

Thanks from Edward W. Tullidge.

Editor Deseret News:

Permit me, through your journal, to return my sincere thanks for the generous patronage extended to me in the first presentations of "Oliver Cromwell." I am also under many obligations to the management of the Theatre, and deem it my duty to return special thanks to Mr. Vinson, to whose artistic direction my play owes much of its success. I am grateful to Messrs. Sawtelle, Marden, Thorne, Crosbie, Rea and Dudley; indeed to every member of the company, for each one showed an uncommon sincerity in the performance. To Miss Kate Denin, for her fine "Lady Fairfax," I am indebted beyond the expression of mere words; also to Miss Adams, Miss Cogswell, Mrs. Crosbie and Mrs. Rea for their effective and artistic renditions of their parts.

I further owe obligations to the following gentlemen:—Mr. Charles J. Thomas, leader of the orchestra, for his fine selection of music and excellent performance by himself and associates; Mr. Tirrel, for scenic effects; Mr. Edward Callister, the costumer, and also the stage carpenter and his associates.

In conclusion, I beg to tender my heartfelt thanks to the members of the press generally for their cordial support and favorable notices.

Respectfully,
EDWARD W. TULLIDGE.
