LOCAL BRIEFS.

Jonathan Rae has sold his Shire colt Governor Will, to J. W. Valentine and fund to the abutting property owners on west South Temple street, in accordance with the petition of Joseph F. Smith et al, the sum of about $10,000, which was collected by the city above the amount needed for the paving of the street.

The municipal laws committee recommended that the city auditor and the city engineer report to the council the amount of money now in the special fund for the paving of west South Temple street over and above the actual cost of the work and which is ready to be refunded to the abutting property owners on that street. The amount in the fund is $14,893.43, but of that amount $4,750 is being held to await the result of the suit brought by the paving company against the city to recover that amount which was mposed as a penalty upon the company for failure to complete the work within contract time. Not including that amount, there is something over $10,000 ready to be refunded, at the present time. The report of the com-mittee was adopted, and as soon as the properties of the combine the two off reports are received from the two offi-cials the money will be refunded.

MORE WIRES.

Hartenstein's resolution was adopted equiring Alan L. Lovey to execute a bond in the sum of $5,000 to indemnify he city against all damages that may be done by reason of the messenger wires being strung through the city by him, pursuant to a resolution grant-ing him that privilege passed by the council a week ago.

A STRANGE DEPARTURE. Miss Rosa G. Meyer Leaves Her Home

For Parts Unknown. Miss Rosa E. Meyer, daughter of Mr. owing to Sunday School union on the 16th. and Mrs. Fred Meyer of this city, is causing her parents no little uneasiness concerning her whereabouts. Miss Meyer left her comfortable home here early in April, with the remark that she was tired of home life and wanted to earn a living for herself. The theory that perhaps she has eloped has been advanced, but the girl's moth-er says she knows nothing of any engagement, although her daughter might nave been keeping company with some-one without her knowledge. Rosa, she snys, was always of a taciturn disposition, and her affairs were known to very few of her friends. One of the latter, however, claims to have infor-mation that would strengthen the the-ory that she has gone off on a wedding torm but of the ite more the heading tour, but of this the parents know nothing. The Meyers live at 929 east Second South street, and the father is now in New York, although his visit is said to have nothing to do with his daughter's absence.

THE BOOK OF RUTH.

Analysis and Reading of the Beautiful Story by Mrs. Maycock. The most notable event of the week at the Latter-day Saints' university, occurred yesterday in the school assembly. The program consisted of the analysis and reading of the Book of Ruth by Mrs. Rena Baker Maycock. The reading was Rena Baker Maycock. The reading was artistic and impressive, the analysis clear and scholarly. The famine in Pal-estine, the journey of Allmelech to the land of Moab, the lights of poer rela-tives under the Mosale code, the mean-ing of "the gates of the city"-these and similar topics were first briefly pre-sented Then an analysis was given of the beautiful story, which was charac-terized as the loveliest idy! in all liter-ature, the gem of the stories that affect to portray the trust beauty in woman-ly character, the s rength and worth of woman's devolion; a story peaceful, sim-ple in style and p.it, yet herole and ro-mantic, teaching the power of love by the example of its herolne. Ruth, the true woman of hearth and home. Then the larger part of the book was read, and so was made to speak for itself in its rare expressions and circumstances of pathos and sweetness. The reading was closely followed and was very much ap-preciated. Three choice musical selections on the guitar by a former student, Wai-ter Smith, and brief remarks by Elder Gardiner of Nebo stake, completed the proceedings. artistic and impressive, the analysis
