THEATRICAL.—"The Idiot of the Mill," and the "Dead Shot" went off well on Saturday evening and the audience was evidently pleased with the performances. Tomorrow, Madame Scheller appears again in one of her greatest characters, as "Pauline" in Bulwer's ever popular play of "The Lady of Lyons," in which she made such a deep impression on the third night of her engagement here. We have heard many of our people express the wish to see Madame Scheller again in this character. Her engagement expires with the close of this week, as she has accepted an engagement with Manager Langrishe at Helena, Montana. Madame Scheller has played the character of "Pauline" with eminent success in all the principal theatres in the East, and a New York critic gave her "Pauline" in many points the preference over that of Helen Faucit, in London, the original "Lady of Lyons." Those who wish to see Bulwer's play well performed, with a good cast, should visit the Theatre to-morrow evening.

SALT LAKE CITY, July 27, '96.
My Dear Public:—Are you bothered with locusts? You are, eh? Well, my dear friend, you needn't harbor them or encourage them about his premises as they will leave instantly. If you should not happen to have a thing as a cannon about you, build a small fire of green weeds on the windward side of your fruit when the sun is warm, (it will not work in the evening,) and let the smoke ascend quietly into their nostrils and they will change their base. I believe if all in the city would adopt this course at once, we could relieve the crops in sixty minutes. Try it.
Very respectfully,
VIATOR.

ENLARGED.—The Montana Daily Post comes to us enlarged to a twenty-eight column sheet, and much improved in appearance. This change is promised as the precursor of a still further enlargement and the appearing in a new dress. The Post is a cleverly edited and well-handled paper, and is rapidly growing. It is one of our most welcome exchanges.

FROM RICH CO.—Hon. C. C. Rich, writing from Paris, on the 16th, says: "Myself and family are tolerably well, as are the people generally. Our crops look pretty fair. We have suffered but little as yet with grasshoppers. At present I think our prospects good to raise a sufficiency to sustain our settlements. We have been blessed with fine showers of rain, which are not only beneficial to our crops, but to the hay and range generally."

TELEGRAMS.—We are indebted to President Young for the following telegrams:

President B. Young:
I saw the crops at Franklin and Richmond yesterday. They are not badly injured. The fourth loss at Smithfield. I have examined the wheat about Logan which is better than was first supposed. The south end of the valley has suffered severely. Most of the hoppers are gone.
PETER MAUGHAN.
St. George, July 27.

President B. Young:
On Saturday at half past four, p.m., a tremendous flood came down the wash north of the factory, which carried E. Snow's old mill entirely away. Easton Kelsey's family of wife and three children barely escaped by running out of the house. The hollowest part of the factory, is now sixty feet wide and fifteen feet deep, and is cut within seven feet of the cotton house. The flood lasted until dark. The factory is not hurt.
J. BIRCH.

TO MILL CREEK.—Presidents B. Young and D. H. Wells, Elder George Q. Cannon, Bishops R. T. Burton and Nathan Davis, and some others, paid a visit yesterday to Mill Creek Ward and held meetings there. At the outskirts of the city the President was met by company of cavalry from Mill Creek, as an escort and a number of children, apparently from the 3d ward Sunday School, were ranged on the opposite side of the road to greet him. Passing down to where the road turns off to the Mill Creek Ward House, the sides of the road were lined with people; and further on were the Sunday School scholars with banners and motes. The Ward House was crowded by a deeply interested congregation; and the meeting was called to order soon after ten o'clock. President Young occupied the time in the forenoon, with a discourse replete with counsel and instruction to the people. The Ward choir and the choir from South Cottonwood made melody on the occasion. After enjoying the hospitality of Bishop Miller, and returning to the meeting house, the afternoon meeting commenced shortly after 2 o'clock; when President Wells, Elder George Q. Cannon, Bishop Burton and Elder David Day were the speakers, followed by a few remarks from President Young. The building was decorated with the banners borne by the school children; and among the mottoes on them were, "Zion shall rise and prosper;" "Honor to whom honor is due;" "The hope of Israel;" "We leave our work, our school, our play, to welcome Brigham, any day;" "Zion's fair daughters;" "Education is our motto;" etc. The walls of the building were also adorned with evergreens.

The meetings were very interesting, and much of the good Spirit was enjoyed by those present.

The party arrived in the city about six in the evening.

GOING EAST.—F. T. Ferris, Esq., of the firm of Cronyn & Ferris, purposes starting east again about the 15th proximo, to buy goods for the firm and fill commission orders. Mr. Ferris is one of our most energetic business men and has given complete satisfaction in his commission purchases.

HIS FATE.—On Tuesday afternoon an Irishman, who had made himself known previously in Morgan County by trying to collect debts without reference to bills of sale, called at a lone house about a mile from Enterprise, in that county, and endeavored to commit a rape upon the wife of the man whose residence it is. The woman fought and screamed, and her little girl ran to the settlement for help, which she obtained, but before it arrived the villain had decamped. A hunt was instituted and he was captured on Wednesday morning, but denied knowing anything of the matter. He tried to escape, but was recaptured. When he was brought to the town and the lawman told him, he confessed that he was the man. Being having him in charge determined to take him before the nearest Justice, and for this purpose got him in a wagon and started; but on the way, near Peterson's blacksmith shop, he jumped out of the wagon, down the dug-way, and dived into the river, coming up about fifty yards from where he went in. Several shots were fired at him, and he dived again, this time coming up about a hundred yards from where he went down. A couple of pistol shots were again fired at him, when he threw his arms and legs out of the water, went down, and was not seen after.

SWEETWATER MINES.—We had a call on Saturday from Enos D. Hoge, Esq., who arrived in this city from Sweetwater on Friday evening. Mr. Hoge says that times at present are very dull at the mine, but the prospects are that they will be bricker before long. One quartz mill is already in operation there, and more are expected this Fall. Mr. Hoge thinks there is no doubt about the richness of the quartz leads, but he thinks there is little prospect of extensive placer diggings being found. The country, like all mining countries in which quartz leads prevail, is no poor man's country. The alluvial soil, he says, is very fertile, for every day, in the height of summer, it is only in the middle of the day that a "duster" is comfortable; early and late thicker clothing is necessary.
