

the doctrines of polygamy, nor the insane vagaries of an adventurer like Joseph Smith, combine and settle in those Western Colonies, govern themselves by the wise and firm discipline of the Mormon congregations and assert their rights to occupy Idaho, Montana and Utah, and do it as God-fearing, self-respecting citizens." To which we offer not the slightest objection. Come on, good. God-fearing, self-respecting citizens! we have had so few of your kind outside of our own people that we shall welcome your presence and be glad of your influence. If you have anything better in principle than we have, we shall consider it carefully; and who knows but you may find that we have something better than you have? Come along friends, there's room enough for all!

Editor Deseret News:

Against the Fitzjohn Porter bill, passed in the Senate yesterday, there will be a vigorous fight in the House. Logically, the original bill, which restored him as major-general, the active rank in which he was serving when dismissed, and which gave him pay for the time during which, it is claimed, he was improperly kept out of the service, was stronger than this one. That would have been a final verdict of not guilty—a vindication; this is only the Scotch verdict, "not proven," if it is that. Still, as I said, there are many members of the House who will fight even this.

Senator Morrill is thoroughly in earnest in his resolution of yesterday, instructing the committee on post offices and post roads to inquire whether or not the existing telegraph lines largely interfere with the business of the Post Office department, and whether telegraphic service should not be placed exclusively in the hands of the general government. In fact, there is more interest felt here now in an inquiry of this kind than ever before.

The Board of Managers of Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, now in session here, will adjourn sooner than was expected, and cannot make, therefore, a somewhat rigid investigation which was intended, into one of the homes. They meet again in March next, and one of them says, will probably, as soon thereafter as Congress shall be in session, ask for some legislation.

The importance of a decision rendered on Monday by the Supreme Court in the case of McBride vs. Carl Schurz, "Secretary of the Interior," is fully appreciated by the heads of the departments. Whether for the public good or not, but probably very much for its good, the decision will make these officials more cautious in the discharge of their duties, or supposed duties of their places. To know that they can be brought before the courts and compelled to make known their reasons for this or that act, or this or that failure to act, and have their decisions judicially reversed, will probably produce in the minds of the secretaries a wholesome respect for those citizens who have heretofore had no protection whatever from arbitrary executive will. Whether or not, and to what extent a secretary would become responsible, pecuniarily, for a wrongful act, by which another person suffered, are questions which will not probably be brought before the courts.

General Grant has been cordially received here by all classes, and, in fact, is much liked by all classes. The public greeting at his arrival, however, and the reception last night at Mason's Hall, were wholly in charge of an organization of ex-soldiers who are republicans. The General's brief stay in the city will prevent any but social attention from other citizens.

The House to-day adopted a resolution to call upon the Postmaster-General for any information he may have touching the abuse of the franking privilege. The object of the call is to get officially before the House the alleged abuses of the Congressional frank in the recent political campaign.

Another Veteran Gone.

BEAVER, Dec. 27, 1880.

Editor Deseret News:

Bro. John Fotheringham, father of Elder William Fotheringham, who holds several prominent positions, civil and ecclesiastical, in this county, died on the 22d inst., at the ripe age of 90 years, 10 months and 15 days. The funeral services were held at the residence of Bro. Wm. Fotheringham, in the Second Ward of this city, on the 24th inst. Comforting and appropriate remarks were made by Elder Daniel Tyler, President M. L. Shepherd and Bishop John X. Smith. A goodly number of vehicles and parties on foot accompanied the remains to their last resting place.

Bro. Fotheringham was born in Culross, Scotland, on the 10th of February, 1789, was baptized in Clackmannan, in the winter of 1847, by Elder John Sharp; emigrated to New Orleans in the ship Erin's Queen, in the fall of the same year. In the summer of 1848, sailed to Council Bluffs on the steamer Dacotah, which was wrecked near the mouth of the Nishinabotana, when he and other passengers, himself and family escaped with their lives, but their property was lost. Resided in Zabriskie's Hollow, near Kaysville (now Bluff City) until the summer of 1850, when he removed to Salt Lake City, arriving in September of that year, and was soon after ordained a High Priest. He removed the same fall to Lehi, being one of the first seven settlers of that place. He removed to Beaver about 1868, where he remained until his death.

Brother Fotheringham was one of those quiet, unassuming citizens, who are everywhere beloved, ever ready to contribute of his means to aid in building up the Church and kingdom of God and bless the poor. He was a kind and affectionate husband and father. He died in full faith of the gospel. Your Brother,
DANIEL TYLER.

Meeting of the Deseret Sunday School Union.

The meeting of the Deseret Sunday School Union was held in the Salt Lake Assembly Hall, January 3d, Superintendent George Goddard presided. After the opening exercises of singing by the Twentieth and Twenty-first Ward choirs, and prayer, the roll was called, and it was found that all the City Sunday Schools were represented, also some of the Stake S. S. We noticed on the stand Counselor Joseph E. Taylor, of the Presidency of this Stake, and Elder Wilson Dusenberry, of Provo. In response to the reports called for at last meeting of the number of Sunday School officers and teachers who observe the Word of Wisdom, also how many members of their Sunday Schools are now on missions, and how many martial bands had been organized according to a previous suggestion. A majority of the Wards gave reports that were generally favorable, the other Wards that were represented were not prepared to report then.

Professor Beesley being called upon said that he had been interested in martial music for many years, and had labored to bring it to that state of excellence of which he thought it capable. He was pleased to see the Sunday School Union taking hold of this matter, which he regarded as a partial solution of the question of "what shall we do with our boys." Many parents restrain their children from making a noise, but his views were to train them to make a pleasant one, which would engage their attention and occupy their time, and lead some of them to still further improve their talents for music, etc. He gave some instructions in regard to organizing Juvenile Martial Bands, and said that a band can commence with eight flutes, two drums and a triangle, the total cost of which would be about seventy-five dollars; he felt willing to do all he could to promote this cause.

Bro. Wilson Dusenberry by invitation made a few remarks on Sunday School work and the advantage of letting our youth know of the evil and good in this world, in such a way as to fortify them against temptation and lead them to appreciate the good they may find; he approved of what had been done this evening, and hoped it might lead some to feel their shortcomings, so as to lead to a partial reform at least.

Counselor Joseph E. Taylor referred to the parable of the five wise and five foolish virgins as often applied to us as a people, and felt pleased to hear as favorable reports as he had heard this evening, showing that three-fifths at least observed the Word of Wisdom. Urged those who were temperate to be charitable and to use their influence to induce others to observe the Word of Wisdom, and thus help them to lead better lives.

Supt. Goddard remarked the large number of young people present, and commended the good order and quietness that had been observed during the meeting. All schools who have not given full reports, are requested to be prepared to give them at the next meeting, in regard to the five cent donation to the Sandwich Islands mission; observance of the Word of Wisdom; number of children over eight not baptized; the number of martial bands organized, and the number of missionaries now absent on missions. He announced that the First and Second Wards would supply the music for the next meeting, and will probably be aided by the Glee Club, these Wards were also requested to furnish doorkeepers.

The Seventeenth Ward Juvenile Martial Band, belonging to the Sunday School, gave two or three pieces during the evening. The meeting was then adjourned for one month. Benediction by Supt. George Hillton.

During the year 1880, no less than three hundred and thirty-three divorces were granted in San Francisco, to say nothing of those that were applied for and failed to get a decree.

The very liberal and intelligent little Isle of Man has decided to extend the franchise to qualified unmarried women—that is, to unmarried women who are possessed of a certain amount of property or pay a rental of a specified amount. The extension will not, it seems, extend to elections for members of Parliament, which are regulated by imperial enactment. The people of the little island are permitted to govern themselves about as they please. In granting this suffrage to women, the Isle of Man has proved there is no especial significance in its name.

UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER, Chemical Laboratory, ROCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 8th, 1880.

Mr. H. H. Warner has placed in my possession the formula of the medicine manufactured and sold by him under the general designation of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure. I have investigated his processes of manufacture, which are conducted with extreme care and according to the best methods. I have also taken from his laboratory samples of all the materials used in the preparation of this medicine, and upon critical examination I find them, as well as the medicine into which they enter, to be entirely free from poisonous or deleterious substances.
