ILLINOIS.

A tornado-A wife beater hug-Dissatisfied with Butler-Resigned-Some thing about naturalization.

CHICAGO, 6.—A terrible tornado passed over a portion of South Chicago, Ill., on Saturday, destroying orchards and crops and blowing down trees and fences for miles; there was no loss of life as far as heard from.

CHICAGO, 7.—At Medoca, Ill., a few days since, Dr. Taylor brutally beat his wife, leaving her for dead; he fled to the woods, but the neighbors pursued and captured him and delivered him to the sheriff, but while taking him to jail the mob hung him. His wife still survives.

The Tribune's Washington special says there is great dissatisfaction on the part of several members of the reconstruction committee, with the course pursued by Butler, in failing to report the Georgia bill, as he had been instructed to do. He has made show of offering to bring it up on one or two occasions, but not at a time when he had a right to do so, and when objection carried it over. It is the understanding among some of his associates that he is delaying it with a deliberate purpose of preventing action on the bill at this session.

Assistant Attorney-General Fields, it is understood, has resigned his position, and will return to practice his profession in Boston on the 1st of July.

The Times' special says the Republican members of the House Judiciary committee have for some time agreed to report a bill taking the power of naturalization out of the hands of the State courts and placing it in the control of the Federal courts; and that it is the intention to report and pass this measure the last of this week. The Democratic members are prepared, to fiercely assail it, regarding it as a partisan scheme to reach the enforcement bill. The New York City members regard it as a virtual attempt to wrest New York City from Democratic control.

TENNESSEE.

Look out for voters.

NASHVILLE.—Gov. Senter declares that he will veto any bill which may pass the legislature, repudiating or declaring any bonds illegally issued to railroads; he says that he never issued any bonds to railroads without first getting the opinion of the Attorney General of the State.

TEXAS.

German Festival.

GALVESTON.—Extensive preparations are being made at Houston for a German festival, which takes place there to-morrow and Thursday; the question as to whether negroes shall be admitted has been decided in the negative.

NEW YORK.

War Declared—$1,000,000 Fund.—Died of War Injury.—Authentic Information of the Jewish Massacre.—The London "Times" and the Erie Difficulty.—Turkish Brigands Captured.

NEW YORK.—War has been declared between the New York Central and the Erie; the tickets of the latter will not be received on the Central. Negotiations are pending between the Erie and Penna. roads for an alliance.

A new tunnel under Bergen Hill is to be constructed, 4,000 feet long, at a cost of a million dollars.

Mrs. Annie Holmes was thrown down a hundred stairs of the Jersey heights by her drunken husband, on Saturday; she died of her injuries yesterday.

Private despatches from McCremux, Pres. of the Jewish Alliance in Paris, say of the reported massacre in Roumania, that the Jews are expelled, plundered and horribly maltreated, with numbers wounded and some probably killed. This is the first authentic intelligence received of these outrages.

The London Times of the 25th ult., says some persons in Amsterdam, holding a sectional interest in the affairs of the Atlantic and Great Western railroad, have put forward a plan of settlement in opposition to that just issued in London, by the President of the line. As it has been the constant aim of the Erie people to get small numbers of individuals, by new proposals, to distract the general body from adopting any scheme that might interfere with their proceedings, this movement should be regarded with the greatest suspicion. The plan of the President contemplates the nomination of General McClellan, Mr. Duncan, of Duncan, Sherman and Co., and Senator Sherman, to control the property, and with these names before them, calculated to inspire confidence, it would be strange if the creditors of the company were to pay attention to any inferior representations.

Letters from Yanina, Turkey, report that a band of brigands in that district, formed of twenty-seven men, who belonged to Bashe Bassauls, is now disbanded; a body of troops were sent to hunt them and the local authorities and inhabitants rendered every assistance. Two chiefs were taken alive with five of their comrades; fourteen were killed by the troops.

WASHINGTON.

Municipal Election.

At the election for mayor the total vote was nearly seventeen thousand; Bowen, republican, was elected, also two aldermen and five councilmen, two of the latter of the Democratic party, and the Emery men have a large majority in the Council and the board of Aldermen.

CALIFORNIA.

Chinamen shipped for New Orleans—Elections in the West.

SAN FRANCISCO, 7.—The revenue cutter Wayanda returned from an unsuccessful search for the runaway British ship William Wilson.

B. J. Dorsey shipped a hundred and fifty Chinamen, yesterday, for New Orleans, to work on the plantations.

The entire Democratic State ticket has probably been elected.

In Oregon the Republicans claim the member to Congress from the Legislature, but it is doubtful, as the indications are that there is a Democratic majority of from five to eight.

Garfield, a Republican, has been elected to Congress from Washington Territory.

FOREIGN NEWS.

TURKEY.

The big fire.

CONSTANTINOPLE, evening.—The conflagration has been checked. Though the flames are still raging fiercely at some points they cannot spread, as the houses have been blown up. The loss is immense. The burned district is one of the wealthiest quarters of the city. All the archives and plate of the British legation were saved.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Went to hear counsel for the Fenians—Emigrants for Canada—Fenian panic—New hospital.

LONDON.—The amnesty commission has refused to hear counsel for the Fenian prisoners.

The transitor Crocodile will take 300 dockyard people to Canada.

A panic prevails at Newcastle-on-Tyne, relative to the Fenians, it having been reported that they threatened to seize the castle. Guards have been set and precautionary measures taken.

The news is meagre as the telegraph lines are still deranged in some directions, particularly in Ireland.

LIVERPOOL.—Yesterday evening Lord Derby laid the corner stone of a new hospital in this city; appropriate speeches were made by Lord Derby and other celebrities.

ITALY.

Prelates disgusted.

ROME.—The Augsburg Gazette says that the American delegate to the Ecumenical Council shows a growing disinclination to the infallibility dogma, and are disgusted with the sophistry and sycophancy of its advocates.

FRANCE.

Small Pox in Paris—The Emperor Rheumatic.

PARIS.—There were seventy-three deaths from small pox in the city of Paris last week.

The Emperor is reported to be suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

Owing to long continued dry weather fire in the woods have occurred quite frequently throughout Europe, and have been lately attended, in many cases, with loss of life and property. Yesterday, a fire occurred in the beautiful forest of Fontainebleau, only a few miles from this city, sweeping over hundreds of acres; the people turned out and succeeded in checking the flames.

The Paris journals are attacking M. Ollivier for his course toward the party of the Left.

GERMANY.

Commercial Stagnation.

FRANKFURT, ON THE MAINE.—What is known as the dead season has fairly set in commercial circles here. A few transactions have been made in mortgage bonds, and there is but little else doing.

The following, from Don Platt's Washington correspondence to the Cincinnati Commercial, will be read with interest by our readers:

WASHINGTON, May 19, 1870.

CRAGIN'S HOWL.

We had in the Senate Chamber, last night, a prolonged howl from the venerable Cragin, on the subject of Mormonism—its evils and remedies. Senator Cragin was afflicted. Senator Cragin felt his chaotic soul stirred to its innermost depths by this foul blot on American civilization. That one man should have an assortment of wives filled the virtuous Cragin with wrath and disgust. And so the lofty and chaotic Senator lifted his voice in anger and addressed no end of Senators and spectators, who keep mistresses, reminding one of Southey's old story of the philanthropist who remonstrated with his neighbor for that he cleaned his chimneys by scraping them with live geese. "And what do you use?" asked the amazed neighbor. "Ducks," was the response.

The intelligent and fair Cragin began with the Mountain Meadow Massacre, and traveled down through all the crimes imputed by slander to these poor Mormons for twenty-five years. One would feel ashamed, if any shame were left after so many such exhibitions in the Senate, at this show of ignorant prejudice and blind fury.

At the elbow of this vociferous specimen of Senatorial chaffery sat a Senator from one of the new States, who amused a dinner party the night before by an account of his constituents: "When you go to take hell from supper till daylight, you could not get together such a collection of unmitigated scoundrels. All the Penitentiaries of the Union vomited their contents on our devoted lands. We had criminals escaping conviction and convicts escaping punishment. All disguise and thin pretense were thrown off, and crime became distinction. If a man, comparatively speaking, came among us with the reputation of a conscience, or a self of character, he was forced, in self-defense, to appear wicked as the rest, and could find security only in the desperation that made crime a boast and infamy a road to favor. They murdered Indians in the name of the whites, and whites in the name of the Indians. The honor heretofore recognized among thieves ceased to exist, and a scoundrel was safe only in the readiness to rob, steal from and murder his brother scoundrel. These are our pioneers—these the founders of our empire."

And yet over this world of iniquity, the eloquent Cragin floated with his eyes shut, to attack a community of people who, however bigoted and ignorant, are yet moral, orderly, and law abiding. It is the concurrent testimony of all, friend or foe, that the moment one passes into Utah from an adjoining Territory, the fact is made patent by the quiet cleanliness, order, and kindness of the people. Yet over the half civilized and iniquitous territories, our armies are to march in a raid upon these poor fanatics.

It is no exaggeration to say, that for every Mormon crime named by the chaotic and virtuous Cragin, one hundred can be recorded as done by the very people on the border he would have to use as volunteers in his war.

But this polygamy is a fearful thing. It is a twin relic of barbarism, and the Republican party is pledged to its annihilation. The Republican party is pledged to a good deal that remains yet unfinished. It is pledged to an economical and honest administration of the Government, and yet, while this St. Joseph looks far over the continent to pick out a handful of poor fanatics to punish, under his Senatorial nose the most abominable extravagance and corruption go on unrebuked. Thieves and swindlers, pimps and lewd women, swarm through the corridors like Norway rats about a granary, each bent upon filling its maw with the hard earnings of an over-taxed people. The accumulated capital of the country, in the hands of a few principled monopolists, has turned our Government into a huge machine to ride down and crush out the mechanic, farmer and laborer.

Pledges of the Republican party! I like that. To sit in the galleries of either House and listen to the quarrels and abuse below sounds like pirates fighting over their plunder.

And what makes the matter more aggravating is that every piece of rascality is sugar-coated with the nasty cant of religion and morality. Whenever a Solon rises to his feet and says solemnly, "In the name of God—amen," you may bet your inner greenback that he has hid under his coat-tail some infernal swindle.

I have not the patience to listen to or to argue with these people, for that I know that they are not sincere, and there is, therefore, no justice or reason to which one can appeal. Now that polygamy is brought in immediate contact with the Christian civilization, to say that in its suppression we must appeal to the criminal enactment and the bayonet, instead of reason and the Bible, is to say that our civilization is a failure, and our moral teachers impotent huggers. Already the intelligence reaches us of discontent that culminates in serious division in the Church. For the Government, after twenty years' toleration, to attempt to suppress the evil that comes of ignorance, is to heal the dissection and unite the Mormons. As in the Territory all are free to express their opinions—and as none are held in duress or suppressed by force, the interference of the Government is unequal for and unwise.

There is an inside history to this bill which ought to be ventilated. It is understood that a majority of the committee to which it was referred in the Senate are opposed to the unconstitutional provisions. But it never was discussed in committee previous to Senator Cragin and Howard's unauthorized report. I get the fact from Senator Schurz, who attended every meeting for the purpose of discussing the absurd clauses introduced by Cragin. Finding that the inquiry would be delayed, and perhaps defeated by such considerations, Cragin and Howard stole the bill out, and reported it to the Senate as the bill of the committee. That such larceny and lying should pass unrebuked, only proves the utter demoralization of this once imposing body. I asked Senator Nye, who is chairman of the committee, and he told me that the bill had never been under consideration previous to report, but that an informal vote had been taken outside the committee-room, and that Cragin and Howard had carried the measure—Senator Schurz not voting. The fact is, the privilege never was accorded him, the committee being afraid of the clear-headed and impartial Senator from Missouri. These timid gentlemen are not done with him yet.
