The andtors were the Beaconsideld favorite flower. In his address Salisbury de-clared that Teryism was growing rap-idly among all classes in the Empire. He said he felt it to be his duty in these critical times to urge all loyal men to critical times to urge all loyal men to combine for the support of religion and the empire. He denied that he had recommended as the best means of governing the Irish people the adoption of 20 years at coercion pelizy. He had only advissed the maintenance of law and order in Ireland. He reiterated his advice to the Irish to emigrate from ireland if they could not prosper and be contented under British rule, and urged the Conservatives to support the Liberal Union's candidate in the com-

Detroit 19.—Philadelphia 2, Detroit 7
St. Louis, 19.—St. Louis 2, Boston 4. The French government has decided to introduce in the Chamber of Depu-ties a bill to dispose finally of the pre-tensions of the Orleans Princes.

A Montreal dispatch says: Over million bushels of grain are reporte to be en route from Chicago to Mon-treal, and the prospects for large grain shipments from this point are regarded Granville introduced a bill in the House of Lords Tuesday night re-specting representation in the Canadian Farliament of Territories belonging to the Dominion, but not included in any second reading of the bill providing for the election by ballot of poor law guardians in Iraland, abolishing prexies and reducing the number of ex-officio members on the Poor Boards. The Orange members bitterly opposed the motion. Mr. John Morley, Chief Secretary for Ireland, supported the motion, and, after a hot debate, it was carried by a vote of 297 to 105. The announcement of the result was received with wild cheers.

Baren De Courcel, French Embassador at Berlin, has arrived in Paris to confer with the government concerning confer with the government concerning the relations between France and Ger-

A Chicago dispatch says: The John B. Jeffray Printing Company confessed indgment in the Supreme Court to-day amounting to $108,000. The creditors are all Chicago parties. Mr. Jeffray says there are no other debts and the business is in good condition. The assets are estimated at $237,000. The trouble is said to have resulted from a number tof stockholders demanding that their shares be taken up.

M. Rousseau, the delegate appointed by the French Government to inspect the work on the Panama Canal, has presented his report in which he denies the correctness of the canal company's statement respecting its facilities for construction, the time when the canal will be completed and the amount of money still required to accomplish the work. M. Baihaut, Minister of Public Works, will inform M. DeLesseps and his fellow directors M. DeLesseps and his fellow directors that they must reply to M. Rousseau's report, as the government cannot authorize the proposed issue of lottery bonds until the position of the company is made clear.

A St. Louis dispatch says: The grand jury at Believille, Hilnois, to-day returned their report to the Circuit Court after having refused to find true bills against the Deputy Sheriffs who fired upon the mob in East St. Louis during the recent railroad strike and killed six of their number. An order was made for their release and they departed for their homes. It is said that the jury stood fitteen for ne indictment on the charge of manufacturer.

to become a mother and it is feared the shock will prove fatal to her.

The most laughable, grotesque and unheard-of strike that has occurred with the small boys attending the Cath-olic school in Laramie. They had witnessed, in part, the strike of the brake-men just ended, and not only this, but some of the older ones had seen and read the Police Gazette which lately gave an account of a strike by school children in an interior Pennsylvania town. They resolved to do something, and the first step was to organize a vas organization, which by means of hiero glyphics on the fences and other mys terious signs gave evidence that some boys had been having fifteen minutes recess, and it occurred to them that a half hour would not be too long. A meeting was called and a committee appointed to wait upon the priest and state their grievances. They obtained no satisfaction and a strike was ordered, which resulted in a general up-The boys of the school who re fused to join in the strike were called "scabs," and several of them were run into and locked up in one of the rooms of the school house. They then held another meeeting and voted to arbitrate the matter with the sisters of the school. These good and Christian people were shocked beyond measure by the turn affairs had taken, and while they were deliberating the course to be pursued the priest appeared upon the scene. The boys at this time were all gathered in one of the side rooms of the school house,.

and the priest, making his way among them, took the ringleader by the ear and marched him into the schoolroom. that settled it. The "strike" was de-clared "off," and the kids concluded to return to the school room and be-have themselves. Nothing that has happened in Laramie City for a long time has created so much amusement as this strike.— Carean County, (Wyo.) Journal.
