

SUNDAY SERVICES.

Elder Clark, W. Foster and President Woodruff at the Tabernacle yesterday.

Elder Joseph E. Taylor, of the Salt Lake Stake presidency, presided at services in the Tabernacle on Monday May 21st.

The choir sang:

"Gloria Patri."

Prayer was said by Elder Hugh J. Cannon.

The choir sang:

"Glory, Glory Hallelujah."

Auspicious the congregation.

After the service the choir sang a hymn.

Without notice light we now

see the minister's office change.

It is time for the organization of new stakes.

With the last Sabbath the ministers of the Tabernacle have been removed.

The intelligent being which dwells within the body is immortal.

The body is mortal, and the immortal grows weak with age.

Without the spirit there is no

immortal life.

Without the spirit there is no

immortal soul.
