CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.
WASHINGTON, 23.—Jones, of New York, introduced a bill to prohibit the transportation of liquid nitro-glycerine, and to regulate the transportation of dynamite and other explosives from one State or Territory to another, or to or from a foreign country, of nitro-glycerine in any other form than that of dynamite, and prohibits the transportation of the latter substance except by merely freight conveyance, and on condition that it be packed in metallic cases and accompanied with any means of exploding it; and in the event of the failure of the dynamite to explode, the person who transported it in any manner, every person who knowingly permitted or aided in the transportation is to be deemed guilty of manslaughter.

Randolph proposed an amendment as an additional section to the bill for counting the votes of the President of the Senate shall declare on the validity of the returns according to the majority of the votes; and should it occur that the aggregate vote of both Houses be equally divided upon the question, then, and in that event only, the President of the Senate shall give the deciding vote.

The Senate went into executive session, and soon adjourned.

HOUSE.
WASHINGTON, 23.—Hardenburgh, of N. J., reported the Senate bill to relinquish the interest of the U. S. in the city and county of San Francisco; referred to the committee of the whole.

Cox, of Ga., reported a bill to pay the expenses incurred by the State of Oregon and the citizens of California in suppressing Indian hostilities in 1872 and 1873; referred to a committee of the whole.

Thornburgh, of Tennessee, reported back the Senate bill domastically from the committee on Salem, Oregon, to the several countries through which it passes;
passed.

From the committee on military affairs, reported a bill to reduce the area of the military reservation of Fort Verde, Wyoming; Territory, to fifty-four square miles;
passed.

A. S. Williams, from the same committee, reported a bill repealing the law which forbids the applicament to any position in the army of any person who served in any capacity in the Confederate States in the late rebellion; passed.

Hanning, from the same committee, reported a bill to regulate the pay of army officers, as follows:—
General, $10,000; Major General,
