

THE IMMIGRANTS.

A SINGULAR EXPERIENCE IN NEW YORK.

CASTLE GARDEN.

FRAGMENTS.

THE city, so far as known, is entirely free from diphtheria.

Several entertainments are announced at the Theatre.

The baggage of the immigrants was being sorted at the depot to-day.

It is somewhat circumspect manner, the second advocate of the suppression of gambling in Park City.

Elmas Morris, Esq., respectfully requests the party who, without leave, took his asphaltum rollers from his yard by the Theatre, to return the same, as his workmen are idle for want of them.

LOCAL NEWS.

Bicycle Sports.—Our local organization of wheelmen have put their track on Washington Square in fine condition, and are talking of having some races on the 24th. They did not celebrate the 4th, and think that the summer holidays ought not to be permitted to pass unnoticed by them. We hope these sentiments will take definite form, and that a good entertainment will be gotten up by the riders of the silent steeds.

Police Court.—Dave Thompson was drunk yesterday, and this morning was fined $5, which he paid.

Ten dollars left by Dan Dixon, yesterday, by way of a guarantee that he would appear and answer for being drunk, and creating a disturbance, was forfeited.

Henry Taylor, senior and junior, assaulted George Duffin, senior and junior, and the quartette had lively time. The assaulting father and son had a hearing in the police court this afternoon.

"Police"—There are many complaints about the conduct of boys in the Ninth Ward, on Fifth South between Third and Fourth East streets. They congregate in that locality in the evening, use vile language, insult passers-by, and render themselves a public nuisance. Recently a woodpile lying between the water ditch and the street car track has been their rendezvous, and a scene of several disturbances. An individual of a quarrelsome spirit, residing near by, who, by his misdeeds, has caused for complaint, yet contributes somewhat to the tumult. He is annoyed, no doubt, but he swears at the urchins, threatens them with all kinds of vengeance, and indulges in talk calculated to increase rather than lessen the difficulty. While we think he brings a great deal of trouble upon himself, we consider the nuisance ought to be abated. Some special police duty for a little while might be of service and the taxpayers in that vicinity are entitled to some protection. The chief fault is with parents who permit their boys to congregate at night on the streets, but the public look to the police to enforce municipal law and preserve the peace of the city.

Child Drowned.—A letter from Elmore, of the 7th inst., says:

A most lamentable occurrence happened in our village yesterday morning. A little daughter, aged one year and eight months, of Brother and Sister Chas. and Selma Foutin, met a premature death by drowning in the irrigating canal, which flows near the dwelling house of the parties named.

It appears that the mother was engaged near the door, and the little one playing by her side, when she temporarily left the child to go into the cellar.

Returning in a few moments afterwards, the child had disappeared.—The mother was alarmed, and the water and fall in. Search was at once instituted about the premises, but in vain, until the child was found in the ditch and fallen in. The canal was then searched by men wading in it, and the little one was finally found about half a mile down the stream, floating on the water.

She was carried home and all possible efforts by the willing hands of sympathizing friends failed to restore life. When the mother who had yet hoped her child would be revived, learned this she broke down with grief, the sobs of which brought tears to eyes that were not used to weep.

What renders the affair still more saddening is the fact that the father is absent from home.

The burial will take place this afternoon, and the community and friends of the bereaved feel that extended their heartfelt sympathy and offer all the consolation in their power.

School Elections.—Elections of trustees were held in several school districts of this city last evening.

In the First District John Siddoway was re-elected without opposition.

In the Third District E. M. Wetler was elected for the full term, of three years, and John Wayman for one year to fill an unexpired term.

In the Fourth District Peter Erickson was elected for the full term.

In the Fifth District John Page, Jr., was elected for the full term.

In the Seventh District there was a very close contest. T. C. Bailey, Liberal, was elected over Henry Wallace, People's nominee, by a vote of 187 to 183.

In the Eighth District Stephen Alley was elected for the full term.

In the Ninth District A. E. Woolley was elected for the full term, vice O. H. Pett.

In the Tenth District, where considerable interest has been excited in the administration of school affairs, the course of the present trustees was sustained by the re-election of John Kirkman.

In the Eleventh District Henry Coulam was elected for the full term.

In the Sixteenth District W. J. Newman was elected for one year to fill the unexpired term of J. W. Summerhays, and T. E. Jeremy was elected for the full term.

In the Seventeenth District there was a very close contest, Andrew Jensen, the People's candidate, being elected by one vote over A. S. Barnes, Liberal.

In the Eighteenth District S. C. Burton was elected for the full term.

In the Nineteenth District, Henry Arnold, Jr., was elected for one year to fill the unexpired term of Andrew Kimball, resigned, and W. H. Perkins was elected for the full term.

In the Twentieth District the full board was elected as follows: George Romney, Jr., for three years; James Ellis for two years, and Oliver Hodgson for one year. A hearty vote of thanks was given to the retiring officers.

In the Twenty-first District, Twenty-first Ward A. N. McFarlane was elected for the full term.

There was little or no opposition except in the Seventh and Seventeenth Districts.

Uncurables men with no originality always try to follow, because they cannot lead. The efforts of would-be competitors to imitate the method of introduction employed by the manufacturer of Magic Yeast, and the efforts of others to ride on the success of Magic Yeast, by plating the name and applying it to inferior articles, is not only a cheap and dishonest trade, but an acknowledgment to their own want.
