Yoneg Woman Steals Watch from Her Friend-District Court Hearings-Wedding Bells.

Several days ago Mrs. Abbie Bingham, who resides on Seventeenth street, had her gold watch and chain stolen from her house. The mysterious disappearance of the watch was reported to the sherin's office, and the owner rehearsed to the officers that she spected a young lady friend of havng stolen the articles, as she had been the habit of late of visiting the ingham house often; that the young ady had been wearing a cheap silver watch and chain. A day or so before Mrs. Bingham missed her watch, the young woman had placed her silver which and chain around Mrs. Bingam's baby's neck, and it was lost, so d; eventually Mrs. Bingham's hand chain was gone; no trace of uld be found, and with its disaprance the young lady's visits ceased officers told Mrs. Bingham, they they could not go to the lady's tments and search her trunk withat a search warrant. Mrs. Bingham considered the instruct, and concluded to call on the young lady at her room, tecordingly yesterday afternoon Mrs. lingham called on her and told her at unless she delivered over the miss watch and chain, a search warrant id be got out and a complaint made nst her, charging her with grand ist her, charging ny. This so frightened the young that she broke down, and begged Bingham not to prosecute and she Id take her to the room and re the watch. The two went to th the watch. and the young woman opened unk, and took the watch and from the bottom of the trunk, Bingham says she will not pr now the watch and chain has been Sad Demise of Young Findlay G. Whitehead-Result of Accident.

Special Correspondence.

St. George, Washington Co., May 16.-The funeral of Findlay G. Whitehead was held today. His sad death occurred last night as the result of an accident, which befel him about three weeks ago. He and a companion were returning from Santa Clara, when his horse fell. throwing him on the left side of his head, rendering him unconscious, from which he only recovered for a few moments at a time. He was the sixteen-year-old son of Mrs. A. R. Whitehead, and grandson of the late George God-dard of Salt Lake City.

NO BATH FOR THE ELKS. Water Failed to Appear, but There Are Other Liquids.

Possibly by way of retaliation for past neglect the water failed to show up at the Sanitarium last night and the Elks had to forego their annual bath. But water is not the only liquid in which the Eiks can find amusement, as was demonstrated last evening. The interior of the building last night was decorated in true Elk style and several interesting events were pulled off. The most amusing one was the baseball game in the empty north pool, between the All Beers and the All Sandwiches. The All Beers won out in a walk. After the game the company congregated around the south pool and watched a series of moving pictures. One amusing occurrence was while a kissing bee was being thrown onto the canvas a four-year-old son of a prominent Elk piped out, "Hello, Papa." Mr. Allen or "Ivan-hoe" won laurels for himself by reeling off a string of improvised verses. The Rube band of the Norris & Rowe Animal show gave one or two selections. Refreshments were served and one of the pretty features of the evening was the eleven o'clock toast.

Women look with apprehension upon that time generally known as the "change of life." Observation has shown them that sometimes that change is so far-reaching that it involves both mind and body in suffering, At such a time the mirror sometimes shows great changes in the face; changes which mark the pain and suffering which are being endured. Often, too, in these dolorous days there is almost complete physical collapse. The

CLAIMS VS. CURES.

It is very much easier to make-claims than to make cures. It is by its cures "Favorite Prescription" is to be judged and by the multiplied testimonies to these cures given by the grateful women who have been restored to perfect health and strength through the use of this great medicine.

"About five years ago I had very poor health," writes Mrs. S. E. Whalen, of Holden, Johnson Co., Mo. "After doc-toring four years with our town doctors they gave my case up; said they had done all they could. I had been confined to my bed half my time; the other half could hardly drag around. I had such pains in my back and abdo-men I could not stand on my feet for more than a few minutes. My feet were nore than a few minutes. My feet were coid or burning, and my periods came too often. The doctors said it was change of life, so, as I had heard of Dr. Pierce's medicines, my husband got me a bottle of 'Favorite Prescription.' I took it and it helped me in some ways, so I wrote to you and followed your advice. I commenced 'Favorite Prescription,' Golden Medical Dis-covery' and the 'Pleasant Pellets,' as I was so constipated all the time and will second pellets.' and pills would weaken me so that I would have to go to bed. To the great surprise of everybody I got well, and when I met my friends they would say, 'I never thought you would be here now.' But I can say it was your medi-cine, which no doubt is the best in the world. Have no use for doctors since tried your medicine.' Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is purely a vegetable preparation an can-not disagree with the weaknest constitution. It contains no alcohol and is absolutely free from opium, cocaine, and all other narcotics.

Accept no substitute for "Favorite Prescription" if you wish to be cured thers have been. Insist upon the rentedy with a record for the cure of weak and sick women.

Well founded rumor had it last night that Allred and the girl, Hil-da Hansen, who, by the way, has stood up in defense of her alleged paramour all through this trouble, would get mar-
