

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

TO-MORROW'S SERVICES.—The Rev. Dr. Todd, of Massachusetts, will preach in the Old Tabernacle to-morrow morning.

EXPECTED.—The train having on board the Hon. W. H. Seward and party was due at 10:15 (late Deseret) at noon to-day.

THEATRE.—Last evening the benefit of Miss Clella was well attended. The pieces presented were "The Pretty Horsebreaker"

TO-NIGHT a grand complimentary benefit will be given to the Howsons. The same piece will be repeated and a selection from the opera of "Der Freischutz," in which the sisters will appear.

THE BAND of the 7th Regular Infantry have also kindly tendered their services and will discourse some of their finest morceaux.

Called.—We had a call last evening from Hyrum Lusk, Esq., who is traveling correspondent for the New York Tribune.

Mr. Lusk is traveling through this region of country, not only in the capacity of a correspondent, but he is also gathering materials for a work on the manners and customs of the people of the West.

Mr. Lusk is the gentleman who was attacked by Indians on the 25th of June, 1887, in the vicinity of the Sweetwater mines, whilst quietly eating his dinner.

Mr. Lusk informs us that he was born and raised six miles from the hill from which the Prophet Joseph Smith obtained the plates upon which the records of the Book of Mormon were inscribed.

HARTZ.—On Monday Evening Professor Hartz, the celebrated illusionist will make his first appearance before a Salt Lake audience at the Theatre.

INSANITY AND ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—On Wednesday morning last, Bro. Jared Porter, residing near Coalville, in a fit of temporary insanity inflicted two dangerous wounds in his throat with a pen-knife.

THE CIRCUS.—The attendance at the Great Pacific Circus last night was tolerably large and the audience seemed highly pleased with the entertainment.

NEWS FROM ELDER O. PRATT.—We have been shown several proof sheets of the Book of Mormon, in the Deseret Alphabet, sent from the East by Elder O. Pratt, Sen.

The following extracts from a letter accompanying the above, from Elder Pratt to R. L. Campbell, Esq., of this city, regarding the progress of the work will doubtless prove interesting to our readers:

"I give the proof sheets four careful readings before sending them to the stereotype foundry. I send you in another envelope two copies of the first six pages of the book, in which, by a fifth reading, I discover but one letter wrong. This, I believe, is much more accurate, than the generality of books, printed in the old orthography.

RINGS.—Some of our hands have tried Dooley's Baking Powder, they pronounce it very good. The advertisement of Dooley and Bro., the manufacturers of the article is to be found in our Special Notice column.

Correspondence.

BRIGHAM CITY, June 18, 1899. Editor Deseret News.—I haste to inform you briefly of the very melancholy affair which has just happened in Brigham City.

The witnesses on the part of the people failing to attend, the trial was postponed until Friday, the 18th and an attachment was issued to compel the attendance of the absent witnesses.

Upon the issuing of the attachment, the prisoners became much more concerned. The officer in charge, seeing such a manifest change in their demeanor from extraordinary glee to absolute despondency, and the jail being insecure against such desperadoes (having been lately broken and one Wm. Myers, charged with larceny having escaped, in daylight, the Sunday before), the Sheriff was convinced that an additional guard was necessary to insure their safety.

They had at one time before in attempting to get away been stopped after they had got out of the jail into the adjoining room, and safely placed in their cell again. At this time all remonstrance was disregarded, and no other alternative was left to secure their re-confinement and safety, except that of the one herein described.

This morning an inquest was held by the Honorable Ephraim Wight, Justice of the Peace. The verdict of the jury was "that James Manley, Morris Kahn and William Smith a/k/a English Bill, whose bodies were there found lying dead, came to their death by being shot by the prison guard, on the 17th June, 1899, when in the act of making their escape from the county jail in Brigham City, wherein they were confined, and awaiting their trial on an indictment for the crime of robbery."

Respectfully, J. C. WRIGHT.
