Bronchitis, Consumption. A Wonderful Cure.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 13th, 1874. R. V. PIERCE, M.D., Buffale, N.Y.: Dear Sir-I had suffered from Catarrh in an aggravated form for about twelve years and for several years from Bronchial trouble. Tried the extracts, while the bottles hold half more than those purporting to contain the same quantity. It is only necessary for a person of pure and healthy tastes to try these with Bronchitis in a severe form, with Bronchills in a severe form, suffering almost a total loss of voice. I returned home here, but had been home only two weeks when I was completely prostrated with hemorrhage from the Lungs, having four severe bleeding spells within two weeks, and first three within nine for at the Theatre to-night.

"It is a settled principle, your honor," said an eminent lawyer, "that causes always produce effects." "They always do for the lawyers," blandly responded the judge, "but I've sometimes know a single cause to deprive a client of all his effects."

"Weeks, and hist three within him days. In the September following, I improved sufficiently to be able to be about, though in a very feeble state. My Bronchial trouble remained and the Catarrh was tenfold worse than before. Every effort for relief seemed fruitless. I Messis. Clayton and Reamer in "He Would Be an Actor" at the Theatre to-night.
