

ROJESTVENSKY'S DEFEAT DISCUSSED

A Japanese Gives Five Cogent Reasons Why the Russians Were Beaten.

IN ONE WORD, INCOMPETENCE.

With Destruction of Czar's Naval Power Interest Centers in Military Operations on Land.

Tokio, June 2, noon.—The cardinal cause of Rojestyevsky's defeat have been the subject of general discussion here. One Japanese gives the following analysis:

"First, an imperfect reconnaissance and incomplete, faulty and misleading intelligence. Second, an imperfect battle formation, which indicated that Rojestyevsky did not expect to meet Togo off Tsushima. Third, the weather, Togo having the sun behind him and firing with the wind, while the Russians had the sunlight in their eyes and fired against the wind. Fourth, the Russians wasted their ammunition and eventually ran short. It is believed that the surrender of Rojestyevsky was necessary because his ammunition had been expended. Fifth, the marked inferiority of Russian gunnery."

Some experts criticize Rojestyevsky for essaying the Tsushima channel. Others uphold him, saying that his only chance lay in going through that channel. The impression prevails that Rojestyevsky was totally unaware of the presence of Togo's entire fleet off Tsushima.

Navy believe that it was necessary for Togo to take a station at a pivotal point from which it would be possible to intercept the Russians entering either Tsushima, Tsuruga or Suo channels. Calculations placed this pivotal point on the west coast, near the western entrance of the Tsugaru channel.

Togo's real whereabouts were known to many Japanese, but the secret was successfully guarded; another example of the willingness and ability of the Japanese to preserve military secrets.

Leaving aside the question of preparedness and superior conditions, the superiority of the personnel, fresh from 15 months' successful campaigning under all possible conditions, must be taken into consideration. Many ascribe the victory entirely to the superior marksmanship of the Japanese. Togo realizing that it would probably be necessary to fight in the open sea, gave his crews long training in firing during rough weather, with a heavy wind blowing and the ships rolling.

When the hostile fleets met, the superiority of the Japanese immediately became evident. The sinking of battleships and armored cruisers by shell fire testified to the deadly accuracy of the Japanese guns and destroys the theory that it is impossible to sink such ships by shell fire.

The attitude of Japanese naval men towards victory is curious. Togo's message to the emperor saying that the victory was the result of the emperor's superhuman influence strikes the key-note of the navy's attitude. The officers openly say that the marvelous result obtained was impossible by mere human achievement alone.

LAND OPERATIONS.

Tokio, June 2, noon.—With the destruction of Russia's naval power, interest is returning to military operations on land. Togo's victory tremendously alters the military situation and removes all limits to offensive operations against Russia's maritime provinces.

It is now possible to effectively close Vladivostok, seize Sakhalin, the mouth of the Amur river, Kamchatka and any point between Tumen river and the Arctic circle that the Japanese may desire.

ing the question with the correspondent of the Associated Press, says: "Togo's victory may drive Russia away from the Pacific coast of Asia. Japan now has a free hand in Russia's maritime provinces and her defensive capability is limited. Nothing bars the way except the Russian force at Vladivostok, whose speedy isolation is possible. The Amur river is open to Japan and Russia's defensive capability is now entirely limited to the capacity of the Chinese-Siberian railways."

NO SHIPS FOUND.

Tokio, June 2, 1905 p.m.—Admiral Togo, telegraphing yesterday, says: "The ships sent northward to search for Russian ships returned yesterday. The cruisers Iwate and Yakumo and other vessels sent southward to find Russian ships returned today. They thoroughly searched the Shanghai course from Tsushima and vicinity, but on both sides found no trace of the Russian fleet."

Admiral Shimamura, on board the cruiser Iwate, reports: "During the battle on May 27, at 3:57 p.m., the cruiser Iwate vigorously attacked the protected cruiser Jemchug at a distance of 5,000 meters. The loss of the Jemchug is therefore confirmed. During the engagement Iwate broke out on the Jemchug and smoke concealed the hull of the vessel. Consequently the remainder of our fleet were unable to see the ship."

Rojestyevsky Resting Well.

Tokio, June 2, 10:45 a.m.—Rear Admiral Rojestyevsky is resting well with no dangerous symptoms and his speedy recovery seems certain. The officers of the Russian battleship Orel have declined to accept parole. They have been given an additional day to further consider the question.

PRESIDENT TALKS PEACE WITH RUSSIAN AMBASSADOR

Washington, June 2.—The president today struck a blow for peace in the far east. In conference at the White House this afternoon with Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, he expressed the earnest wish that Russia would forthwith conclude peace with Japan. Prolongation of the war, he believes, will not result in victory for the Russian army, and can only serve to increase Japan's demands and render more difficult the task of securing a peace which the czar as well as the militsia can sign.

It was the ambassador's firm opinion that this was the "psychological moment" in which to discuss peace with Japan.

Whatever might be the ultimate decision of the government, he took the ground that Russia could lose nothing either by waiting or by continuing the war on land. There was hope yet of a victory for the Russian army, and in any event Russia had not yet lost one foot of territory, nor was the Russian frontier endangered.

Weaver Asks for Resignations.

Philadelphia, June 2.—At the request of Mayor Weaver, Alexander Colville, Jr., resigned director of public safety, and William H. Baker, assistant director of public works, handed in their resignations today and were immediately discharged by the mayor.

Former police magistrate, to fill the position vacated by Mr. Colville, and Thomas L. Hicks, a former postmaster of this city, took the oath of office as directors of the department of public works.

The salaries of the assistant directors are $4,000 a year.

Turners of other changes are still in circulation. Mayor Weaver has announced that from now until the end of his term he is going to run his administration on a business basis. Strictly business is to be practiced in all departments under his jurisdiction, and all employees not necessary in the proper conduct of the city's affairs will have to resign.

ADM'L NEBOGATOFF IN GREAT DISFAVOR

With Naval Authorities the Feeling Against Him Runs Very High

CANNOT FORGIVE SURRENDER.

Not Impossible that Barbarous Precedent Set by Nicholas I May be Followed.

St. Petersburg, June 3, 3:55 a.m.—Feeling in the admiralty against Rear Admiral Nebogatoff continues to run high, the majority of the naval authorities being deaf to the appeals of the few who insist that the admiral's action in surrendering his warships should not be condemned until the circumstances became fully known. The majority say they could forgive anything but surrender, and point to the president set in the case of the Russian warship Rurik, which, in 1903, during the Russo-Turkish war, struck its colors to three Turkish ships which surrounded it.

Nicholas I meted out a terrible punishment to the officers and crew of the Rurik, ordering that all of them should be shot after their exchange, and directing that if the ship should ever be recaptured its infamous history should be blotted out by the total destruction of the vessel.

The Rurik, strange to say, was recaptured 24 years later at Shimon, during the Crimean war, a son of the captain who surrendered her taking part in the battle, and to this son fell the task of executing the dead emperor's orders to destroy her. Many naval authorities declare that the emperor should reserve the same fate for Admiral Nebogatoff.

While hope for the safety of the protected cruisers Oleg and Aurora has been generally abandoned, some of the naval authorities believe it possible that their commanders, realizing that the feet had been practically destroyed and that Vladivostok as a harbor of refuge would only prove a death trap, in the end, laid their course either for Nikolai, at the mouth of the Amur river, or for Petropavlovsk, in Kamchatka.

There is plenty of coal at both places to replenish the bunkers of the cruisers. The ships could then escape across the Pacific and either be interned in the United States or return by way of Cape Horn. One reason why the Aurora may elect to go to Petropavlovsk is that her commander married a Kamchatkan woman, and is thoroughly familiar with the waters of that coast.

The Novoe Vremya has taken up the suggestion of Admiral Avellan, head of the Russian admiralty department, that the disaster to the Russian fleet does not necessarily mean the collapse of the campaign in the far east, as a text for an article preaching a vigorous prosecution of the war on land to the bitter end.

The radical paper, Synostrehtva, did not appear Friday, it having gone beyond the privilege of criticism accorded to the newspapers in this hour of disaster to an extent which exceeded the tolerance of the authorities. The paper attempted to print over 11 solid columns of rabid criticism and anti-government tirade. A few copies have been printed for private circulation and they show little but white paper discolored by column rules, with one large space surrounded by a significant black border.

A DROWNING ACCIDENT.

Young Man Loses His Life in Portland Fair Grounds.

Portland, Or., June 2.—Guid's lake, the beautiful sheet of water within the Lewis and Clark exposition grounds, was today the scene of a drowning of a young man, a young man employed by a pleasure-boat concession com-

New Nerve Force Needed in the Spring!

When you do not sleep well—when you are nervous—when you are dull, moody and dejected, "tired most of the time"—you need new nerve force. Paine's Celery Compound gives you new nerve force and health—the health that always makes you at your best—bright, hopeful, happy and ambitious health—that makes life worth living.

The health that gives you sound sleep—to wake up refreshed in the morning—to know the joy of good work—to have steady nerves—to relish a good meal.

This is true health—the whole system working in such perfect harmony that you think no more about it than a child thinks of it.

Paine's Celery Compound is a real food for the nerve centers. Instead of simply encouraging the nerves to burn themselves up, it feeds them, and builds the entire nerve fabric.

The force sent out by the nerves when they are healthy and strong and acting as they should is nature's stimulus, to keep all the organs of the body working well. It is in this wise, gentle way that Paine's Celery Compound works all its wonders.

She Needed New Nerve Force.

"Following a severe attack of La Grippe my general health seemed to be seriously affected. I suffered from constant nervous headaches and was so unstrung that everything irritated me until I was in a precarious condition. I also was troubled with sleeplessness and would rise in the morning more weary than I went to bed. As medicine did not seem to help me, my doctor advised a complete change, but as I was unable to go away, a neighbor advised me to try Paine's Celery Compound. I used it faithfully for a week, feeling that I daily grew better and stronger and my health kept gradually improving until I had used three and a half bottles, when I was in perfect health, with no trace of my former troubles. A number of my friends saw what Paine's Celery Compound had done for me and have used it since and they all feel as pleased with results as I am."—Yours very truly, Mrs. L. F. Mulroy, Fifth and Mercer Sts., Seattle, Wash. (Treas. Skagway Country Club.)

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

The celebrated nerve vitalizer and tonic

If you ask a druggist for a bottle of Paine's Celery Compound and he sells you a counterfeit and an imitation and tells you it is just as good or better, he is trying to deceive you. He is trying to substitute an unknown article for a known product because he will make a few cents more out of your innocence. In his mind the question of real merit does not enter into the transaction—but the question of a few cents does.

When you ask for Paine's Celery Compound see that you get the real Paine's Celery Compound, with the picture of the bunch of celery on the bottle.

SHEA'S TEN THOUSAND DOLLAR STORY FLATLY DENIED

Chicago, June 2.—Indictments connected with the teamsters' strike have been voted by the grand jury and will be returned in Judge Barker's court tomorrow.

The names of the men indicted could not be ascertained this afternoon. It was reported, however, that bills would be filed in connection with the charge made by President Shea of the Teamsters' union that he was offered $10,000 to call a strike against Scott, Roebuck & Co.

It was found that the statement of the grand jury this afternoon, and the evidence given was largely of a character. It was rumored that some indictments would be based on the charge of conspiracy to injure the business of a number of large concerns, and it was also said that some indictments would be for perjury. There was nothing definite, however, in any of these statements.

Robert J. Thorne, general manager for Montgomery Ward & Co., was before the grand jury this afternoon, and while denying absolutely all knowledge of the $10,000 said to have been offered to Shea and other labor leaders, declared that he did not even know Shea at the time the alleged offer of $10,000 was made. He said he first met Shea in April, 1904, and before that time had never seen him.

This evidence is in direct opposition to that offered by Shea and Albert Young, ex-president of the Teamsters' union.

ATTY-GEN. MOODY AFTER JUDGE WM. B. GILBERT

Washington, June 2.—The designation by Judge William B. Gilbert of the Ninth circuit, of Judge DeHaven of the Northern district of California, as presiding judge in the trial of the land fraud cases in Oregon, has led to some embarrassment among officials here.

The recent death of Judge Bellinger, who was to have tried these cases, caused a vacancy in the Oregon district. It practically had been determined by the president and attorney-general that Judge Hunt, United States judge in Oregon, should succeed Judge Bellinger in the trial, and that the appointment of Judge Bellinger's successor should not be made until after the trial.

At this point, Judge Gilbert, exercising authority which he supposed he had, directed that Judge DeHaven should try the cases. This was done by telegraph to the department of justice, and a telegram was sent to Judge Gilbert by Atty-Gen. Moody inquiring by what authority he directed Judge DeHaven to act in the trial.

Thus far no reply has been received to that telegram. What the result of the situation will be is uncertain, and whether the action of Judge Gilbert will be overruled may depend on the reply he makes to the attorney-general's inquiry.

Los Angeles Anti Prohibition.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 2.—By a vote of 15,000 to 8,000, a special election today, Los Angeles voted down the prohibition ordinance and declared for the open saloon. Much public interest was taken in the election, and nearly the full vote of the city was polled.

The prohibitionists partially attribute their defeat to the money spent by the liquor interests and the lack of harmony in the ranks of the temperance reformers.

Rattlesnake Kills Child.

Pacoma, Wash., June 2.—The 5-year-old daughter of John Temple, a farmer near Pacoma, died in great agony this morning from the bite of a rattlesnake. The child was bitten Thursday morning, and although doctors were called promptly they were unable to relieve her.

Peculiar Case of Coma.

New York, June 2.—A peculiar case of coma accompanying cerebral spinal meningitis is reported in Yonkers where Joseph Campi, the six-year-old son of a contractor, has slept 58 days. All efforts to arouse him have failed but the doctors believe that if he survives, a few days more they will succeed in dissolving a blood clot on the brain and save him.

The boy fell ill directly after he had eaten a hearty supper. That night he lay in bed unconscious and his right eye has gone blind and he has been fed through a tube.

His spine has been covered with an oil and applications are constantly made. The lads weight has fallen from 67 to 25 pounds.

Like Finding Money.
Finding health is like finding money—so think those who are sick. When you have a cough, cold, sore throat, or chest irritation, better act promptly like W. C. Barker, of Sandy Level, Va.

He says: "I had a terrible chest trouble caused by smoke and coal dust on my lungs; but, after finding no relief in other remedies, I was cured by Dr. King's New Discovery, for Consumption, Coughs and Colds." Greatest relief of any cough or lung medicine in the world. At Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept. 50c and $1.00 bottles. Trial bottle free.
