16

DESERET EVENING NEWS: SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1905.

The past week will rank among the brillant ones of the year. Every duy has been filled with bright events, and many of them were claborate, the leading tone of all being tinged by the patriotic idea. It is doubtful if any following week of the present season will present as bright a record, till June brings the annual deluge of weddings, . . .

The opening event of the week was The opening event of the week was the reception given by Senator and Mrs. Sutherland at the Kenyon on Mon-day night, the pariors of the popular hostelry being brilliantly lit and deco-rated for the occasion, and the rooms being; thronged during the appointed hours with the friends and acquaint-ances of the bosts. Punen and other refreshments were served, and an or-chestra rendered delightful music.

* .*: *

chestra rendered delightful music.

Misses Gundry and Weggeland enter-tained very pleasantly at a Washing-on's birthday party Wednesday eve-hing at the home of the former, 246 horth Second West street. The rooms and carnations, and the ladles present work Martha Washington costumes, which, with the decorations, made which, with the decorations, made the entertainment. A delicious tuncheon the entertainment, A delicious tuncheon cards consisting of tiny hatchets, tied with ribbon. with ribbon.

Mrs. W. P. Kiser entertained at a pleasant affair on Thursday in honor of Miss Waller, the amusement being bridge. Prizes in the contest were won by Mrs. D. R. Gray, Mrs. Edwin Wood-cock and Miss Allee Goodwin. * * *

The ball given by the members of St. Faul's guild on Thursday night at Uni-ty hall was in every way successful. The hall was bright with flags and flowers, while red shades aided in the effect. In the supper room, which was also in the national colors, refreshments were served, and in the outer room punch was dispensed by Mrs. Fisher Harris, Mrs. R. C. Woodruff was in charge of arrangements and several men connected with the church acted as floor managers.

as floor managers. Tonight Mrs. Charles Stewart will en-tertain the Author's club and their es-

Mrs. W. M. Bradley was one of the Wednesday hostesses, entertaining in-formally at bridge.

Mrs. C. H. McCoy and Mrs. J. E. Clarke were hostesses at a card party on Wednesday given in honor of Mrs. Walter Fra-ser. Flags, flowers and particle de-vices were everywhere, and prizes were won by Mrs. Heber Lee and Mrs. S. C. Snyder C. Snyder,

On Tuesday Mrs. C. W. Fifield enter-tained at bridge, in honor of Miss Wal-ler, a delightful afternoon being en-joyed.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Burt entertained at dinner on Monday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McConaughy en-tertained at a beautifully appointed dinner on Monday evening, the table being decorated in red, and covers laid for 16. . . .

The card party given by the Wo-man's Republican club on Wednesday night was a most enjoyable affair, and was arranged to do honor to the great national hero.

Among Monday's pleasant affairs was the bridge party given by Mrs. and Miss Woodward. The hostesses also en-tertained at a similar affair on the day following for Mrs. J. Walcott Thomp-1. 16 1.

Mrs. R. J. Glendinning was among Monday's hostesses, the entertainment being bridge.

Mrs. Mary E. Sloan entertained at high five at her home 918 Second street, on the evening of Washington's birth-day. The house was effectively dec-orated with the national colors and the hosters appeared in Martha Washing-ton costume. The tallies and prizes were suggestive o fithe day. The first prizes were won by Miss Bernie Clough and Mr. J. M. Butler and the consola-tion prizes by Mr. and Mrs W. H. Clough. tion pr Clough,

Miss Clare Williams entertained yes-terday at a linen shower in honor of Miss Ellen Carrington,

The young people of the Twelfth ward give a character ball next Friday eve-ning in the amusement hall of the ward,

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Evans entertained last evening at a pleasant party at their . . .

The Third Street Card club will meet next week with Mrs. H. C. Brownlee at 227 Eleventh East street.

Mrs. W. E. Critzer entertained at a children's party for her little daugh-ter this afternoon.

Mrs. W. L. Green entertained the Thursday evening card club at her home on south Main street last evening. The 500 Card club met yesterday aft-ernoon with Mrs. C. H. Brink at her nome on N street.

The High achool alumni party which was to have been given last night has been postponed out of respect to Mrs. W. A. Nelden, who was one of the natronesses.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Burt entertained at a dinner Monday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Smith, Miss Ella Harr entertained a party her young friends at the home on O street this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Schwab entertained the Card club at their elegant new home on Academy avenue, at a dinner party on Thursday evening. The table was decorated with thy flags, artistic-ally arranged around a large bowl of white and red carnations. After dinner the evening's pleasures were cards, games and music,

Mr. George Evans of Salt Lake City, just recently returned from England, was the guest on Saturday and Sunday of Prof. Bert Eastmond.

The Nineteenth Century club met on Friday afternoon with Mra. O. C. New-ell. The paper of the afternoon was given by Mrs. Thomhill, subject, "Bar-rie and His Works."

The Sorosis club anniversary will be remembered this year by a musical evo-ning with Mr. and Mrs. Rob livine. The many friends of Miss Alice Reyn-olds will be glad to learn that she has sufficiently recovered from her recent attack of illness to be able to be out again.

. . .

again.

again. The largest and most brilliant affair of the week was the reception given last evening at the First ward social-hall by the members of the Happy Hour-club. The hall presented a cozy ap-pearance, each corner being provided with couches, rockers and rugs, draped beautifully with red, white and blue bunting. The orchestra was present and furnished music for the dancers. Refreshments were served. About 100 were present. Those receiving were Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Evans, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Snyder, Mr. and rMs. Frank Fouts, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Stoker, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Greene, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Decker, Mr. and Mrs. James Farrer, Mr. and Mrs. David Openshaw, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Harper, and Mr. and Mrs. Hyrum Jensen.

Several of the friends of Miss Edna Carter gave her a surprise party on Thursday evening. Cards and games were among the evening's pleasures. Mr. Clark sang several vocal selections. The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Bott, Mr. and Mrs. Heber Stubbs, Mr. Elmer Knudsen, Miss Violate Bailey, Miss Annie Oliver, Miss Mae Wilson, Miss Nina Carter, Mr. Frank Sharp, Mr. Albert Rasmussen, Mr. John M. Booth, Jr., Mr. Darwin Cluft and Mr. John Carter.

The ladies of the Maccabees gave a farewell party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Siegle on Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Siegle have decided to make their home in Ogden, and will leave next week. Supper was served. With music and games, the hours past were merry ones. were merry ones.

The amusement committee of the Third ward gave a missionary social on Friday evening in the ward meeting-house. Those present represented mis-sion fields in nearly all the different parts of the world, so they took the audience for "a trip around the world." Refreshments were served and a social good time enjoyed good time enjoyed.

An old fashioned dancing party was given on Tuesday evening at the hom of Mr. and Mrs. John Wilkins. Old Old fashioned costumes were worn, old fashioned dances danced and luncheon was served in the old fashioned way. Several delightful hours were spent by the guests present.

Wednesday morning the students and faculty of the Brigham Young univer-sity and about 100 guests from the city enjoyed a most excellent patriotic pro-gram, given in College hall. President Brimhall spoke briefly, but eloquently, on the "Characteristic qualities of Geo. Washington." Never was the "Sword of Bunker Hill" sung with more feel-ing than was given by Prof. A. C. Lund. Each number was carefully and credit-ably rendered. ably rendered.

The Mystic club met on Thursday afternoon in the club rooms. The presi-dent, Miss Bertle Walsh, read a por-tion of "Maurine." Miss Victoria Otte-son sang. The club adjourned for one week, The Sorosis club met on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Sam King, Mrs. Jacob Evans gave the news of the month, followed by Mrs. Slater's report of current literature. The members re-sponded to roll call by relating incl-dents in the life of George Washington, Mrs. Phillips of Park City is visiting friends in Provo.

Mrs. S. A. Langton is at home again after spending several days in Salt Lake.

Mr. Henry Parker is visiting friends in Logan and Wellsville. The fair which was held in the Sec-ond ward on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week was very success-ful and greatly enjoyed by all who at-tended.

. . .

Mr. Horace Peery of Ogden was in Logan on Tuesday.

Mr. L. C. Farr has gone to Mexico on business.

LEHI.

Mr. and Mrs. John Y. Smith enter-tained a number of their friends at their lovely home Wednesday evening at fluch and other games. Tasty re-freshments were also served. The guests surprised their host and hostess by presenting themselves dressed in headgear representing different char-acters, with pleasing effect.

Mrs. O. A. Slade entertained the Daughters of the Revolutionary War Monday evening in honor of Grandma Thomas's ninety-seventh birthday, all the members, numbering 35, being pres-ent. A special program was given and tasy refreshments, consisting of punch, cake, etc., were served.

Mr. Eugene Webb and Miss Annie E. Smith, two of our prominent young people, were married in the Sait Lake Temple Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. Webb will reside here.

Monday evening the elders of the four wards held their annual reunion in the Opera House. Dancing was indulg-ed in the greater part of the evening. A short program was given, the princi-pal event being a violin contest be-tween Bishop James H. Gardner and N. C. Hansen. Refreshments were also served.

Wednesday evening the M. I. A. gave a special Washington's birthday party in the city pavilion, which was well at-tended, and much enjoyed by those present. . . .

Mr. Thomas Austin of Sugar City, Ida., was visiting friends here the first of the week. . . .

Miss Effic Ross returned a few days ago from a month's visit with friends at Sugar City, Ida.

Miss Margaret Thorne of Salt Lake City was visiting her sister, Mrs. S. L. Wells, the first of the week, Mrs. John Devey was visiting friends in Provo Tuesday.

Mr. D. A. Thomas of Grand Junc-tion, Colo., and Mr. Daniel Fowler of Magrath, Canada, two of Leaf's former citizens, are visiting friends for a few days. . . .

Mr. Fred Fjelstead of Provo was shaking hands with old friends here the first of the week.

Mrs. Lenora Otterson of Eureka is visiting her mother, Mrs. D. H. Allred,

Mr. and Mrs. George Hacking return-ed to their home in Canday Tuesday, after a prolonged visiting with rela-tives here.

. . .

Miss Lucy Storad, visit to Garland.

week.

reside

ning last.

this week.

Lake City,

eral weeks.

The American Fork Dramatic com-pany presented "Under the Gas Lights" to a large and appreciative audience in the Opera House Thursday evening. Proceeds of the play went to our new tabernacle fund. * * ¥

This evening the University Drama-tic company will "esent "Christopher, Jr." for the ben at of the Sunday schools of the four wards,

Miss Lucy Stoddart left Friday for a

Messrs, T. R. Cutler, Chas, S. Bur-ton and Byron Groo of Sait Lake City were Lehi visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. Joseph Anderson was visiting relatives in Springville the first of the

The Black Hawk war veterans will give a party and reunion in the near future, EUREKA.

Mrs. Kent Harper is the guest of friends at Salem, Utah.

Mrs. C. C. Countryman has returned from a visit to her parents, Rev. D./M. Helmick and wife of Salt Lake.

Mr. Joseph Hicks, local manager of the Telephone company, left Monday with his family for Boise City, Ida., to

. . .

Mrs. George Wheeler of Stockton has

Mrs. Jere Driscoll entertained the ladies of the Reading club last Wednes-

The Literary club was the guest of Mrs. Edward Pike on Thursday eve-

. . .

A pleasant surprise was given Fri-day last in honor of D. C. Forsey at his home in Robinson. Music, recitations and social chat helped pass a merry evening and the party closed with a supper. Among the guests present wers Mesdames McLeod, Brown, Furner, Buil, and Householder, Mesdames and Messis. Parsons, Olsen, Steedman, Blackhurst, Reid, Farish, Chatwire, Da-vis, Andrews and Harrymani. Miss Ed-na Faris, Bishop Lundberg and Messis, Joseph Allen, Prof. Davis and Will, Miss Susis McKeo, a well known and Miss Susle McKee, a well known and popular young lady of Tfatle, has gone to Salt Lake City to reside.

Misses Eliza Bonner and Miss May

Gallagher visited friends at Robinson

Mrs. Fred Turner and sister, Miss Maude Mace, have returned from Sals

. . .

Mr. A. H. Taylor went to Salt Lake City last Wednesday to attend the birthday anniversary of her mother. The lady will remain in the city for sev.

. . .

. . . .

taken up her residence at Eureka.

day afternoon and evening.

corts at her home.

The largest and most elaborate affair of the week was the colonial ball and county fair given at the U. of U. on Tuesday night. In honor of the University football team.

A pleasant affair of the week was the reception given by the members of the Central Christian church on Tues-day night in honor of Rev, and Mrs. day night. Pinkerton. . . .

Another delightful church affair was the George Washington social given on Tuesday by the ladies of the First M.

The annual banquet of the University club was among the week's brilliant events.

At the home of Mr, and Mrs. David Evans on Tuesday night, Miss Myrtle Evans and Miss Kate O'Rourke enter-tained at a Washington's birthday party, the Idea being prettily carried out in all details. "Progressive pea-nuts" was the amusement, and about 20 guests were present.

20 guests were present. Misses Georgia Young and Ella Har-rison entertained et a pleasant evening party on Thesalay in honor of their guests, the Misses Taylor, Scowcroft, Browning and Woodmansee of Ogden. The rooms were decorated in the na-tional colors, and small hatchets were the tailles. Frizes wore won by Miss Belva Woodmansee, Marion Johnson, Harold Young and Arthur Burton. On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. George

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. George Taylor and Miss Abble Schulter were bostesses at a line shower party given in honer of Miss Ruth Dahlquist, whose wedding is shortly to take place. A game of hearts was enjoyed, the scores and tallies being in heart de-sign, and other datalis carrying out the iden. About 30 guests were present.

The buffet supper given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Nye at the Webber home on Wednesday night was among the most delightful events of the day. National emblems were ev-erywhere in evidence, and the affair was delightful in all ways.

A charming children's party of the week was that at which little Morion Stirling was host on Wednesday. Num-berless pretty devices carried out the patriotic idea and soveral games were intered. enjoyed. A 16. A.

Another, and larger children's affair of the week was the character party given by the Primary association of the Eighteenth ward, the event being in every way successful.

In every way The initial dancing party of the Bo-nita club on Wednesday night was a thoroughly delightful affair.

The stake officers of the Pioneer stake Sunday schools and Mutual Im-provement associations, mingled to-gether in a delightfully informal man-ner Friday night, the affair following their regular meeting in the Seventh ward assembly hall. During the eve-ning refreshments were served, and an enjoyable program was carried out.

enjoyable program was carried out. Tuesday was the twenty-first birth-day of Mrs. Frank Penrose, and the becasion was celebrated in a delightful svening party at the home of Mrs. Nelle Penrose-Whitney, where mem-bers of the family gathered and spent a most enjoyable time. There were music, recitations and addresses, and refreshments were served, the event be-ing in every way successful.

Mrs. A. L. Hoppough cinertained de-lightfully at cards on Tuesday and Wednesday, the decorations and other ing, acompanied by her son, Harold,

Among the delightful events of the week was the reading of "Enoch Arden" Wednesday night at the Congregational church by Mrs. C. E. Richards, with plano accompaniment by Mrs. Agnes

The Misses Nellie Goss and Ethel Brown gave a delightful party at Miss Brown's residence on Washington's birthday. Flags, bunting and other devices symbolizing the evening made the scene very brilliant. Games and music were indulged in until a late hour, dainty refreshments beling served and the patriotic idea being carried through-out. Everybody voted it a very charm-ing evening. Those present were Mrs. John Kingdon, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown, Misses Sadie and May Haynes, Ella Brown, Elizabeth Rousch, Irene Hilton, Katie Foisom, Clarissa Goss, Florence Brown, Messrs. Wm. Jensen, Orson May, Earl Sutton, Dan and Frank Laramite. Thomas Burt, Richard Agnew, Paul Austet, Thomas Taylor and Joe Kingdon. The Misses Nellie Goss and Ethel Agnew. Thingdon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bamberger will leave for the coast some time next week

Mrs. Robert G. Smith has gone to Los Angeles to visit Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jevne. 4 4 4

Mrs. H. R. Freeman has gone east for a visit with relatives in Aurora, Ill.

W. P. Noble and Miss Mayme Noble have gone to Byron Springs in central California to spend a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Curtis and Mrs. J. E. Roach will be at home after today at 111 north Main street.

Miss Laura Shier of De Lamar is in the city visiting Mrs. M. K. Parsons,

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Newhouse left Thursday for Washington, where they will be guests during the inaugural week of Congressman and Mrs. Bourke Cockran, who are entertaining a large house nerty during the season.

house party during the season.

Miss Ida Mackintosh has moved and s now at home at 308 east Second South street. . . .

Miss Nellie Pearsall is spending i few weeks with friends in Butte.

Mrs. A: L. Scott has returned from Chicago and will remain in Salt Lake for some time. She is at home at 309 Fifth East street.

Miss Waller expects to leave for her come today. . . .

Mrs. William Igleheart has gone to Los Angeles, to be away some weeks,

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Taylor left yester-day to make their home in Boise.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Robinson of Boston were for a few days guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Fabian.

Mrs. H. S. Hyde of Kimberley is vis-iting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Cannon.

A DELIGHTFUL MID-SEASON HOUSE GOWN.

to join Senator Smoot in Washington, Mrs. P. J. Enright and daughter, Clara, leave in a few weeks for a tour of the far eastern states. In September they will go abroad to remain sev-

Tonight the wedding of Miss Leonic D. Pratt and Mr. George D. Bergener will take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milando

8 8.8 The wedding of Miss Lillian Gates, daughter of Mrs. Mary Gates, and Mr. Louis J. Knight, took place this week, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride, by Judge W. H. King. The rooms were prettily decor-ated, and a supper was served, the near ated, and a supper was served, inclusive relatives and friends being present. Miss Lena Bachman of Provo and Ar-thur Gates attended the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Knight will reside in Salt Lake.

Mrs. A. C. Robinson of this city, and Y. T. Rasmusson of Oakley, Summit o., were married on Thursday at the Temple, and a wedding dinner was given later in their honor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McPhes, the table being prettily decorated. Mr. and Mrs. Rasmussen will reside at Oakley.

OGDEN. Washington's birthday was celebrated in an elaborate manner Wednesday afternoon at the elegant home of Hon. F. J. Klesel, when Mrs. Klesel and Miss Minnie Klesel received and enter-tained a large number of their lady friends. They were assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Albert Klesel, Mrs. Kuhn, Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. Hume, Mrs. Ma-guire, Mrs. Heywood and Mrs. Arm-

All goes well when the baby is well. Keep the baby well by giving him Mellin's Food, it will nourish him, make him grow strong and keep him happy. We are sure of it; try it. Ask the mothers of Meilin's Food children. Send for our free book about Mellin's Food.

Mellin's Food is the ONLY Infants' Food, which received the Grand Prize, the highest award of the Louisiana Pur-chase Exposition, St. Louis, 1904. Migh-er than a gold medal.

MELLIN'S FOOD CO., BOSTON, MASS.

strong, while Miss Louise Peery and Miss Hendershot presided at the punch bowl. All of those who received were prettily attired in colonial gowns, mak-ing a striking effect. While the many guests chatted pleasantly and enjoyed the afternoon's pleasures, an orchestra-discoursed sweet music adding greatly to the enjoyment of the ocasion. The deporations were principally the nation-al colors and the Stars and Stripes, very artistically arranged. Roses and carnations were used in profusion throughout the entire home, which was thrown open to the guests, Delicious thrown open to the gravity, which was thrown open to the gravity. The party was a true reminder of the colonial days of Washington, the hostesses be-ing equal to the brillant occasion,

Mrs. H. H. Spencer gave a pretty home party last Saturday to a few of her lady friends. Cards were played, dainty refreshments were served.

Miss Hannah Dee of Salt Lake City spent the week in Ogden with her sister.

Morgan D. Bowen, a prominent young man of Juab county visited in Ogden this week with W. B. Hughes.

Miss Edith Douglass and Levi Cox of West Weber and Hooper respective-ly were married Wednesday.

ly were married Wednesday. A pretty home wedding took place Weinesday evening, Feb. 22, at the res-idence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keller, corner of Ninth street and Lincoln avenue, when Miss Martha Wendtland was married to Henry Keller. The cere-mony was performed at 5 o'clock in the evening. Bishop James Taylor officiat-ing. A number of guests gathered to witness the ceremony and extend con-gratulations. A sumptuous repast was served in the dining room, the table being decorated in carnations and roses, entwined with smilax. The bride was attired in a pretty gown of dove-colored mull, and wore bride's roses. She is a charming young German lady, who has been employed at the State School for the Deaf and Blind. The groom is proprietor of the Orchard dairy. Both have many friends who wish them every possible joy and prosperity. Mr. and Mrs. Keller will make their home at Harrisville, Weber county. at Harrisville, Weber county.

. . . The Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church met Thursday with Mrs. J. S. Corlew.

The home of John M. Browning was the scene of an enjoyable family re-unon Wednesday given in honor of Warren G. Child, father of Mrs. Brown-ing, whose birthday it was. There were present a large circle of relatives. A bounteous repast was served. Austin Child and daughter Alice, of Lima, Montana, were present. Montana, were present.

The ladies of the Maccabees enter-tained Wedensday evening in honor of visiting guests from Salt Lake and other places. Cards were played and refreshments were served.

The Wober Stake academy gave an an ovable dancing party last evening at the Second ward hall, to the B. Y. academy basket ball team of Provo.

Miss Emma Byram and G. Henry Firth of West Weber were married Thursday.

PR.OVO.

The Provo Commercial club enter-tained a number of friends at a musi-cale on Tuesday evening in their club rooms. It was given in commemoration of the anniversary of Washington's birthday. The rooms were beautifully decorated with the national colors, the artistic effect being increased by a quantity of red and white carnations, banked on tables and mantles. The ex-cellent musical program of patriotic songs and piano selections was much appreciated, the following well known artists participating: Guartet, Messrs. W. D. Roberts, W. Whitehead, John Johnson and Sam Jones; piano solo, Prof. J. A. Anderson; soprano solo, Miss Hizel Taylor; recitation, Mrs. Joe Yates; baritone solo, Prof. A. C. Lund; recitation, Mr. J. M. Jensen; contral bo solo, Miss McCleilan. At the conclusion of the musical numbers, luncheon was served, cards played and a social good time enjoyed. The Commercial club has won great favor within a business and social way, with the people of Prova, and we hope it has come to stay.

..... Miss Hazel Argyle of Spanish Fork is visiting in Provo, the guest of Miss Effie Gardner.

> Miss Reah Simons of Lehl was visiting Provo friends on Sunday,

A number of the friends of Mrs. Jas. McMurrin arranged a most pleasant surprise party for her on Wednesday afternoon. About 30 ladies took pos-session of her cozy new home, with the determination to make the occasion a typical house warming. Luncheon, mu-sic and a happy social time was the afternoon's pleasure.

8 8 8 Miss Fannie Henrie arranged a successful surprise party on her sister, Tarza, on Wednesday afternoon, About 25 little guests enjoyed a merry after-

1 1 5 A Washington social was given in the Fourth ward meetinghouse Monday evening. A small admission fee was charged, which was donated to the ward fund. Mrs. Pearl Yates had the affair in charge, and was becomingly gowned in a Martia Washington cos-tume, and served at the luncheon ta-ble. The hall was decorated in red, white and blue, the same color scheme appearing in the lunch served. A num-ber of original amusements furnished on end of mertiment. Several musical selections were given. The organization furnished a successful evening's enter-tainment, and their many guests pro-nounced it a pleasant affair. A Washington social was given in the nounced it a pleasant affair.

. . . Miss Nina Bean, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Olive Bean, and Mr. Le Roy Thatcher, went to Salt Lake Tues-day morning, where, later in the day, Miss Nina and Mr. Thatcher were mar-ried in the Salt Lake Temple. Their many Provo friends extend congratu-lations and best wishes. Mr. and Mrs. Thatcher will be at home after March Thatcher will be at home after Marci

1 at Logan.

The high school of the Brigham Young university gave a successful dancing party on Tuesday evening. The decorations were most artistic. The band stand was arranged with drap-ings of red, white and blue.

Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Hardy arranged for the himates of the mental hospital, A full orchestra was present, and fur-rished delightful music, which was en-joyed as much as the dancing. A num-ber of invited guests were present.

Invitations are issued by the Nine-teenth Century club for a breakfast, to be given at the Hotel Roberts on March 4 in commemoration of the anniversary of the organization of the club.

LOGAN. Logan-The military ball given at the pavilion on Tuesday evening by the cadets of the A. C. under Capt. H. D. Styer was, as predicted, a most enjoy-able affair and drew out a large num-ber of people. An interesting feature of the evening was the drill by the ca-dets who presented a stunning appear-ance. Elaborate refreshments were served and dancing enjoyed until a late hour. Among those present were the ance. Elaborate refreshments were served and dancing enjoyed until a late hour. Among those present were the following: Capt. and Mrs. H. D. Styer, the A. C. cadets, Prof. and Mrs. Ball, Prof. and Mrs. Langton, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Flemming, Mrs. G. H. Champ, Prof. and Mrs. George W. Thatcher, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Thompson, Miss Florence Miner, Miss Susle Pilgrim, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thatcher, Miss Mamie Morrell, Miss Ida Mitchell, Mr. Milton Mitchell, Misses Edna and Leah Dan-iels, Mr. Seth Langton, Mr. Ed Han-son, Dr. and Mrs. D. C. Budge, Dr. and Mrs. Goodrich, Miss Violet Wendelboe, Miss Hattie Smith, Miss Pru Smith, the Misses Eliason, Mr. Charlte Hanson, Prof. Arnold, Miss Elizabeth Smith, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Naylor, Mr. Irving Brangham, Mr. N. R. Moore, Miss Martha Fisher, Miss Grace Fisher, Miss Martha Torgresen, Mrs. Wall Pyper, Mr. George Torgesen, Miss Hall, Miss Stewart, Mr. Tuttle and many others.

Miss Elizabeth Smith entertained at dinner at the Hänks hotel last Mon-day evening. Covers were laid for nine, Marguerites formed a very pretty ta-ble decoration. Miss Smith's guests were Mrs. W. S. Laugton, Mrs. E. D. Ball, Mrs. G. H. Champ, Mrs. I. N. Smith, Mrs. L. A. Ostien, Mrs. Bexell, Mrs. J. F. Engel, Mrs. T. W. Naylor.

President and Mrs. Linford of the B Y, college entertained at a faculty re-eption at their home on Friday even The evening was greatly enjoyed by all present.

The marriage of Mr. Roy Thatcher and Miss Diana Bean of Provo, was solemnized in the Salt Lake Temple on Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. Thatcher will reside in Logan. They have the sin-cere congratulations of a host of friends.

A very pleasant event of the week her of their friends on Monday evening. Those present were Mrs. Joseph Howell, Mrs. Lewis Carnon, Mr. and Mrs. Will Howell. Mrs. Anna Knox, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Thatcher, Mrs. Lulu Johnson, Misses Eva Knox, Violet Wendelboe, Lillie Kent, Kate Thatcher, Genevieve Thatcher, Jennie Johnson, Irene Cress-all, Messirs, John Christiansen Charlie Wendebal, Sylvan Needham, Arthur Farnes, Jacobsen, Art Jenkins, Cooley, Finlayson.

Mrs. Joseph Howell has gone to Washington to remain for some time. She will also visit in New York before returning home.

The "Married Folks" dance, given by the ladles of the Latter-day Saints church at the local hall Monday nigh-drew out a large gathering of the stalk people of Eureka, and the way they danced the old time dances showed that,

City.

Mrs. J. A. Hyde, Jr., of Nephi, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hector Frazer. The following ladies were the guests of Miss Elizabeth Smith at dinner served at the A. C. last Saturday after-noon: Mrs. Barratt. Miss Casidy, Mrs. A. M. Flemming, Mrs. H. D. Styer, Mrs. E. P. Bacon, Mrs. J. C. Walters. Mrs. Ray Ashworth returned to Salt Lake this week after visiting here sis-ter, Mrs. Elodia Roberts of Robinson. Miss Winnie Murray of Grand Junc-tion, Colo., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Knaus of Robinson, was the surprise party tendered Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Crawford by a num-ber of their friends on Monday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Hanson of Rob-inson visited Payson friends this week, Mrs. Heber Fields has returned from Mount Pleasant, where she represented the local lodge of Woodcraft at the state convention, Mr. and Mrs. Malvey and Mrs. Nick Hanley returned this week from Park

. . .

