

FRAGMENTS.

Two drunks were fined $5 each yesterday.

CITY COUNCIL in regular session to-night.

An indignation meeting is said to be on the tapis. More anon.

A man named Miller was arrested yesterday for stealing a pistol.

Two Sunday selling liquor cases are before the Police Court to-day.

THE Holland Comedy Company is billed in big letters about town.

FULL description by "Homepun" of the burning of the B. Y. Academy, in another column.

SECRETARY THOMAS is suggested for (governor of Utah, by a Washington correspondent.

THE case of the people vs. Merrill and Winiger ended yesterday. Verdict of jury, "Not guilty."

Two Chinamen, for an assault on one John Walsh, were interviewed by Justice Spiers this afternoon.

The third party of the Social Hall series comes off to-night. These parties are among the most enjoyable of the season.

Two Park City roughs tried, recently to run a dancing party in Heber City. They drew a knife and pistol but were disarmed and locked up.

The birth of a fine daughter, their first child, in the family of John L. Hettler, of Ogden, is the occasion of much rejoicing with the parents and their friends. Mrs. Hettler was formerly an attaché of this office.

PHILANDER, the liquor dealer who failed in this city recently, and for whom a warrant was issued last week for obtaining money and goods under false pretences, has been arrested in San Francisco.

A NEW invention, it is said, is about to be tested. It is a contrivance by which one can talk a hundred words a minute, something on the telephone. A name has not been given to it yet, but we are informed it will be called either a "Gossipphone" or "Slenderphone."

W. SEVERNS was yesterday brought to this city and lodged in the penitentiary, charged with assault with intent to kill a man in Uintah county a few days ago. Severns shot his victim with a large dragon pistol, and while the wound inflicted is not a fatal one, it is nevertheless a very serious one.

LOCAL NEWS.

Home Mission.—The regular meeting of the Home Missionaries of this State will be held in the Social Hall to-morrow, Wednesday evening, Jan. 30th, at 7 o'clock.

WILLIAM W. TAYLOR, State Clerk.

Seventies' Meeting.—In the copy handed in for publication last evening, of the meeting of the Seventies in the Social Hall, an error occurred. It should have been that they would meet February 6th, instead of which it was misstated Jan. 20th.

Collar Bone Fractured.—Last week a little four-year-old daughter of Brother H. C. Barrell, of the Thirtieth Ward, met with a painful accident. She fell accidentally against a mantel-piece and fractured her right collar bone. It was bent inward, and the operation of putting it in proper shape was attended to by Dr. Benedict. The little one is doing pretty well.

For the Southern States.—Elder B. H. Roberts, of Centerville, and Elder Harvey H. Perkins, of Bountiful Davis County, left for the Southern States at 10 o'clock this morning. The former, who has been home on a visit for a short time, returns to resume his labors as assistant to President Morgan in that mission. Brother Perkins will labor in Tennessee, one of his objects being to obtain his family genealogy.

Unity Club Entertainments.—The Unity Club is noted for the excellence of its entertainments. At the Salt Lake Theatre on Friday evening it will give a grand Leap Year Ball. A large number of invitations are already out. Among the conditions imposed in that payment of the munificent sum of 47¢ cents shall be made for each extra gentleman.

On Saturday, beginning at 2 o'clock p. m., there will be a children's party in the same building to which a general invitation is extended. The juvenile ball given in the Theatre last year, when about 900 little folks congregated and threaded the maze of the dance, is doubtless remembered by all who witnessed it as a delightful spectacle. It is intended to make that of next Saturday an equally gratifying success.

Diphtheria.—Diphtheria has not abated in Pleasant Grove. Several families are still afflicted, one child died on Saturday night, and others are very low with the same malady. A little son of Henson Walker has been in a very critical condition for several days, so low that preparations were being made for the funeral, it being advisable to inter as soon as possible after the demise. But to the joy of the household the little fellow took a radical change for the better and is now considered out of danger.

Henson Walker, Jr., has another little girl, the third one, who is not expected to live, while the father is in Arizona out of reach of mail or telegraph communication. What makes matters more sad, neighborly help has been lent that aid their desire to visit and administering to the afflicted families. One family in Provo, Second Ward, was placed under quarantine on Saturday; cause, diphtheria. Every precaution is being brought to bear to prevent the spread of the terrible scourge.

Elder Roberts' Lecture.—The lecture entitled "The Divine Mission of Joseph Smith," by Elder B. H. Roberts, of Centerville, was delivered in the Fourteenth Ward Meeting-house, last evening, to a large and appreciative audience. Presidents George Q. Cannon and Joseph F. Smith, with other prominent Elders, were on the stand with the lecturer.

The speaker has a fluent delivery, rapid but distinct, and by reason of this put his lecture into a much shorter period than is common in such cases, and this too without making the effect on the audience less than the effect on the speaker himself.

He dwelt mainly upon the prophecies of Joseph Smith, particularly those which had already been fulfilled, and in dilating upon the war between the North and the South, gave some very interesting descriptions of the battle-fields of Shiloh, Chancellorsville and the Wilderness. The speaker had the closest attention of his hearers, and almost every seat was filled.

"WHERE'S MY RUBBER?"

A man, wearing a too-disgusted-for anything-or-of-a look, snatched from the sanctum this morning, and having thrown himself into a chair, proceeded to divest himself of his head and gear with as much nonchalance as if he owned the place and had called for the rent. Crossing his legs, from each of which depended a leather-shod extremity, too large for the limited space at our disposal, and placing his elbow on his knee and his money hand under his chin, he said:

"Where's my rubber?"

"Rubber?" exclaimed the scribe, aghast in astonishment at the bare idea of rubbers of such dimensions. "How am I to know where your rubbers are?"

"Aint you the local editor of the newspaper published in this spacious building?"

"I have that honor," said the one addressed, with a smile at the word "spacious," and an ironical glance at the new comers feet, and the now crowded sanctum.

Well, that being the case, can't you— you of all men—answer the intelligent interrogation I have just propounded?"

"No, sir, I can't; besides I have something else to do than to look after either you or your rubbers. Though I suppose they could be seen where above ground, if they were anywhere above ground."

"That's just it," continued the old man. "If they're anywhere above ground. But I'm in a poor fix. You know what an awful state of mud the roads were in last evening. Well, I plodded through it after dark, all the way from Main Street to the— Ward, and after the dearest kind of a struggle I managed to get home—minus one rubber. It had stuck in the mud some where, but just where was the question."

The reporter smiled dubiously. The idea of three better enough mud for such a purpose in creation. The old man continued:

"The whole household were aroused, well it may seem a trifling loss, but really you know the loss of one rubber made the other one perfectly useless. It was every dark night, but nothing daunted, I set out to look for their pe, some three or four of my children, having lighted the lamp, proceeded on a voyage of discovery. They searched diligently and long. At last, buried deep in the mud, just as if it were part of the mud itself, the lost rubber was discovered and after great difficulty recovered."

The old man omitted to state the number of teams that were employed, but went on as follows:

"But just how many (here he fairly broke down) rubbers the children lost on their return home—for the lamp went out—I have been able to up to the present moment to find out. But, sir, that is not all. My wife had been down into the city and was detained there somewhat later than I was. When she arrived home her first words were: 'Mud? I should think so, and I have lost both of my rubbers in walking up from the car!' Now, Mr. Editor, what I want to know is, is there anybody I can sue for damages?"

"Yes," said the impatient scribe. "You can sue the City Council, weather clerk, or Governor Murray, just as you please. All we ask of you is to make this spacious office a little more so by your absence and dismiss us from all further responsibility in the premises."

Exit feet, carrying owner as fast as the law allows.

Supreme Court.—Proceedings in the Supreme Court of Utah Territory, on Monday, Jan. 28th, 1894:

The case of Alvin D. Bowers, respondent vs. the Union Pacific R. R. Co., appellant; on appeal from the First District, was argued by Arthur Brown for the respondent and Mr. Young for appellant, submitted and taken under advisement.

This is the case in which the respondent recovered $10,000 in the lower court for damages sustained in a coal mine belonging to appellant.

The case of James Ewing, respondent vs. E. A. Ireland, respondent; on appeal from First District; came on regularly for hearing, and was argued by J. N. Kimball, for appellant, and Ransford Smith for respondent. Submitted and taken under advisement.

The case of Bedell Smith, appellant, vs. E. A. Ireland, respondent; on appeal from First District; came on regularly for hearing, and was argued by J. N. Kimball for respondent, and submitted on brief by appellant. Taken under advisement.

Tuesday 29th.

John Nickles, respondent vs. Daniel H. Wells et al. appellants from Third District Court; verdict and judgment of lower court set aside, and case remanded for a new trial. Appellants recover costs.

William Brown, appellant vs. John T. Gilmer et al. respondents, from Third District Court; argued by Arthur Brown for appellant and by R. Harkness for respondent. Submitted and taken under advisement.

The McKnight-Bevis Muddle.—It was rumored about town this morning that James McKnight, defendant in the Bevis-McKnight case for assault, had skipped. In other words had left town, being unable to procure the bail required of him by the U. S. Commissioner. The amount as stated last evening, was $1,000. Mr. Arthur Brown, attorney, went security in part, and the defendant, accompanied by Deputy Sheriff McCarty, went another man to agree, to do likewise, but it being ascertained by Commissioner Sutherland that this man had no property and was therefore ineligible as a bondsman, he was rejected accordingly.

Our next defendant the third time to hunt up some one else, and we have learned that the defendant was able to give bail before Judge Hunter this morning.

There is another charge against him, that of threatening to kill, for which he was to have a hearing this morning, but he failed to make his appearance and consequently a warrant was issued for his arrest. The search of the marshal up to last accounts, had been unsuccessful.

Holland Comedy Company.—This company is billed to appear in this city shortly. It is composed of Mr. Holland, a "Dandy" in Out-American Costume, the Oregonians say:

Holland did not play the part as closely imitative of Southern as we first imagined he would do. Indeed, the strong creative power of Southern was such that the part seemed born of his brain alone. But Holland played the part with strong distinguishing features from Southern's rendition. He borrowed the hop, the flap and the snarl, but he omitted the snarl, and gave a less nervous impersonation than Southern. He was more robust, more sedate, and to all appearance, far more earnest. His laugh was more hearty, and yet there was a quiet vein of acidity pervading it which would have done credit to the lamented Alver himself. And let us take occasion here to say, as one who has far more intimate with Mr. Holland than we expect to be with Mr. Southern, that for every one who says that the comedian's rendition of the assassin actor excelled, he will see the actor fall below it a hundred times.

We regret to learn that President Angus M. Cannon has been confined to his room with chills since Sunday.

MUNICIPAL CONVENTION.

SALT LAKE CITY, January 28d, 1894.

The People's Convention of Salt Lake City is hereby called to convene at the City Hall of Salt Lake City, on Wednesday, February 1st, 1894, at 10 o'clock p. m., to nominate candidates for election at the municipal election, on Monday, the 13th of February, 1894. The Convention will consist of thirty-six delegates, allotted to the several municipal wards as follows:

- 1st Municipal Ward, comprising the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th Bishop's Wards, 7.
- 2nd Municipal Ward, comprising the 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th and 10th Bishop's Wards, 8.
- 3rd Municipal Ward, comprising the 11th, 12th and 13th Bishop's Wards, 9.

Primary meetings of registered voters of the People's Party, the election of delegates to the Convention will be held in the several municipal wards of the city, at the usual place of holding elections thereon, on Monday, February 1st, 1894, at 7:30 o'clock p. m.

Delegates should receive credentials, properly authenticated by the chair, and be present at the meeting of the convention, and be ready to take the oath of office.

Leading citizens in the several municipal wards are respectfully requested to take the initiative in carrying into effect these suggestions.

The primary meetings, that the voters may be properly notified of the time and place of holding the same, and the rights and liberties of the voters of the People's Party may be fully protected, and that the delegates chosen to the Convention may be such as will best represent the interests of the people.

ANGUS M. CANNON, L. W. HARRY, AMOS HOWE, JAMES C. WAGGON, JOHN MICHAELSON.

Municipal Central Committee of the People's Party for Salt Lake City.

PERSONAL.

W. A. Jackson, of Chicago, arrived at the Continental yesterday.

S. Koninski, of St. Louis, is a guest at the Continental.

W. S. Keeler and wife, arrived from Denver yesterday and are stopping at the Continental.

J. M. Easton, of St. Joe, Mo., arrived this morning, and is registered at the Continental.

James Dwyer went East this morning over the Denver & Rio Grande.

President W. R. Smith, of Davis Stake, was in the city this morning.

F. R. McConnell, of the U. P. Railroad, returned from Montana last night.

P. V. Williams and wife, of Butte, Montana, are in the city.

False report.—It was rumored on the street last evening that the daughter of John Hill, ice man, had shot herself. We are credibly informed this morning that there was not the slightest foundation for such a report, which must have been started by malice, mischief or stupidity. The young lady is alive and well, and we are very happy to record the fact.

DEPUTY Marshals Greenman and Sparague arrested two young men (strangers) this afternoon at the Post Office, for passing counterfeit money.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

THAT TWINGE.

Just as soon as people feel that twinge of pain which is the warning in cases of rheumatism, they should get a bottle of the sovereign remedy known as Britannia. It is taken internally, passes into the blood, cures all pains, and removes the cause of the trouble in a few hours. Three days is the longest anyone has suffered after using it, and no deaths have occurred when Britannia was taken. Sudden deliverance from both pain and stiffness, as well as follows its use. Price $2.50 per bottle. Co-op Drug Store.

COHN BROS. KID GLOVE SALE.

We offer the following bargains in Kid Gloves: Hare Brand, Three Button Opera at 25¢; five hook Black and dark shades, all sizes, at 10¢. Four-button Viciels, all shades and sizes, and six and eight inch Mouretines in black, at 11¢.

COHN BROS.

WOOL AND COTTON Hosiery.

We are now offering our entire stock of Wool and Cotton Hosiery, at 50% off. Underwear and Corsets at cost, and many styles at great sacrifice. COHN BROS.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM.

For immediate relief in rheumatism use Britannia. It is the very best remedy known in Europe or America. It radically cures the disease, and is a pure tonic. Co-op Drug Store, price $2.50 per bottle.

A RELIABLE FIRST CLASS DRUG GIFT.

Will always recommend to his customers pure and reliable medicines. There is not a drugist in this great country who does not to-day recommend Brown's Sarsaparilla and Dandelion with Iodide of Potassium, as the remedy that is curing more cases of Scrofula, Tumors, Kidney Diseases, Ulcers, Eruptions, Cancers, Boils, Constipation, Erysipelas, Sick Headache, Salt Rheum, and many other blood and kidney troubles.

Ask your druggist to show you the formula printed on each bottle, and you will see that it is the Blood, the Liver and the Kidneys that Brown's Sarsaparilla. This sterling remedy is sold by Every Druggist in Salt Lake and every dealer in Medicines in Utah. Ask them of its merits.

Always Reliable! Warranted!

From bites, inflamed sore eyes, burns, bruises, cuts and old sores, cured at once or your money refunded by your druggist. That is the positive guarantee typed on every box of Brown's Sarsaparilla. Sold by the Brown Medicine and Manufacturing Company. Only 25¢.

BUCKLEY'S AFRICA SALVE.

The greatest medical wonder of the world. Warranted to speedily cure Burns, Bruises, Cuts, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Cancer, Erysipelas, Chancres, Corns, Tetters, Chapped Hands, and all skin eruptions, guarantee to cure in every instance, or money returned. 25¢ cents per box. For sale by Z. C. M. I. Drug Store.

At certain seasons of the year nearly every person suffers to a greater or less extent from impurity of the blood, biliousness, skin eruptions, etc. This is remedied as soon as discovered, otherwise serious results may follow. Sherburne's Eucalypti Ash Bitters will effectually remove all taint of disease and restore you to health.

We offer our best quality Ladies' Scarlet Underwear at $1.50; reduced from $2.25. COHN BROS.

Are. Liane Shipp.

In teaching classes in a perfect system of cutting and fitting, dressmaking, tailoring, at reduced prices, by a new and second hand Clothing and Commission Store, half block east of the Utah House, No. 50 S. West Temple Street.

N. B.—Parties wishing to take lessons in making Wax Fruit or Flowers, can do so in the daytime or evening.

A GENUINE AFFAIR.

Our readers can rely upon it that if they have any rheumatism in the system, they can be cured. This is no fiction. A great many persons have tried it in Salt Lake City and Ogden, and others parts of Utah whose testimony can be privately obtained, and who say that it removes the disease by the cause of the pain, and restores the blood to its normal condition. It acts mildly on the bowels, and strengthens the kidneys. It gives an appetite and a relief to the stomach. Just try a bottle, and you will never want to do without it in the family medicine. Sold at Z. C. M. I. Drug Store.

We offer our entire stock of Black and Colored Silk-Straps at 50¢ per yard, regardless of cost.

COHN BROS.

COHN BROS. SILK SALE.

Our Silk Sale at Cost and Below Cost is still attracting great attention. Nothing like it was ever known here. We will continue to offer bargains in this line that will astonish our customers.

COHN BROS.

Burke's White Pine Balsam cures colds, coughs, croup, whooping cough, etc. Sold by Z. C. M. I. drug department.

MONEY TO LOAN.

Pioneer Loan and Building Association. Three doors south of Postoffice.

GLOBE BAKERY.

Go to the Globe Bakery for your holiday Cakes, tarts, Fruit, etc. They can be had pure and wholesome, at low prices.

UTAH SUGAR for sale by S. P. Teasdel and Hardy Bros. & Burton.

REDUCTION IN COAL.

Rock Springs, per ton, by car, $4.00. Rock Springs, per ton, at yard, $4.50. Red Cannon, per ton, delivered, $4.50. Red Cannon, per ton, at yard, $5.00. Red Cannon, per ton, delivered, $5.50. Weber, per ton, at yard, $5.35. Weber, per ton, delivered, $6.00.

date. A. GOULD, Agent.

A MAGIC POWER.

A Secret Agent at Work.

We were surprised the other day to learn that certain individuals in this city, who had for many years yielded to what was apparently an inevitable fate, were started from their torpid condition of semi-stupidity, into a pursuit of happiness.

These parties had been bound by an influence as powerful as it was inconceivable. They knew not the cause, yet they were victims to the result. They were uneducated, but they could not discern by what means they had been manipulated. They had long sought deliverance from their condition, but they were equally unavailing. At last, relief came. It was not through any action of the President, or of Congress, for their trouble was not of a political character. It was not through any Message relieve them, nor any action of the new Legislature, for it was not their power, and they were suddenly and effectually released from the bondage they suffered from.

The equal scale of human happiness. "What was their trouble?" is what our readers will ask. They had been hindered helplessly by that universal enemy—rheumatism. They had not walked or even moved with ease for years, and on the strong recommendations of friends "who had been there" they tried Britannia, and were at once relieved and radically cured. Britannia is what did it. It acted like a magic power. The secret agent cunningly worked through their veins, removed the cause of the trouble, liberated the captives from their doomed condition and now they congratulate each other on the accomplishment of such a triumph.

They had been hindered helplessly by that universal enemy—rheumatism. They had not walked or even moved with ease for years, and on the strong recommendations of friends "who had been there" they tried Britannia, and were at once relieved and radically cured. Britannia is what did it. It acted like a magic power. The secret agent cunningly worked through their veins, removed the cause of the trouble, liberated the captives from their doomed condition and now they congratulate each other on the accomplishment of such a triumph.

They had been hindered helplessly by that universal enemy—rheumatism. They had not walked or even moved with ease for years, and on the strong recommendations of friends "who had been there" they tried Britannia, and were at once relieved and radically cured. Britannia is what did it. It acted like a magic power. The secret agent cunningly worked through their veins, removed the cause of the trouble, liberated the captives from their doomed condition and now they congratulate each other on the accomplishment of such a triumph.

They had been hindered helplessly by that universal enemy—rheumatism. They had not walked or even moved with ease for years, and on the strong recommendations of friends "who had been there" they tried Britannia, and were at once relieved and radically cured. Britannia is what did it. It acted like a magic power. The secret agent cunningly worked through their veins, removed the cause of the trouble, liberated the captives from their doomed condition and now they congratulate each other on the accomplishment of such a triumph.

They had been hindered helplessly by that universal enemy—rheumatism. They had not walked or even moved with ease for years, and on the strong recommendations of friends "who had been there" they tried Britannia, and were at once relieved and radically cured. Britannia is what did it. It acted like a magic power. The secret agent cunningly worked through their veins, removed the cause of the trouble, liberated the captives from their doomed condition and now they congratulate each other on the accomplishment of such a triumph.

They had been hindered helplessly by that universal enemy—rheumatism. They had not walked or even moved with ease for years, and on the strong recommendations of friends "who had been there" they tried Britannia, and were at once relieved and radically cured. Britannia is what did it. It acted like a magic power. The secret agent cunningly worked through their veins, removed the cause of the trouble, liberated the captives from their doomed condition and now they congratulate each other on the accomplishment of such a triumph.

They had been hindered helplessly by that universal enemy—rheumatism. They had not walked or even moved with ease for years, and on the strong recommendations of friends "who had been there" they tried Britannia, and were at once relieved and radically cured. Britannia is what did it. It acted like a magic power. The secret agent cunningly worked through their veins, removed the cause of the trouble, liberated the captives from their doomed condition and now they congratulate each other on the accomplishment of such a triumph.

They had been hindered helplessly by that universal enemy—rheumatism. They had not walked or even moved with ease for years, and on the strong recommendations of friends "who had been there" they tried Britannia, and were at once relieved and radically cured. Britannia is what did it. It acted like a magic power. The secret agent cunningly worked through their veins, removed the cause of the trouble, liberated the captives from their doomed condition and now they congratulate each other on the accomplishment of such a triumph.

They had been hindered helplessly by that universal enemy—rheumatism. They had not walked or even moved with ease for years, and on the strong recommendations of friends "who had been there" they tried Britannia, and were at once relieved and radically cured. Britannia is what did it. It acted like a magic power. The secret agent cunningly worked through their veins, removed the cause of the trouble, liberated the captives from their doomed condition and now they congratulate each other on the accomplishment of such a triumph.

They had been hindered helplessly by that universal enemy—rheumatism. They had not walked or even moved with ease for years, and on the strong recommendations of friends "who had been there" they tried Britannia, and were at once relieved and radically cured. Britannia is what did it. It acted like a magic power. The secret agent cunningly worked through their veins, removed the cause of the trouble, liberated the captives from their doomed condition and now they congratulate each other on the accomplishment of such a triumph.

They had been hindered helplessly by that universal enemy—rheumatism. They had not walked or even moved with ease for years, and on the strong recommendations of friends "who had been there" they tried Britannia, and were at once relieved and radically cured. Britannia is what did it. It acted like a magic power. The secret agent cunningly worked through their veins, removed the cause of the trouble, liberated the captives from their doomed condition and now they congratulate each other on the accomplishment of such a triumph.

They had been hindered helplessly by that universal enemy—rheumatism. They had not walked or even moved with ease for years, and on the strong recommendations of friends "who had been there" they tried Britannia, and were at once relieved and radically cured. Britannia is what did it. It acted like a magic power. The secret agent cunningly worked through their veins, removed the cause of the trouble, liberated the captives from their doomed condition and now they congratulate each other on the accomplishment of such a triumph.

They had been hindered helplessly by that universal enemy—rheumatism. They had not walked or even moved with ease for years, and on the strong recommendations of friends "who had been there" they tried Britannia, and were at once relieved and radically cured. Britannia is what did it. It acted like a magic power. The secret agent cunningly worked through their veins, removed the cause of the trouble, liberated the captives from their doomed condition and now they congratulate each other on the accomplishment of such a triumph.

They had been hindered helplessly by that universal enemy—rheumatism. They had not walked or even moved with ease for years, and on the strong recommendations of friends "who had been there" they tried Britannia, and were at once relieved and radically cured. Britannia is what did it. It acted like a magic power. The secret agent cunningly worked through their veins, removed the cause of the trouble, liberated the captives from their doomed condition and now they congratulate each other on the accomplishment of such a triumph.

They had been hindered helplessly by that universal enemy—rheumatism. They had not walked or even moved with ease for years, and on the strong recommendations of friends "who had been there" they tried Britannia, and were at once relieved and radically cured. Britannia is what did it. It acted like a magic power. The secret agent cunningly worked through their veins, removed the cause of the trouble, liberated the captives from their doomed condition and now they congratulate each other on the accomplishment of such a triumph.

They had been hindered helplessly by that universal enemy—rheumatism. They had not walked or even moved with ease for years, and on the strong recommendations of friends "who had been there" they tried Britannia, and were at once relieved and radically cured. Britannia is what did it. It acted like a magic power. The secret agent cunningly worked through their veins, removed the cause of the trouble, liberated the captives from their doomed condition and now they congratulate each other on the accomplishment of such a triumph.

They had been hindered helplessly by that universal enemy—rheumatism. They had not walked or even moved with ease for years, and on the strong recommendations of friends "who had been there" they tried Britannia, and were at once relieved and radically cured. Britannia is what did it. It acted like a magic power. The secret agent cunningly worked through their veins, removed the cause of the trouble, liberated the captives from their doomed condition and now they congratulate each other on the accomplishment of such a triumph.

They had been hindered helplessly by that universal enemy—rheumatism. They had not walked or even moved with ease for years, and on the strong recommendations of friends "who had been there" they tried Britannia, and were at once relieved and radically cured. Britannia is what did it. It acted like a magic power. The secret agent cunningly worked through their veins, removed the cause of the trouble, liberated the captives from their doomed condition and now they congratulate each other on the accomplishment of such a triumph.

They had been hindered helplessly by that universal enemy—rheumatism. They had not walked or even moved with ease for years, and on the strong recommendations of friends "who had been there" they tried Britannia, and were at once relieved and radically cured. Britannia is what did it. It acted like a magic power. The secret agent cunningly worked through their veins, removed the cause of the trouble, liberated the captives from their doomed condition and now they congratulate each other on the accomplishment of such a triumph.

They had been hindered helplessly by that universal enemy—rheumatism. They had not walked or even moved with ease for years, and on the strong recommendations of friends "who had been there" they tried Britannia, and were at once relieved and radically cured. Britannia is what did it. It acted like a magic power. The secret agent cunningly worked through their veins, removed the cause of the trouble, liberated the captives from their doomed condition and now they congratulate each other on the accomplishment of such a triumph.

They had been hindered helplessly by that universal enemy—rheumatism. They had not walked or even moved with ease for years,