LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY DEC. 21.

Grand Jury's Work.—Two indictments were presented in court this morning, both found for violation of the laws of the Territory.

Bullet Extracted.—Mr. Jake Heusser, who was accidentally shot the other day, is improving. The wound is through the muscle of his left arm, and as he is left handed, the injury is equally inconvenient to one in the right arm of most persons. The bullet grazed the bone and must have broken, as a piece of flattened lead, separate from that previously taken out, has been removed. Since this the patient feels much easier. He suffered considerable pain before.

Earthquake.—The Junction has the following:

"A gentleman of Huntsville writes us, under date of the 12th inst., and states that on the night of Friday, at 12.45, a slight noise as of distant thunder passed over that settlement, followed by a slight shock—shaking the houses of that place. It lasted about one second, and passed from west to east. Those who were not in their houses heard the noise but did not feel the shock. Query—Where is the centre? how far did it extend? The correspondent states that many are ready to corroborate the above."

Untimely Death.—It is with deep regret that we learn of the death of the wife of Brother Joseph Alma Smith, of Coalville, Summit County, who passed away on the 17th inst., in the bloom of her life. She was an amiable young soul, not 21 years of age, dearly beloved by all who knew her; and her friends, and especially her sorrowing husband who was greatly attached to her, deeply mourn her untimely departure. We extend our sincere condolence to the bereaved, and trust that He who comforteth the hearts of the mourners, will be near them in their hour of gloom.

In Mexico.—A private letter from Apostle Moses Thatcher, which we have had the pleasure to peruse states that he and Elder Feramorz Young reached Vera Cruz at 9 a. m. on the 5th inst., in good health and spirits, and intended leaving the same day at 11.30 p. m. for the City of Mexico. The yellow fever was prevailing at Vera Cruz, 90 deaths having occurred in November, but the altitude of Mexico is beyond its reach, also beyond the Black Vomito, another dreadful disease prevalent in the lower localities. A new line of steamers is now plying between Vera Cruz and New Orleans, and the transmission of mail is rendered surer and speedier than ever.

Forgery.—A short time ago we published an item in relation to certain forgeries committed at Provo. We take the following from the Enquirer of Saturday, concerning the same matter:

On Saturday last, Supt. James Dunn appeared before Justice Booth and made complaint on oath against Peter C. Jensen, charging him with altering an order issued by the Provo Manufacturing Co., on the Provo Co-op, with intent to defraud, etc., the word "five" to "fifteen" being changed and the figure "5" to "15."

After the complaint was read, defendant stated in open court that he desired to waive an examination and give bail; the court thereupon finding the crime as charged had been committed, and that there was probable cause to believe defendant guilty, it was ordered that he be held to answer the charge at the next term of the First District Court, and admitted to bail in the sum of $300.

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY, DEC. 22.

Brightening Up.—The Milford Sentinel is picking up. The last copy comes to us in a much neater shape than any of its predecessors. The printing is better, and the whole tone of the paper seems to be improved.

Indicted, Arraigned, and Sentenced.—Judge Hunter yesterday sentenced Matthew Matthews to two years in the Penitentiary, and William Jones six months in the County Jail, and the latter also to pay a fine of $300. These worthies are "pals," and merited their punishment by attempting to steal a gold watch from a gentleman on Main Street several weeks ago. When the latter detected their design, Matthew struck him and the two rascals were immediately taken in hand by the police. Among the indictments found by the present grand jury were those against Matthews and Jones, and on being arraigned they pleaded guilty.

Shooting at dy.—A shooting affray, which it is reported would probably terminate in the death of a Cornishman, named John Borlase, one of the principals in the affair, took place at Sandy last evening, about 5.40 o'clock. The other party is David Jenkins, who fired a shot which struck Borlase in the back. The latter was brought to the city last evening on the regular train, and is now in St. Mary's Hospital. According to accounts given by persons present, the shooting took place just as the train from the south stopped at Sandy. Immediately after the firing of several shots, Borlase came running up towards the cars exclaiming that he had been shot by Dave Jenkins. He was assisted into a saloon near by, and a partner of his named Sullivan was sent for. It was ascertained that Borlase was wounded in the back, below the left shoulder and to the left of the spine. He claimed that he was shot while retreating and that he himself did not fire. This statement is partially corroborated by his partner Sullivan, who states that Borlase had had no weapon with him all that day. The cause of the shooting is said to be as follows: Borlase, who is described as a sort of bully, had come from West Jordan, where he has a wife and children, to Sandy to indulge in a spree, and it is stated that he went around abusing various persons, striking and calling names indiscriminately. Having insulted and abused an old man named Jenkins, one of the latter's sons, David, took up the quarrel and shot Borlase as stated. After the shooting, Dave Jenkins disappeared, and up to last accounts, had not been heard from. The wound is not at all dangerous, and Borlase is feeling as well as could be expected under the circumstances. Dr. Benedict has him in charge.

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY, DEC. 23.

Hand Hurt.—Last evening, Mr. A. J. Bullock had his hand crushed, while coupling freight cars on the Utah Southern Railroad, at Santaquin.

Jury Discharged.—The grand jury came into court this afternoon, bringing three indictments found under Territorial statutes. The labors of the jury being finished, the members were discharged by the Court.

Dropped on to It.—The Pioche Record of a recent date says:

"The bottom dropped out of the Day mine five days ago and left a hole in the winze. A miner working in the bottom of the winze, known as the 460-foot level, while engaged in picking ore early Tuesday morning, suddenly disappeared through the bottom of the winze, and dropped a distance of about 30 feet, into a large cave of ore, on the top of which he had unknowingly been working. The miner swears that he fell a distance of 3,000 feet, and that it took him an hour and a half to reach bottom, and that he smelt brimstone on the route. The cave is very large and contains immense quantities of ore."

The Sunny South.—We have been permitted to peruse a letter from Apostle Brigham Young, dated at Holbrook, Apache County, Arizona, on the 13th inst.

Good health and prosperity attended the party.

Large numbers of men and teams were there, ready for work on the grade and timber contracts. Tools and supplies could not be furnished to meet the demands.

The weather was beautiful for carrying on business. No snow, and clear sunny days. Nights rather cool, and sometimes quite cold.

Grass, wood and water in abundance on the line of the railroad. Brother Young concludes in these words: "It is really a pleasure to live in this country during the winter months."

Ford's Version.—Mr. Phil Ford, of Ogden, the man arrested several days ago for complicity in the escape of a prisoner named Burt, from the custody of a Cheyenne constable, in last evening's Junction tells his side of the story. It will be remembered by our readers that the other version was to the effect that Ford was driving away his wagon from Woolner's saloon, with Burt inside, and that the Cheyenne officer pursued, fired and wounded one of the horses, and afterward gave chase to Ford, supposing him, in the darkness to be the runaway prisoner. The latter escaped and Ford was arrested for assisting in his flight. It was also stated that many did not believe Ford to be guilty, that he had been drinking and was almost as irresponsible for his actions as the boozey constable, who mistook him for the runaway. In his defense last evening, Ford states that on the night of the 14th inst., the date of the escape, he was getting ready to drive home, when a stranger accosted him and asked the favor of a ride. Ford granted the request, if the stranger would wait a few moments, and then returned to the saloon. Soon afterwards he came out with a boy named Simms, and without noticing anyone in the wagon, where it appears the stranger (Burt) had ensconced himself, both got in and drove away. The next thing of importance that occurred was the firing of shots in the rear, one of which struck the high horse in the leg, and brought the team to a sudden stand. Ford says, that after looking back and seeing a strange man brandishing a pistol, and shouting after him, he naturally supposed he was seeking his life, so he jumped out of the vehicle and ran. He went around McNutt's establishment, eluded his pursuer, and came back to his wagon, where a crowd had gathered. He then dragged the wounded horse, which meanwhile had been shot dead, some distance away, intending to go home and harness another, but the constable "still pursued him," and pointing a pistol at him ordered him to surrender. He was kept a prisoner some time, until officer Brown was consulted, who, recognizing Ford, immediately released him. Ford considers the action of the constable (Talbot) as an unjustifiable outrage, and intends suing him for damages.

Editor Deseret News:

One of my children was afflicted with consumption of the bowels, and dwindled down to almost a skeleton, and every one who saw the child gave it up. Hearing of Dr. Plant's wonderful success with similar cases, we placed the child under his treatment, and wish in this manner to express our gratitude to the Doctor for the wonderful cure he has effected; also feeling that some will see this who are similarly afflicted, that they may know to whom to apply for relief.

By inserting this in your valuable paper you will confer a favor upon Yours very respectfully,
MRS. HARRY HORSLEY.

RESCUED FROM DEATH.

The following statement of Wm. J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our readers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a VIOLENT BLEEDING OF THE LUNGS followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to-day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

"I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done more good than all other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared and I shall soon be able to go to work. Sold by all druggists.
