PROVO. CITY COUNCIL MEETING. House Numbering Ordinance Passed

- Wilson Gets His Money Back. Special Correspondence.

Provo, Utah Co., July 23 .- At a meet-ing of the city council held last evening a letter was received from Councilman Carter who is over at the lakes near the head of Provo river, giving information in regard to what would be equired to properly construct a dam to tore the water in the principal lake such a dam would have to be 100 feet in length by 10 feet in height. A motion to recall Mr. Carter was carried, the opinion being that the city should not t this time build the dam. The committee on judiciary recom mended that the revision of the city ordinances be postponed till next year. The matter of providing posts and numbers for designating the streets was referred to the committee on streets and alleys.

The house numbering ordinance was passed, providing for 100 numbers for each block, 50 on each side of the street. the city marshall will notify owners of | houses in regard to the numbers they are required to place on their houses. The city marshall was instructed to investigate the matter of dead sheep in the South Fork of Provo canyon and cause complaints to be made against the parties who are responsible. WILSON GETS HIS MONEY BACK.

The young man who took $56 from Daniel Wilson at Pleasant Grove, Sat-urday night, was found at Payson, and it was also found that Earl Doyle, the name he gave in Pleasant Grove not his correct name. He refunded the money to Mr. Wilson and as he was very penitent and has a sick mother who, it was feared, would be seriously affected by a prosecution of her son no arrest was made.
