WATCHES JEWELRY

ABOUT three months ago all the watchmakers in this city agreed and subscribed to certain prices for work in their line, for the purpose of obtaining uniform and Cheap Rates. This agreement, however, has already been broken by several watchmakers, who are underselling their colleagues and thereby proving themselves untrue to their written word. In consequence of which, the undersigned has withdrawn his name from said agreement and established his own prices, cheaper than any other Watchmaker's in Salt Lake City.

AN OPEN SECRET

AMONG THE LADIES

The brilliant, fascinating tints of Complexion for which ladies strive are chiefly artificial, and all who will take the trouble may secure them. These roseate, bewitching hues follow the use of Hagan's Magnolia Balm—a delicate, harmless and always reliable article. Sold by all druggists.

The Magnolia Balm conceals every blemish, removes Sallowness, Tan, Redness, Eruptions, all evidences of excitement and every imperfection.

Its effects are immediate and so natural that no human being can detect its application.

The Six Days' Tramp.

NEW YORK, 22.—By 9 o'clock tonight there were some 7,000 people in Madison Square Garden, and the applause for each of the contestants in the great match was equally distributed. The light in the garden was miserable, every one smoked, and the atmosphere was oppressive. Hazael, about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, started on a run, and made 6 miles within 45 minutes. He was well applauded and his example stirred up Rowell, Guyon, Fnnis and others to good work. Hazael's mile marks went up quick and fast. Weston was taken sick early in the evening and he walked, trotted, and retired to his tent regularly. He complained of the smoking. During the evening Rowell took but few rests and those were short. He seemed determined to place a clear lead between himself and his competitors. Ennis turned his hundredth mile near 10 o'clock, and applause was tremendous. The band played "Killarney," and a basket of flowers was handed to him. The next to appear for 100 mile honors was Merritt, and the Massachusetts men shouted themselves hoarse. The applause for Merritt had scarcely subsided when cries of "Hart! Hart!" went up, as the colored boy strode along. He turned his 100 miles at 14 minutes past 10 o'clock, amid great applause.

At 12 o'clock the score was, Rowell 127; Guyon 115; Merritt 108; Hart 107; Ennis 105; Panchot 100; Azael 100; Jackson 98; Weston 92; Krohne 90; Federmeyer 81; Taylor 80.

Land Troubles.

The Sun, to-day, gives an extraordinary history of Admiral Derohan and the Las Animas grant in Colorado, elicited in the district court here, by a suit brought by Derohan against Wm. Craig, for $23,315 for services as civil engineer and draughtsman, in preparing maps of the grant, and in writing the history of the same for the use of General Butler, who is to lay the claim of Craig and his associates before Congress. The plaintiff states that he was several weeks preparing maps and reports, which were duly furnished to Butler. Then he asked for the remaining pay due him. Craig put him off with vague promises and at last, when closely pressed, intimated that he might get his pay as best he could, hence the suit before Justice Kelly.

The Tribune, to-day, says: The foreclosure of the Maxwell land grant, in New Mexico, is certainly the most extensive suit of the kind now pending in the United States, and very probably has never been equalled in the extent of the property affected. The mortgage premises embrace no fewer than 1,800,000 acres, and include some immense gold mines. The mortgage with accrued interest, amounts to over $7,000,000. Craig has already had confirmed to him by the land office 97,000 acres of this land, and this he sold last year to the Colorado Cattle Co. for $300,000 and his success thus far only whetted his appetite for further raids upon the public domain.

Europe's Demands for Produce.

The demand in Great Britain and the continent for American produce of all kinds appears to be growing more extensive. Overflowing freight cargoes continue to be sent over there, and the number of steamships engaged in the traffic constantly increases. Twelve heavily loaded steamers left here on Saturday. The grain shipment exceeds that of any previous single day, being 50,000 bushels. Judging from the tone of Dominion journals in confidence of the government returning ministers, who went to England last summer to solicit an imperial guarantee for the Canada Pacific, have failed, not only to secure that, but have been unsuccessful in their overtures to private capitalists.

An Officer Shot.

CHARLESTON, S.C., 22.—Internal Revenue Collector Brayton has received a dispatch from Spartanburg stating that special deputy collector and United States deputy marshal, T. J. Davis, was shot this afternoon by J. B. Panther, while serving a bench warrant issued in North Carolina, but which had been made serviceable in this district, by Judge Bryan. Panther was shot in the leg by a negro and is now in jail at Spartanburg. Davis' thigh bone was badly broken.

The Fall River Strikers.

FALL RIVER, Mass., 22.—The greatest indignation has prevailed here to-day, over an attempt to murder Officer Townsend here, last night. It is expected a meeting of the board of aldermen will be held to-morrow, and an effort will be made to offer a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of the assassin.

The French population are greatly excited over the outrages, and particularly the assault on their countrymen last week. Several meetings have been held during the past week, and resolutions were passed denouncing the action of those members of the board of aldermen who refused to increase the police force. Naturalization papers are to be taken out, and the French expect to poll over 250 votes at the coming municipal election.

A committee from the nailers at Fall River iron works, waited on the treasurer to-day and asked for an increase of wages. They were told that after the 1st instant the wages would be increased 10 per cent.

Yellow Fever.

MEMPHIS, 22.—Sixteen cases reported to-day. Three deaths.

Grant's Movements.

SAN FRANCISCO, 22.—This forenoon, General Grant, by special request, reviewed the Stockton guard in the court of the Palace.

Shortly before noon, accompanied by Mrs. Grant and by Mayor and Mrs. Bryant, he visited Taber's photographic gallery on Montgomery Street, near Market Street, and had some pictures taken. His departure from the hotel by a side entrance was unobserved, and the party walked to the gallery, the General being observed by but four persons, and then only by a passing glance. This afternoon the party, consisting of General and Mrs. Grant and suite, Mayor Bryant, Supervisors Danforth, Gibbs and Talbot and Generals Corey and Miller, will drive to the cliff, where they will lunch.

The General will visit Virginia City about October 29th, on his way east.

The California Theatre has seldom contained such an audience as assembled there this evening to witness the performance of the military spectacle of the "Color Guard" in honor of General Grant. Long before the doors opened the street was thronged with people, and the outer lobby of the theatre was packed. The auditorium was literally jammed, and many were turned away, unable to obtain admission. The boxes reserved for the General and party were handsomely decorated with the national colors, and the same ornamentation was carried around the front of the balcony. The play was magnificently put on the stage, and the presence of three full companies of the National Guard added to the scenic effect. Shortly after the commencement of the second act, the roars of the enthusiastic crowd in the street gave notice that the expected guest had arrived at the outer entrance. The street for an entire block was almost impassable, on account of the cheering crowd. In a few moments the party made its appearance in the boxes, when the whole audience rose to their feet en masse, cheering and applauding continuously, while the curtain was run down until the uproar subsided. General Grant acknowledged the ovation by bowing right and left, and order being restored, the performance went on. At the close of the second act the orchestra rendered the "Army Quadrille," dedicated to General Grant. The General paid close attention to the performance, expressing his gratification plainly by his manner.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Cetewayo—The Conditions of the Treaty of Peace.

LONDON, 22.—A correspondent at Capetown writes that the colonial government has consented to keep Cetewayo here as a state prisoner, during the Queen's pleasure.

King Cetewayo will come here immediately to await orders from the home government. His capture has had a quieting effect among the natives, and the danger of a rupture with the Pondar has passed away.

A final assembly of the great chiefs, counselors and people of Zululand was to be held at Ulindi, to-day, when the terms of peace were to be proclaimed, and each of the chiefs selected to rule over the territories was to sign an agreement. According to this agreement the chief undertakes to forego importing arms from any quarter whatever, and the importation of merchandise from the sea coast is also forbidden. The making of war and succession to a chieftainship will be subject to approval of the British government. When British subjects are accused of crimes, their crimes and sentence will depend on the Resident's approval. The alienation of land will be absolutely forbidden. In all respects these chiefs will be sovereign in their own territory, and a chief will not be compelled to admit missionaries, and the prohibition of the alienation of land will not be released in favor of grants to missionaries. British Residents will be instructed to advise the chiefs, but to exercise no authority over them. If the chiefs disregard the terms of the agreement the Residents will report their conduct, but will have no power to give orders.

The course of the White Umvoloosi River, from Kambald Mountain to the sea, will divide the Northern from the Southern Residency.

Many of the chiefs receiving territories are representatives of ancient tribes, who were subjugated by the Zulus, and they rejoice at the recovery of their independence.

The Rumors of War.

The latest advices indicate that Russia is about to make a startling move on the political chess board. The English and German press are expending a good deal of anxious speculation as to what it will be. There are strong grounds for suspicion that the Czar intends to take Napoleon's recipe for keeping a disaffected people in subjection, viz.: find somebody besides their rulers for them to fight. There is a rumor that the party in Russia which organized the war with Turkey are urging the Czar to make an attack on Austria, in which all the Sclavonic principalities will join and will be aided by Denmark, Sweden and Norway. The recent visit of the Czarowitch to Stockholm, and the haste with which Prince Labanoff was sent to the Porte last week, tend to give credibility to this. It is also said in England that Russia has ulterior designs upon China. "The more successfully," says the Morning Post, "we keep Russia at arm's length from India, the more she is driven against China." The recent bargain between Russia and the Chinese, for the province of Kuldja is cited as a dangerous taste of victory for the Czar. The English seem to think now that the Muscovite bear has tasted one drop of the blood of that fat, sluggish sheep, China, nothing will content him but the whole carcass, and Russia, with China as a tributary, would be as dangerous a rival as Russia with India.

Confirmed.

The Times' Rangoon correspondent confirms the report of the departure of the British resident from Mandalay. Cruelties continue to be perpetrated by the king of Burmah.

Indian News.

A dispatch from Rangoon says: It is generally believed that orders have been sent to the acting resident of Mandalay, Burmah, to leave with his party as soon as he can do so without betraying undignified haste or any appearance of fear. This measure will give general satisfaction, as no intercourse now exists between the residency and the Burmese court, without running any risk for the acting resident. He has not been treated with more discourtesy than was shown to the resident, but the ordinary civilities and situations due the representative of the British Government been studiously withheld, and his presence has no effect in checking the cruelties still practiced by the court. It is possible that the acting resident may think it less dangerous to remain quiet than to leave, but it is not probable. The actual risk to members of the residency is only slight, still some risk is inevitable, as long as the King continues his drinking orgies, surrounded by young advisers, too ignorant and hot-headed to appreciate the danger of war with England.

The Burmese were reported to be delighted at the departure of Col. Browe, British resident, declaring that they only desired to be left alone to pursue their own policy without the interference of foreigners.

South Afghan News.

Advices from Cape Town to the 2d inst., report that King Cetewayo was to embark at Port Dunford for Cape Town.

Sir Garnet Wolseley was expected at Utrecht on the 6th inst.

Exhibition Opened.

His Excellency Lord Augustus Loftus, opened the industrial exhibition, at Sydney, New South Wales, to-day. Great enthusiasm prevailed.

European Notes

The insurrection in Kurdistan has not yet been quelled. Two powerful tribes have joined Abdullak, with 12,000 men. The commanders of Erzeroum and Bagdad have been ordered to send all the available troops to Mosul. It is feared the Persian Turkomans will join the insurgents.

A Berlin correspondent reports that after the return of Emperor William from Alexandre, Prince Bismarck presented to him a memorial demonstrating that it was absolutely necessary for Germany to support Austria against Russia in the east. The Emperor endorsed the views set forth in the memorial.

A dispatch from Peeth says: The floor of a synagogue at Czolrok, near Mureas, gave way, yesterday, owing to overcrowding. Eighteen women were killed and eight seriously injured.

A Vienna dispatch states that Andrassy's newspaper organ declares that Austria would be neutral in case of a war between Germany and France.

A Madrid correspondent telegraphs: El Liberal states that government intends to propose at the next session of the Cortes, the emancipation of slaves, to take effect next year, with a long term of compulsory service to compensate the owners.

The secession of Marshal Serrano from the Sagasta party is confirmed.

A meeting on the land question was held at Tipperary, Ireland, yesterday, at which 18,000 persons were present. Resolutions were passed calling for an abatement of rents and the establishment of the peasant proprietary system.

The Russian Gazette reports that the city of Serpurchoff was nearly destroyed by fire on the 15th inst. There have also been conflagrations in Torsok and surrounding districts.

A Constantinople dispatch says: The man who endeavored to force his way into the garden of the Palace on Wednesday last, and in the attempt wounded three soldiers, was subsequently shot by Nizams. He was a Roumanian. A demand for the surrender of the man's brother has been refused by the Roumanian representative.

Bismarck has arrived in Vienna. It is reported from Janina that Albanians are arriving there daily with the object of fighting the Greeks. They are under the impression that Janina has been ceded to Greece. They number already 9,000 and are amply provided with firearms.

The strike in Staffordshire has been ended by the masters yielding.

The North German Gazette says: As the Emperor's stay at Metz may be short, and his time fully occupied with military manœuvres, the intention of dispatching envoys from neighboring countries to salute him has been abandoned.

A correspondent at Vienna says: It is understood that the conference between Bismarck and Andrassy was mutually satisfactory, and that the question of a written or unwritten alliance is immaterial because the conference has really resulted in the cancelling of preceding negotiations. An agreement has been made that Germany and Austria-Hungary shall firmly support each other in every event. Andrassy was authorized by the Emperor to declare at the beginning of the conference, the willingness of the Emperor to conclude a defensive alliance. Bismarck, in an interview with the Emperor, stated that the Emperor William had authorized him to make a similar declaration.

An Imperial decree summons the Austrian Reichsrath on the 7th of October.

A dispatch from Vienna says: Andrassy met Bismarck at the railway station, and accompanied him to his hotel. A crowd had been assembled there some hours, awaiting the arrival of the German Chancellor, and received him with cheers. The Austrian press give Bismarck a hearty welcome, not only as a great statesman, but as a warm friend of Austria. The German newspapers, without exception, hail the visit as the surest guarantee of European peace. The semi-official North German Gazette explains that Austria and Hungary will find this understanding between the two powers to be the best safeguard against Panslavisme Germany has in it a rear guard against coalitions for revenge, on the European assurance of peace.

The National Zeitung expresses implicit confidence in Bismarck's foreign policy, points out the propriety and necessity of an Austrian alliance, and likens the occupation of Bosnia and Herzegovina to the annexation of Alsace-Lorraine.

Talmage left Queenstown to-day, on board the Bothnia, for New York. Many friends accompanied him to the steamer.

The men of the North of England, in the iron trade, have protested against Dale's award, and demand his reasons therefor.

RUSSIA.

A Terrible Fire.

ODESSA, 22.—The Vjestnik, publishes a letter from Kiev, describing a terrible fire which occurred in that city on the 3d instant. While a furious storm was raging the fire broke out in seven different places. The offices of the fire brigade and chief of police, a gunpowder magazine and four petroleum stores were simultaneously set on fire. The whole city was wrapped in a thick, black cloud of smoke, and every now and then the people were terrified by a series of detonations and loud explosions. The entire garrison of firemen of the suburbs, and many inhabitants labored indefatigably to extinguish the fire, but despite their efforts it continued until the morning of the second day after it broke out. The loss was enormous, many lives were lost, including those of several children.

Resistance.

ST PETERSBURG, 22.—The Turkestan Gazette states that one of the chiefs of the Tekke Turcomans arrived at Merv in July last, to request the assistance of the inhabitants to repel the Russians. Fully half the Turcomans of the Merv district have promised their co-operation.

CANADA.

Loss of Grain.

MONTREAL, 22.—The propeller Albion went ashore on Lake St. Louis, west of Lachine, last night, during a fog. Only 2,500 bushels of grain, out of a cargo of 16,000 bushels, will be saved.

NOTICE.

THERE will be a meeting held in the 21st Ward Meeting House, on Wednesday evening, at half past seven o'clock, September 24th, 1879, to elect three Trustees for the next term. All taxpayers and legal voters in the 21st School District are invited to attend.
