PRESIDENTS WILL CONFER.

It is Expected That Some Substantial Results Will Come from New York Meeting on 17th

Western railroad men are congre gated at Clenwood springs today for the avowed purpose of attempting to form some kind of an association that will have for its object the maintenance of rates and tariffs on all lines. At present and for some time past a very disastrous sladdeng and cutting of prices is and has been the practice, and the railroad lines are beginning to feel that however much business they secure there is little or no money in it, and sometimes actual less is sn tailed in the handling of freight and passengers.
