LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THE THEATRE.-The audience at the Theatre, last night, we regret to say, was Burnett and his assistants iftmensely. Mr. Burnett is a very clover artist; he has great power of facial expression, and his changes from one character to another are made with surprising celerity. His "Mr. Candle" and "Miss Frances Train" are inimitably droll, and well worth seeing. Mr. Sharpley is a number one concertina player, and was heartily encored each appearance. All who want to be forced to saugh and have a merry time should certainly attend the Theatre to-night. It is the last night of "Comic Faces," and what with Alf Burnett and his comicalities and Mr. Sharpley with his instrument, the publie will not soon have such a chance for fun and good music again.

DROWNED.-It is our painful duty to record the death, by drowning, of Brother Moroni Bigelow, which occurred between Camden and Wellington, Mo., on the evening of the 13th inst. The sad intelligence was communicated to the wife of Brother Bigelow, residing at Provo, by Mr. R. H. Me-Kay, clerk of the steamer Mary McDonald, on board of which he was a passenger at the time of the melancholy event. Mr. МсКау зауз:

"On the night of the 13th inst. about half-past nine o clock, Mr. Moroni Bigelow was seen to fall from off the guard of the boat into the river. It being dark and the current very swift, before the alarm could be given, he disappeared from sight, and, it is supposed, was drowned, as nothing more was seen of him."

Brother Bigelow started on a mission to the East on the 1st of last November, and was returning homeward when his death todk place.

He was born in Mercer County, Ill., Sept. 1st, 1840, and emigrated to this valley in the fall of 1850. He leaves a wife, three sods and numerous relatives to mourn his untimely departure.

METROBOLOGICAL.-We are indebted to Bro. Wm. B. Dougall, of the Deseret Telegraph line, for the following particulars concerning the weather last night and this merning in various settlements in the Territory:

St. George, rather unpleasant, wind blowing. Beaver, has been very cold and blustering; anowing, but it is clearing up now. Fillmore, very cloudy, anowing around the mountains; snow fell one inch last night; all gone now and pleasant. Gunnison, very cold and cloudy, with little snew. Manti, cloudy but mild; indima of snow soon. Mt. Pleasant, chilly a few scattering clouds floating over. Morons, cloudy and appearance of storm, but very pleasant. Nephi, a little cloudy but pleasant; snowed last night; all gone now. Payson, cloudy but pleasant; snowed this morning; all melted now. Provo, rather cold; snewing, very cloudy. Farmington, clearing up; pleasant. Kaysville, anowed this morning; clearing up now.

"BURLESQUE SINGER,"-A theatrical or dramatic entertainment was given last week, in Jennings' new building, in Ogden city, which did not meet the approval of the 'critic' of our cotemporary the Ogden Junction, who, under the heading a "Burlesque Singer," waltzes the performers and musicians through in the following style:

"We could make only a passing allusion in our last issue to the performance in Jennings' new building on Friday evening. It was of a kind rather novel to the citizens of Ogden. Our unsophisticated citizens have been accustomed to seeing acties, either on or off the stage, clothed in at least a moderate amount of drapery. The lady who appeared before the audience on Friday evening, no doubt possesses ability in her line, but her dress, or rather un-dress, took the audience by surprise. The music was out of tune and time, and we were wondering what was the matter, till we discovered that the musicians were so struck with astonishment that they could neigher draw the bow or blow a blast with their accustomed skill. Their failure had a considerable effect on the singing and dancing, which would doubtless have been weil executed, with good orchestral accompaniment. As it was, the amusement was not very amusing."

We should not be surprised if, after s blast like that, the Junction is reproached by some of the parties for whom its, doubtless well deserved, strictures were intended with "cuining their prospects." We have known such things in our experience here.

PORTERVILLE .- Brother Wm. B. Trosper, writing on the 17th inst., from Porter ville Morgan County, says:

"Mverything is prospering and moving along first class here; we have formed our selves into a co-operative company, and our intention is to manufacture iron, of which we have some of the best ore in the Territory. It contains from thirty to sixty per pent, of iron, and quite an amount of silver. A man of experience, whom we have had to examine the location of our mine says that it is very extensive. Our company are all laboring men; our capital is very small, except in the way of labor. We would like some man that has the cash dapital to invest in such business, to come in and furnish the capital and we will do the work. Neither the Cullom Bill nor the different "ites" which some few are so anxious to run after, are troubling the Saints of Porterville; they all seem to be united in building up the Kingdom of God.

"THE MORMONS,"-Under this heading, the editor of the Oakland (Cal.) Duily Trunscript, of the 18th instant, says:

"Brigham Young has returned to Salt His arrival was hailed with great the expectant Saints. In a short time this Mormon trouble will culminate. Young is no word quibbler, and will shortly announce his future intentions in language not to be misunderstood. He is, of course, an advocate of polygamy, and, if Calloni's bill should pass would be the worst divorced man in the world. We ex-pect to hear from him shortly; first in tones of mildremonstrance against the passage of the bill and then, if it should pass, in ones which mean war and no mistake. If he pursues this latter course he will act first and talk afterwards. PERIODICALS. - We are indebted to broth-" James Dwyer for Marpers Monthly, for May, The Illustrated London News for the and instant, Punchinello, and a neatly bound state volume containing maps of Cah Tetritory, Salt Lake Valley and Salt late City, with portrait and autograph of President Young, all of which are for sale at he Railway News Depot, East Temple street.

No axiom is more aptly illustrated than to the rapidly increasing demand for DooLEY's BAKING POWDER. Its merits consist in its purity, economy and the small quantity required to produce sweet biscuits, rolls, pastry &c., compared with other baking powders offered to the public.
