Quarantine on Jesse M. Smith's Flocks Raised—Probable That Judge Beatty Will Punish Deputies.

lay received a telephone message from se M. Smith, president of the Utah fool Growers' association, from Malad, The message stated that Smith's sheep, which had been quarinlined by the deputy inspector, in that vidnity, had been thoroughly examined by Federal Inspector John A, Me-Birney and State Inspector Thomas G. Lowe, and were pronounced free from scab, and all other diseases. These inctors have notified Judge Beatty to that effect, and issued certificates of leanliness indicating that the sheep ere stopped through malice. As soon completed the inspection. essrs, McBirney and Lowe ordered the quarantine raised.

Last week Mr. Moyle went before Judge Beatty and called his attention to the fact that the temporary injuncon of the court was being violated by some of the deputy inspectors in the state and demanded that the order of the court be executed. He had, in supthe court be executed. He had, in sup-port of his charges, an affidavit from Jese M. Smith. Judge Beatty de-clared at that time that if Mr. Smith's sheep were free from disease he would cite the deputy inspectors for contempt, and punish them severely. In the face of the message that came to Mr. Moyle today it is quite likely that the deputies will be punished if the judge is as good as his word. as his word.

JESSE SMITH'S AFFIDAVIT.

The following is the affidavit made by Mr. Smith and submitted to the court by Mr. Moyle in support of his by Mr. Similar and support of his court by Mr. Moyle in support of his charge against the deputies that they were violating the order of the court: Jesse M. ORDER OF THE PROCESSION.

FOR THE FUNERAL

The preparations for Prest. Cannon's funeral have been going on for the past few days. They have becessarily been very elaborate and have been carried on with much dispatch, and they are now completed. The Tabernacie is being draped in white crepe, and the pulpits adorned with beautiful potted plants of all descriptions. A life size portrait of the deceased will be given special prominence.

The funeral of the great man will be one of the largest that ever occurred in Salt Lake, but the obsequies will be performed in order and decorum. The procession will be under the charge of Bishop John R. Winder, who is the marshal of the day.

VERY QUIET AT THE POLLS.

Not a Large Vote Being Cast, but it is Practically One Way Thousand Votes at 3 o'clock.

The special election today has been going on very quietly. Up to three o'clock this afternoon only about one thousand votes had been cast in all five precincts, Although the woting is light, it is all one way. It is estimated by members of the school board that 90 per cent of the votes at least were "Yes," in other words, the citizens are announcing by their ballots that they are in favor of letting the board borrow $30,000 that the schools may be main-tained to the end of the year, and that the graduations may go on.

GATRELL'S LITTLE JOKE.

Attorney Cyrus G. Gatrell's little joke on County Clerk James, as he calls it, seems to be turning on the joker. Mr. Gatrell was on the carpet this noon in ie county clerk's private office before an investigating committee, consisting of the mayor, the county commissioners and the county attorney and clerk. He maintained that he had simply entered the clark's office that the had simply entered the clerk's office to play a joke on that official, but he did not seem to be able to give any lucid explanation of what the joke was.

The facts in the case seem to be ese: On Saturday evening at ten inutes past six the county clerk, who these: had been detained late in his office on siness, was about to enter the vault before leaving for the night. His wife and child were sitting in the main of-fice out of which the vault opens. While was fumbling with the vault lock Mr. James says he heard the noise of the north window to his private office being pushed up with three distinct jerks and then the curtain flapping in the wind he wind. Leaving the door of the ault he walked back into his private flice and found Mr. Gatrell steeping rough the window. He says that Mr Jatrell seemed surprised to see him and exclaimed: "Hello, you here." Asked what he wanted, and why he had come in that way and especially at so late an hour. Mr. James says at Mr. Gatrell seemed confused: ald that he had only meant to play joke on Mr. James and then hastly te his exit by the same way that he had entered. Before the committee today Mr. Gatthat he intended his breaking into the at George R. Chambers has been staying with Mr. Rood since his arrival here, but could not be found today. Mr. Rood said that Mr. Chambers might only make a brief stay in this city and it is thought that he may have already left Salt Lake.

IN SAN FRANCISCO.

A San Francisco special to the "News" this afternoon says:

Attorney George W. Lane is confident that his position in opposition to the appointment of a special administrator in the estate of Robert Craig Chambers is strong. He said this morning that he does not fear the move for further information made by Public Administrator Boland who is preparing a new petition. Attorney Hassett for the administrator has wired Kansas City Chambers' brothers and sisters. Bo-land is also making moves in other directions to acquaint himself with status

clerk's office as a joke on the clerk with the fact that he came at an hour when under ordinary circumstances the clerk would have left his office some considerable time before. Mr. Gairell said that he had found his way up the stairway from the public library to the council chamber. Asked wht he wanted there, he said that he was searching for some papers. But the investigators were inclined to doubt this statement. It then appears that Mr. Gatrell went to the south commit-tee room off the chamber. Here there is a south window that reaches down to the floor. He opened this and went out on to the stone balcony, crossed that and opened the corresponding north window of the county clerk's private office, making the entry as above stated. This latter window, by the way is closely guarded. The county clerk the janitor and the night watchman all have instructions to see that it is kept locked as papers have been stolen from the clerk's office under former administrations. It is stated that Mr. Gatrell was in the clerk's private office alone for a short time on Thursday evening under the supposition that he unlocked the window at that time some one has the window at that time some one has been derelict in not seeing that it was closed on Thursday and Friday even-ings. The mystery is not unraveled and the city and county authorities have not decided what they will do in the matter. It is said that the mayor will demand Mr. Gatrell's resignation as clerk to the city attorney.

Mr. Stephens believes that the whole affair is much ado over nothing. He has known Gatrell a long time, and says that though eccentric there is nothing underhanded about him.
