer water to fill it, but the people need a few men of means to hip them with this enterprise. The water can be turned from this reservoir direct into some of the canals without going into the Hunt-ington creek at all. Men wanting homes will do well to come and look over Emery county, and if they can not find something to suit them, why, they had better stay and work in the city.

Burglar Just Squeezing Through Window When Police Seize Him.

At 9 o'clock last night a man giving the name of Frank C. Kelly was captured by Police and detectives while he was in the act of burglarizing the California liquor house, 144 West Second South street. He was half way through the window when the officers pounced upon him and took him to the station.

His arrest was brought about by the action of Mrs. Alma C. Robinson who resides at 8 Phipps court. She saw Kelly break the window and then pull fragments of glass from the sash. She telephoned to the police and notified them

Capt. Burbidge, Detectives Chase and Capt. Burbadge, Detectives Chase and Burt and Officers Carlson and Howell hurried to the scene and just as Kelly was getting through the window Capt. Burbidge seized him. Kelly gave his age as 22, and says he is a miner.

Theater-Several hundred dollars must have been added to the treasury of that deserving institution, the Free Kindergarten, as a result of last night's entertainment at the theater. The au-dience was not overflowing, but it was handsome and representative, all the stalls and boxes being filled by fash-ionable parties, the owners of the stage boxes having donated them to the ladies in charge, by whom they were re-sold. The novelty of the evening was the first presentation here of Richard Harding Davis's one act comedy "Miss Civilization," with Miss Jasmine Young in the title role. The sketch is a most clever one and will make a small fortune for some group of play-ers who take it on the vaudeville cir-cuit. Miss Young, who made her debut, was a surprise to her friends, in the naturalness with which she por-trayed a rather trying role, and her cleverness throughout. Mr. Spencer was, of course, good as the leading burglar. Mr. Brines, was another de-cided surprise as "Reddy the Kid," and he acted with a facility which al-most takes him outside the amateur lists. Mr. Thorne, Mr. Dunbar and the assisting real pollceman, filled in smaller parts very acceptably, and the aclence gave the breathless little sketch several good rounds of applause at the close.
