Springdale, Jan. 23rd, 1876.

Editor Descret News:

Scarlet Pever.—This malady has been unusually prevalent in the city this winter, but has abated somewhat within the last few weeks. There is still, however, a large number of cases. On the 26th Brother and Sister Meakin, a young couple residing in the 3d Ward, had a child die of that disease, and another of their little ones departed this life, from the same cause, this morning.

This correspondent expresses much surprise and disgust that men like those manipulating the paper alluded to should constantly lend themselves to the publication of downright, barefaced fabrica-tions, when they themselves know them to be so. We advise him. however, to keep cool, and not get exercised and pay no attention whatever to such characters.

THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

Council convened on Saturday January 29th, at 2 p.m.

The Council resumed the second reading of (C. F. 1) "the Penal Code of Utah," and some amendments were made. At the close of the reading of title 8, Councilor E. Snow presented a petition, which was read, signed by John M. McFarlane and seven-ty-tour others, asking that the boundaries of Washington and Kane Counties be changed, and setting forth the reasons therefor; referred to the Committee on Countles. Adjourned,
