

Boise News From Her Main Cities and Towns.

BOISE BANK MADE GALLANT FIGHT

But Odds Were Against Institution During Financial Stringency.

RECEIVER TAKES CHARGE.

Deposits of Capital State Will be Paid for Dollar-Printing Company Falls—Convention.

Special Correspondence.

BOISE, Jan. 23.—The main topic of conversation the past three days has been the suspension of the Capital State bank of this city. But it soon became known that the bank was only temporarily embarrassed, as the following statement of State Bank Examiner Chaney, who is now at work examining the books of the institution, will show:

"It is to be regretted that the directors of the Capital State bank had to be closed. During the financial stringency it made a gallant fight against odds. For some days the clearings have been against the Capital State, and being unable to realize on their paper sufficiently to meet the demands of the directors it decided to suspend the business of the bank. Under the banking laws of this state I have the power to apply to the district court of the county in which the bank is located for the appointment of a receiver, should I deem the bank insolvent. In this case, however, I do not consider it a case of insolvency by any means. If I had I would not have hesitated in the matter."

"The selection by the court of Walter S. Bruce as receiver, on petition of the directors, was a very wise one in my judgment and I have no hesitancy in saying at this time that the bank is solvent beyond any question and the deposits will be paid dollar for dollar. The receiver will have to realize on the paper of the bank and the public will have to be patient, as under present conditions collections are necessarily slow."

"It is the desire of the directors and stockholders that the bank be reorganized and it is to be hoped that matters can be gotten in shape and the reorganization effected and the bank reopened as a going concern."

"The suspension of this bank had little effect on the other banks of the city and the same is true of banks in other towns."

PRINTING COMPANY FAILS.

Joseph Collins, head of the Collins Printing company, and manager and founder of the Boise Times, has failed in business and taken his departure from the town. The business of the company is now in the hands of the receiver, who is going through all the books. Quite a number of bills are yet unpaid by the company, and just what condition the affairs will be in, as representing the payment of its debts is not yet known, though it is reported that all accounts will be squared. The reason given as the cause for the failure of the company is poor business management. There is a rumor afloat to the effect that the paper will be continued; but under Democratic management.

CONVENTION OF ASSESSORS.

For three days past the assessors of the 23 counties of the state have been in session at the state capital. The question of the state's revenue has been the main topic of discussion. A number of the state officials have been heard upon the question, including Governor Gooding, Secy. of State Hanson, Auditor Bragaw, Treasurer Hamilton, and Gen. Guion. State Statistician Miller and State Accountant Gossard. Numerous views have been expressed and warm debates awakened over the question of taxation—the rate of assessment, the payment of the same, and the time when it should be reached. The assessors are not authorized to make any recommendations, but they are to report to the legislature. The assessors contemplated one more session today.

C. D. Gossard, state accountant, addressed the convention on the present revenue laws of the state and asked that a committee be appointed from among them, consisting of five members, to meet with a like committee appointed from the late legislature, for the purpose of drawing up certain amendments to the present laws to present to the next legislature. A unanimous decision was reached to meet at the call of the governor next August, conjointly with the county auditors and state board of equalization.

NEW RECEIVER.

Fred V. Tinker, the newly appointed receiver of the Boise United States land office, yesterday entered the office and took things in charge. Mr. Tinker replaces E. E. Garrett, resigned. Mr. Baldwin, lately appointed to succeed Addison T. Smith, who resigned to resume his services as secretary to Senator Heyburn, has not been installed yet. Mr. Barrett has opened an office in this city to practice law before the Boise and Hailey land offices.

NEW THEATER FOR BOISE.

R. W. Houghton, the Seattle theater architect, has arrived in this city with plans and specifications for the new $15,000 theater to be erected this year by James A. Pinney, the present owner of the Columbia theater. The new structure will be strictly modern in every particular and will have a seating capacity of 1,300 persons. It will be located on Mr. Pinney's property, near the site of the Columbia.

LEFT THE COUNTRY.

The Boise police have succeeded in obtaining information sufficient to assure that the wife of John Thompson of Placerville, Calif., who was reported to have been killed in a fire in her night clothes, after having been found together by Thompson, have left the country, perhaps never again to return to these parts. Mrs. Thompson went to her old home in Iowa, and carpenter to San Francisco. Thompson returned back to his home, a few days ago, with his two little sons. If he can locate Carpenter, he will enter suit against him for the alienation of the affections of his wife.

CONTRACTS LET FOR CANALS AT BURLEY.

BURLEY, Jan. 23.—At the meeting of the settlers' association held last Saturday it was decided to pay 16 cents per yard for the removal of the dirt in the canals. Contracts are being let and work will commence just as soon as the weather permits. The building of these three canals of 30 miles will no doubt be a recordbreaker, as all who have contracted for work will push their contracts as fast as possible, as it is expected to have the canals completed by the twenty-third of June. All of this work will be done by the settlers on the Minidoka project.

Dr. O. C. Ormsby of Rexburg passed through Burley last Sunday on his way to Oakley. This is the doctor's first visit to Burley and he was very much surprised at what had been accomplished since he left Oakley about five years ago.

I. G. Hale is having a real estate office built across the road from the depot.

E. G. Sever's lodginghouse is nearly completed.

A new town will soon be established about 10 miles south of Oakley by several parties from Iowa, who came here a few weeks ago and filed on about 800 acres of land. The new town will be named Hawkeye.

A great deal of sickness prevails among the children, consisting of measles and whoopingcough, also a case of scarlet fever is reported.

Stake conference will be held at Oakley, Idaho, on Sunday. It is expected that visitors will be out from Salt Lake City.

The leap year ball given by the Young Ladies' association last Friday was a complete success both financially and socially.

DRY FARM DELEGATES FROM IDAHO FALLS.

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho, Jan. 23.—A great deal of interest has been taken in this city in the dry farming congress convening this week in Salt Lake City. Gov. Gooding appointed as delegates from Idaho Falls Hon. James E. Steele and State Senator McCutcheon, and the mayor of the city appointed the following as delegates: George Brunt, A. T. Shaw, Dr. E. L. Lee, P. C. Reynolds, J. Wiperman and O. A. Johanson. These gentlemen left for Salt Lake Tuesday night.

The weather is just like spring. Business is beginning to pick up and the people of the business men say trade is better than at last year this time. Banks are all in good condition, and are paying in currency entirely.

A Sunday school union, the first to be held in this city, will take place on Jan. 26, in the L. D. S. hall.

MARSH CENTER PEOPLE HONOR BISHOP AND WIFE.

MARSH CENTER, Idaho, Jan. 21.—A very successful surprise party was given, under the auspices of the Y. M. and Y. W. L. A. at the ward meetinghouse in honor of Bishop Nathan S. Coffin and wife. A large crowd assembled and great credit is due those who planned and executed the affair. The following program showing much talent and careful preparation was rendered, President John T. Woodland conducting exercises: A song, "Star of Bethlehem," Miss Bertha Wheeler; recitation, "Changing Colors," Miss Emma Wood; photograph section, Mr. Lewis Hawkins; recitation, "Uncle Daniel," Miss Anna Nelson; stump speech, "Man," Mr. James Shumway.

After which David Brunet, one of the oldest and most respected residents of Marsh Center, presented a beautiful rocking chair and tidy to the bishop and spoke of his faithful and diligent performance of duties and the high esteem in which he is held by the people of the ward. Mrs. Margaret Coffin was then called to the stand and presented with a handsome rocker given by the young ladies of the ward. These gifts were gratefully received. A sumptuous luncheon was served by the young ladies and the remaining hours were spent in pleasant conversation and dancing.

The Mutuals and other organizations of the ward are doing a fine work this winter.

"BEET TOPPING CURRENCY" SAVED DAY AT IONA.

Special Correspondence.

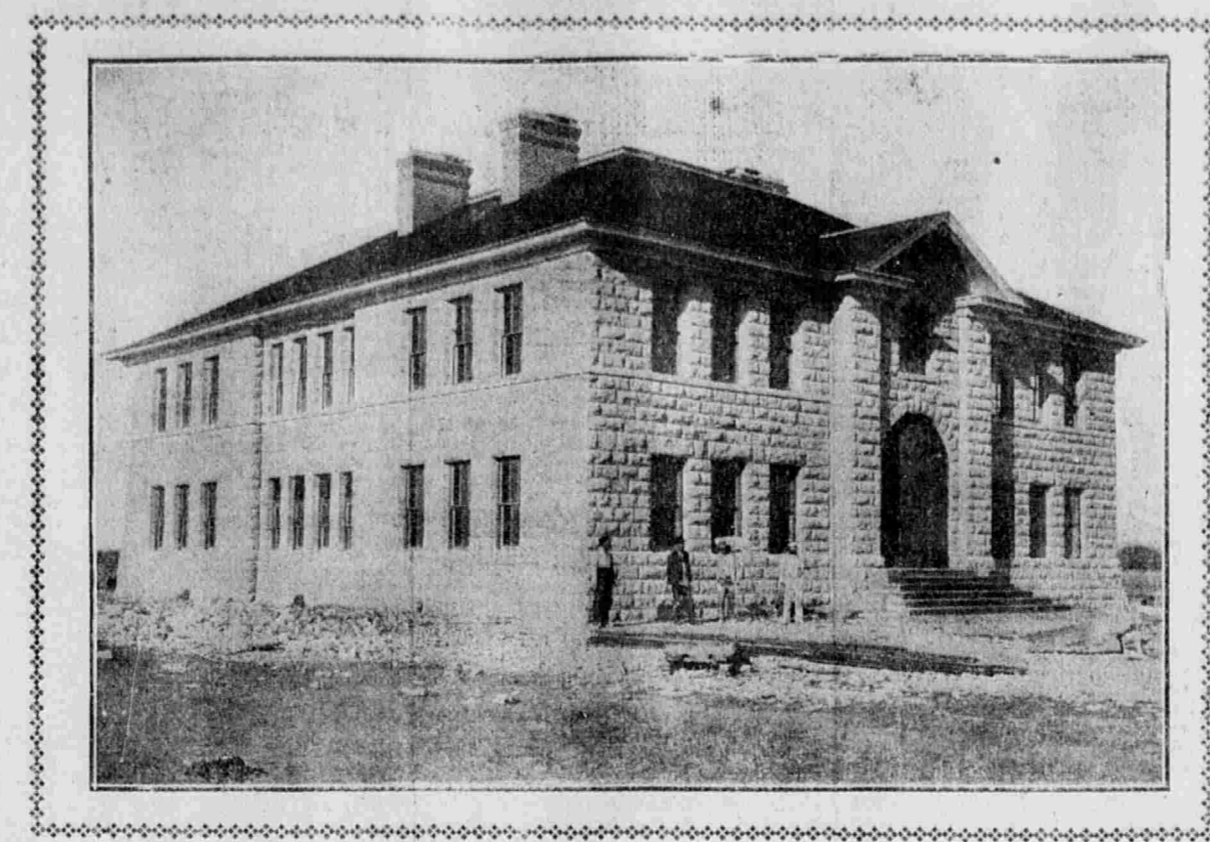

IONA, Jan. 22.—Iona has passed through the financial flurry thus far without materially affecting her well being. Beet top money, as the boys dubbed the Utah-Idaho Sugar company's issue on the National City bank of New York, kept the wheels of business revolving, and was practically the only money circulating for a few weeks. More conservatism is the order of the hour, and if followed out the farmers in this section will become each year more independent. For this is a fertile and productive part of one of the great valleys in the world. Any doubter can prove the statement by starting in at Weiser, Ida., and going up Snake river to the national park.

In Gudmundsen and George Slanger will leave here this evening for Salt Lake City, the first stage of their journey to Germany, where they go to perform missionary labor. Both boys have resided in Iona from infancy and they are looked upon with pride as products of this section. A farewell party in their honor was given Sunday evening, an appropriate and edifying program being rendered and a purse of $4 presented to them. Practically the whole population of the ward was out to wish them God-speed and assist them in other ways.

Sunday evening, the 28th inst., Chas. Longhurst, Jr., and D. E. Chaffin will be given a farewell party. Chaffin will go to the Southern States mission and Elder Chaffin to the Eastern States mission. The boys and their families will have in the fall.

The best grovers of this section will hold a meeting today, to consider the Japanese labor proposition for the coming season. The farmers holding to the right to dictate the terms of the labor contract, maintaining that some of the demands of the Japanese contractors is out of harmony with the situation from the grover's viewpoint. President C. W. Rockwood will preside at the meeting.

The Idaho Power & Transportation company is canvassing for town sites for a new line of power. The line passing through here is now in operation. With the installation of additional machinery it will be able to furnish light and power for Idaho Falls, Ammon,

INDEPENDENT SCHOOL IN DISTRICT 4, SUGAR CITY, IDAHO.

Special Correspondence.

SUGAR CITY, Idaho, Jan. 23.—Next Monday the large central school building of independent school district No. 4 will be occupied. This fine building is two stories high, built of grey stone, has the latest devices for lighting, heating and ventilating. Monday an elaborate program will be rendered. The program and entertainment will be under the direction of the school board. There is a large building at each end of the district, but the school population has grown so rapidly that these buildings are not large enough to hold the children. The Central school building is located on the Sugar City townsite, just west of the Oregon Short Line depot. The cost of the building was $25,000.

During the week the real estate men

Lincoln, Iowa, Elva and Rigby, and on up the valley as far as St. Anthony. The quarterly conference of the Bingham stake will be held in Iona Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 1 and 2.

Charles Longhurst, Jr., and Miss Margaret Bryson will be married in the Salt Lake temple Wednesday, Jan. 23. Miss Bryson is a popular employee of Rushton Bros. Mercantile company, president of the Y. L. M. I. A., and a faithful worker in the ward. Charles, Jr., grew up in Iona. All wish them the happiness they so fully merit. A portion of their honeymoon will be spent with relatives in Paris, Ida., and Woodruff, Utah, where Miss Bryson's parents reside. Mr. Longhurst will leave for the mission field March 4.

Iona dramatic company entertained very pleasantly a large audience Tuesday evening with the play of "Imogene." A. G. Gudmundsen is manager, and is a hustler for good things in the dramatic line.

THOMAS W. THOMAS, MALAD VETERAN, DEAD.

Special Correspondence.

MALAD, Jan. 22.—Funeral services over the remains of Thomas W. Thomas, one of the oldest and most highly respected pioneers of Malad valley, were held Tuesday at the tabernacle. James Bywater of Brigham City, President Milton H. Welling and Bishop W. H. Richards eulogized the sterling qualities of the deceased and his faithfulness.

Deceased was born Feb. 8, 1833, in Glamorgan, South Wales. Oct. 10, 1849, he embraced the gospel and emigrated to Utah in 1853. He remained in Salt Lake City one year, then moved to Brigham City, where he lived for 12 years.

He accepted the call to meet the Utah immigration, and on his return Oct. 10, 1855, was married to Ruth Morgan. In 1858 he went to meet Johnston's army at Fort Hall, and eight years later moved to Malad, where he has since resided.

Mr. Thomas was firm and sincere in the faith he espoused until the last. He was a kind and loving husband and indulgent father and an honest and true friend to all.

He leaves a wife, two sons, one daughter, several grandchildren, and a host of friends to cherish his memory. The court is in session this week. The attorneys present are Moses Davis, Salt Lake City; John Davis, Ogden; James H. Wallis, Rexburg; J. D. Call of Brigham City; Joseph Davis of Preston, D. C. McDougall, S. D. Davis and T. D. Jones of Malad.

Mr. Rees Jenkins is suffering with la grippe.

have shown several homeseekers early in the season, everything went along very smoothly; very little time was lost in breakages or accidents. A great amount of money was paid out by the sugar company for labor, which is a great help to the residents or this section.

The winter weather to date has been ideal. There has been snow on the ground since the first of December, which has made traveling easy.

SUCCESSFUL FACTORY RUN.

Saturday the sugar factory will be run with the most successful run in its history. The last boots were cut yesterday, and the last ones to go through the mill were in splendid shape. Manager Cutler said he was very pleased with this campaign. More boots were cut than in any previous year, and a larger percentage of sugar was made than ever before. With the exception of a scarcity of labor the exception of a scarcity of labor

NEWSPAPER MAN BEATS ORDINANCE

Editor Talbot Convinced Court That Occupation Tax Had No Application.

Moving Picture Films Burn.

C. L. Kleeman, a Mail Clerk, Knocked Senseless by a Fall.

Special Correspondence.

POCATELLO, JAN. 23.—Truxton Talbot, editor of the Pocatello advance, was arraigned in police court in this city yesterday afternoon, charged with conducting and maintaining a newspaper business within the city limits without a license.

He entered a plea of not guilty and the case was postponed until today.

At the hearing this morning Talbot attacked the validity of the ordinance under which the arrest was made, and the court held that his position was well taken and that the ordinance is invalid, releasing Talbot from custody.

Thus in a flash ends the great tempest in a teapot stirred up in the municipal teapot. Some time ago the council passed an ordinance compelling parties transacting business within the city limits to pay what was designated an "occupation tax." The ordinance cost much comment and much amusement. Talbot's paper printing amusing articles regarding the new ordinance. Several amendments were offered to the new law, and it was on the improper adoption of some of these that Talbot made his claim of invalidity stick. The council will be compelled to legally repass the ordinance should it desire to enforce the tax.

MRS. LARSEN DEAD.

Mrs. Ing Larson, aged 30, wife of Mail Clerk C. L. Kleeman, aboard west bound passenger No. 5, between Green River, Wyo., and Pocatello, Mo., with an accident Monday night, which knocked him out of commission for some time.

While lying down between stations, partly asleep, a heavy box dislodged itself, and struck him on the head, cutting him badly. He came too, near Cokeville, and was assisted by the train crew at Montpelier, he had his injuries dressed, and came on to Pocatello. He will rest up a few days before returning to duty.

MOVING PICTURE FIRE.

W. Friedman, conducting a moving picture show, exhibiting at the L. D. S. amusement hall, had an accident Monday night, caused by a match lighting the film, which destroyed 1,300 feet of films, valued at $500.

A panic ensued, but fortunately no one was hurt as the attendance was light and means of egress ample. Still some jumped out of the windows.

COUNTY AFFAIRS.

Among matters of general interest transacted by the county commissioners' meeting held last week, was the creating of road district No. 25, at Inkorn, 12 miles east of here, embracing the former districts, Nos. 5, 9, 15, 20.

The county commissioners also appointed the following road overseers:

No. 1—J. H. Harkness.

No. 2—William H. Hancock.

No. 3—C. S. Higgins.

No. 18—C. H. Poulsen.

No. 22—Peter A. Nelson.

No. 26—Guy O. Wolford.

ALPHEUS C. WORTHINGTON, OAKLEY PIONEER, BURIED.

Special Correspondence.

OAKLEY, Jan. 20.—Alpheus Cutler Worthington, known throughout this country as "Cut" Worthington, passed over the divide quite suddenly Wednesday, Jan. 15, at 9 p. m., from an attack of pneumonia, after being ill less than a week. Funeral services were held in the first ward assembly hall, Sunday, the 18th inst. Among the speakers who paid tributes of respect to the deceased were: Elders Hector C. Haight of Oakley First ward, Adam G. Smith of Marion, David H. Hunter of the Second ward, David P. Thomas of the Fourth ward, Elders W. C. Martindale, Jacob Dayley, Wm. T. Jack, stake president, and Wm. R. Lee. Elder Marcus O. Funk offered the invocation and Elder Heber K. McBride the benediction. The pallbearers were S. P. Worthington, L. A. Nelson, J. H. Worthington, Fred Bach, Jas. Worthington and W. M. Worthington, all nephews of the deceased.

Mr. Worthington was born at Nauvoo, Hancock Co., Ill., Dec. 13, 1844, and moved to Utah in 1855, being one of the pioneers to Grantsville and the Deep Creek country as well as Oakley, where he made his home here in December, 1881.

The survivors of the Pony Express will likely remember "Cut" as one of those who with them, shared the dangers of the Indian war times. The express ceased to operate in 1861, and he was left with a wife, Priscilla Martin Worthington, and one daughter, Mrs. Maud W. Halverson.

William T. Harper of the stake presidency was chosen to read the list for a week suffering with the grip. In fact, there are several cases of sickness in the settlement just now, resulting from severe colds.

Dr. O. C. Ormsby of Rexburg is visiting friends here.

WARD CONFERENCE HELD AT CLAWSON.

Special Correspondence.

CLAWSON, Fremont Co., Idaho, Jan. 21.—Ward conference was held in Clawson, Jan. 12. The ward was reported to be in a thriving condition. The visitors were J. D. Kilpatrick of the stake presidency, E. B. Edelfsen, Geo. Edlington, Don G. A. Smith and H. D. Winger of the high council.

Winter is here in full blast with about 15 inches of snow in the valley and from three to five feet in the mountains and considerable cold weather.

E. A. Kilpatrick and company are now busily engaged in developing their coal mine claim in South Leigh canyon, about 10 or 12 miles east of Clawson. They report as good crops of coal, judging from the croppings, as any found on the west side of the valley, with good prospects of a 25 foot vein being struck.

AT THE SWELL BANQUET.

"Who's that little man up at the head of the table?"

"He's one of our biggest capitalists."

"I see. And who is that giant of a man down there near the foot?"

"He's one of our small merchants."

Chicago Tribune.

Japs Have Contracted The Newspaper Habit.

BEFORE 1870 there was not a single daily newspaper in the Japanese empire, says a writer in the New York Evening Post; but "in modern Japan daily newspapers are almost as universal as they are in Europe and America." It is also observed that "they are just as various in ability, character, and aim."

The most popular journal of the country circulates a quarter of a million daily.

"Japanese journalists and reporters eagerly seize upon every event or incident that lends itself to sensational development, and, with a few important exceptions, exploit it to the extreme. Nothing amazes the foreign journalist more than the triviality of the incident that is deemed sufficient to flood the streets of a Japanese city with 'extras,' and the din and clamor of the multitude of extra editions."

The Japanese newspaper is usually a man, often of gray hairs, but always with a shrill or stentorian voice of sufficient power to awaken the soundest sleeper at the most sleepy hour; and it is curious to note, as he rushes along the street, rain or fine, how many windows will slide open and heads pop up in eager expectation of these newspaper extras. During the war with Russia the craze for news extras was at its greatest height, and all hours of the day or night the newspapers could command a sufficient number of patrons to make their frequent rounds a profitable enterprise.

"Undoubtedly, the greatest newspaper in Japan is the Jiji Shimpo. This journal was founded by the famous Mr. Fukudawa, who had more than any Japanese of his time to interest his countrymen in the wisdom of adopting western civilization. The paper was family, and under the able editorship of its leading writer, Mr. K. Ishikawa, it has attained a reputation in Japan equal to that of the Times of London in the British empire. The editor of the Jiji wields a pen of power, and his utterances are accounted the wisest and most representative of Japanese expressions of national opinion."

The Jiji Shimpo, under the editorship of Mr. K. Ishikawa, is a conservative, but the Jiji, and perhaps more frankly outspoken in affairs of international import, though it is not infrequently a source of annoyance have been marked by a commendable moderation. The Nichi Nichi, lately purchased by the ex-cabinet minister, Mr. Takakura, is under the editorship of Mr. S. Honda and certain government writers, attaining a place of prominence and bracing the former districts, Nos. 5, 9, 15, 20.

The county commissioners also appointed the following road overseers:

No. 1—J. H. Harkness.

No. 2—William H. Hancock.

No. 3—C. S. Higgins.

No. 18—C. H. Poulsen.

No. 22—Peter A. Nelson.

No. 26—Guy O. Wolford.

ALPHEUS C. WORTHINGTON, OAKLEY PIONEER, BURIED.

Special Correspondence.

OAKLEY, Jan. 20.—Alpheus Cutler Worthington, known throughout this country as "Cut" Worthington, passed over the divide quite suddenly Wednesday, Jan. 15, at 9 p. m., from an attack of pneumonia, after being ill less than a week. Funeral services were held in the first ward assembly hall, Sunday, the 18th inst. Among the speakers who paid tributes of respect to the deceased were: Elders Hector C. Haight of Oakley First ward, Adam G. Smith of Marion, David H. Hunter of the Second ward, David P. Thomas of the Fourth ward, Elders W. C. Martindale, Jacob Dayley, Wm. T. Jack, stake president, and Wm. R. Lee. Elder Marcus O. Funk offered the invocation and Elder Heber K. McBride the benediction. The pallbearers were S. P. Worthington, L. A. Nelson, J. H. Worthington, Fred Bach, Jas. Worthington and W. M. Worthington, all nephews of the deceased.

Mr. Worthington was born at Nauvoo, Hancock Co., Ill., Dec. 13, 1844, and moved to Utah in 1855, being one of the pioneers to Grantsville and the Deep Creek country as well as Oakley, where he made his home here in December, 1881.

The survivors of the Pony Express will likely remember "Cut" as one of those who with them, shared the dangers of the Indian war times. The express ceased to operate in 1861, and he was left with a wife, Priscilla Martin Worthington, and one daughter, Mrs. Maud W. Halverson.

William T. Harper of the stake presidency was chosen to read the list for a week suffering with the grip. In fact, there are several cases of sickness in the settlement just now, resulting from severe colds.

Dr. O. C. Ormsby of Rexburg is visiting friends here.

WARD CONFERENCE HELD AT CLAWSON.

Special Correspondence.

CLAWSON, Fremont Co., Idaho, Jan. 21.—Ward conference was held in Clawson, Jan. 12. The ward was reported to be in a thriving condition. The visitors were J. D. Kilpatrick of the stake presidency, E. B. Edelfsen, Geo. Edlington, Don G. A. Smith and H. D. Winger of the high council.

Winter is here in full blast with about 15 inches of snow in the valley and from three to five feet in the mountains and considerable cold weather.

E. A. Kilpatrick and company are now busily engaged in developing their coal mine claim in South Leigh canyon, about 10 or 12 miles east of Clawson. They report as good crops of coal, judging from the croppings, as any found on the west side of the valley, with good prospects of a 25 foot vein being struck.

AT THE SWELL BANQUET.

"Who's that little man up at the head of the table?"

"He's one of our biggest capitalists."

"I see. And who is that giant of a man down there near the foot?"

"He's one of our small merchants."

Chicago Tribune.

Japs Have Contracted The Newspaper Habit.

BEFORE 1870 there was not a single daily newspaper in the Japanese empire, says a writer in the New York Evening Post; but "in modern Japan daily newspapers are almost as universal as they are in Europe and America." It is also observed that "they are just as various in ability, character, and aim."

The most popular journal of the country circulates a quarter of a million daily.

"Japanese journalists and reporters eagerly seize upon every event or incident that lends itself to sensational development, and, with a few important exceptions, exploit it to the extreme. Nothing amazes the foreign journalist more than the triviality of the incident that is deemed sufficient to flood the streets of a Japanese city with 'extras,' and the din and clamor of the multitude of extra editions."

The Japanese newspaper is usually a man, often of gray hairs, but always with a shrill or stentorian voice of sufficient power to awaken the soundest sleeper at the most sleepy hour; and it is curious to note, as he rushes along the street, rain or fine, how many windows will slide open and heads pop up in eager expectation of these newspaper extras. During the war with Russia the craze for news extras was at its greatest height, and all hours of the day or night the newspapers could command a sufficient number of patrons to make their frequent rounds a profitable enterprise.

"Undoubtedly, the greatest newspaper in Japan is the Jiji Shimpo. This journal was founded by the famous Mr. Fukudawa, who had more than any Japanese of his time to interest his countrymen in the wisdom of adopting western civilization. The paper was family, and under the able editorship of its leading writer, Mr. K. Ishikawa, it has attained a reputation in Japan equal to that of the Times of London in the British empire. The editor of the Jiji wields a pen of power, and his utterances are accounted the wisest and most representative of Japanese expressions of national opinion."

The Jiji Shimpo, under the editorship of Mr. K. Ishikawa, is a conservative, but the Jiji, and perhaps more frankly outspoken in affairs of international import, though it is not infrequently a source of annoyance have been marked by a commendable moderation. The Nichi Nichi, lately purchased by the ex-cabinet minister, Mr. Takakura, is under the editorship of Mr. S. Honda and certain government writers, attaining a place of prominence and

HARD WORK IS RECOGNIZED

Old Bishopric Honorably Released And New One Chosen.

</