harm. The jury in the case of the Sait Lake lee company against the Utah Packing company, which was tried in Judge Ritchie's court, last night returned a verdict in favor of defendant. The ac-tion was brought to recover a balance of $240 alleged to be due on an ice bill. It was shown that the plaintiff entered into a contract to furnish defendant with ice during last season at a stipu-lated price. When the ice famine came on it undertook to raise the price, but defendant refused to pay the increased rate so the suit was filed to collect it. The jury found that the lee company was not entitled to anything more than the contract price and returned a ver-dict for defendant.

Artificial Island for Coast Defense

The war department has determined upon plans for the building of an arti-ficial Island at the entrance to Cheas-peake bay. This island will be built up from a submerged ledge, and will be made sufficiently large to contain, besides a baltery to command the ap-proach to the bay's entrance, quarters and barracks for men and a parale ground for drill, together with suitable storehouses for provisions and am-munition which would be required for a protracted period. A part of the program is the construction of an arti-ficial harbor to decommodate the sup-ply of torpedo boats and submarines, the later to form an adjunct of the coast defense system, —H arper's Weekly. A sale of cloth suits unparalelled Saturday, Monday, Tuesday-Three days of price smashing in the ready-to-wear section, such as Salt Lake has never before witnessed.

Entire stock of cloth suits to be sacrificed.

Every one-no reserve-an absolutely comprehensive clearance of tailored suits, from the highest priced imported models, down to the least expensive ones.

Reductions mostly one half regular prices. Many a great deal less than half.

Every woman interested in wearing appearel owes it to herself to be here Saturday morning-there'll be a grand rush, and of course the early ones will enjoy the largest selection.

The styles are so clever and pretty, each garment is so well made and with the practically unlimited number to select from, it will be an event long to be remembered in this city.

Some reductions will go as high as two third off regular prices-for instance -a beautiful $165.00 suits for $50.00, another worth $145.00 to go at $60.00, with hundreds ranging from $87.50 for $40.00 down to the $30.00 ones for $15.

It's truly the suit event of this year and all previous years-we never made such a complets sacrifice before-and the season has barely started.

Saturday morning at 9 o'clock it starts-be here first.
