Keyser's Case. - The arguments in the Keyser cattle case were completed last evening, and Judge Emerson charged the jury this morning. The latter retired to consider a verdict, and at last accounts bad not returned.

Our Eastern Agent .- Mr. Joseph Bull, for many years connected with the DESERET NEWS establishment, starts in the morning on a business tour through the Eastern States, in the interests of this office. He is a gentleman of extensive and success ful experience, having travelled as agent for a number of years through the east; is well known and respected at home and abroad; and all having business interests in this part of the country cannot do better than make Mr. Bull's acquaintance.

Tumors Removed .- Brother J.W. Nixon, of St. George, who came to this city about the 10th of December to obtain surgical treatment of a couple of tumors, having had them successfully removed, is rapidly recovering from the effects of the ope ration and intends starting on his re turn to his southern home next Monday. One of the tumors was of the size of a man's fist, and was located on his right side, the other was but about one-fourth as large and was on the left side of his body. He was counseled in St. George to go to Drs. Richards; of this city, for treatment, and did so. On arriving here they advised him to rest a while before undergoing the opera-tion. He took the advice, and when measurably recuperated from his increased bimself in the bundle journey, placed himself in the hands of the surgeons. The tumors were taken out about three weeks ago, and the patient, as said, is already recovered sufficiently to start on his trip homeward in about a week.
