

SALT LAKERS ARE INTERESTED

New Financial Institution Launched For Development of Idaho.

LOAN AND SAVINGS BANK.

Glen Miller as President of New Company—Eastern Connections—Geo. Sprague Leaves for Boise.

The Home Investment and Savings company is the title of an organization recently given a charter by the state of Idaho to do a general loan and trust business in Idaho. The new company is organized with a capital of $100,000 and will at once begin operations with headquarters in Boise. It is of especial interest to Salt Lake bankers from the fact that United States Marshal Glen Miller is president of the new company, and that George Sprague, who, for a number of years has been with the Home Investment company of this city, will manage its affairs in Idaho.

When seen today Glen Miller, who is also president of the local company, stated that the two organizations would work in harmony to the extent that all Idaho business would be transacted by the Idaho company and all Utah business by the local Home Investment company. "The eastern connection of both organizations will be the same," said Mr. Miller, "and we intend to open a Chicago office, which will be managed by C. B. Hurt, to look after the eastern end. A feature of our business in Idaho will be the pushing of development work in that state. Mr. Hurt is a man of experience in those lines and it will be of great advantage to Idaho to have such a man in charge of its development. We already have immigration connections in Minnesota and Illinois and our eastern connections are excellent."

George F. Sprague leaves tonight for Boise to get things started there and he will be assisted shortly by Karl D. Hardy and W. A. Wright, of this city. The Idaho company, which has nearly the same backing as the Home Investment company, was incorporated by the following:

H. B. Eastman and Alfred Eoff, of the Boise City National bank; C. W. Moore, of the National bank; Attorney W. E. Borah, C. B. Hurt, of the Utah National bank; and Roswell, and owner of a bank in Pontiac, Ill.; Glen Miller, United States marshal of Utah, and George F. Sprague.

Nipper, of the firm of Ward & Co., against the Rio Grande Western Railway Co., Attorney M. K. Kallgren represents the plaintiffs and Bennett, Howat, Sutherland and Van Cott the defendant.

Ward & Co. brought this suit to recover damages from the railway company on account of the loss of the company's train running over thirteen head of cattle between Mill Creek and Elgin Switch on November 25, 1900, whereby four of the cattle were killed and nine injured. Plaintiffs value the cattle at $40 a head, and state that the cattle after they had been injured were worth only $10 a head. Plaintiffs have on these grounds brought suit for $4500, with interest and costs.

A unique proposal has been made to the county board by Lee & Wright, the proprietors of the Regal lively stable, who propose to paint their advertisement on all of the State road sprinkling trucks, proffering to pay for the county or some other way. The board thinks that it might not be a half bad idea to use the tanks and still consider the advertisement inviting bills for the advertising space.

AMUSEMENTS.

Mrs. Brune closes her engagement in this city tonight. Last night's house showed a decided increase in attendance, which indicates that the strong acting of the star more than offsets the weakness of the supporting company, in the minds of theater goers.

At the Grand tonight "At the Old Cross Roads" under the management of Arthur C. Alston, opens an engagement of three nights and a matinee. Mr. Alston is the manager who first introduced Ned Rye in his play of "Friends."

Mr. Pyper of the Salt Lake Theater is confined to his home with a severe attack of a gripe.

Word reached the Theater yesterday that "The Girl From Paris" company, which had the Thanksgiving dates at St. Paul's, had gone to places in Butte. This leaves the Theater dark on one of the choicest theatrical days of the year, and Mr. Pyper will do some late hour matinee to make up for the loss.

Denver yesterday to see whether one of the companies playing there could not cancel dates elsewhere and play at Salt Lake. Overtures were also made to the local opera company to see whether they could have the orchestra and books of "The Wedding Day" returned from New York in time to revive their popular stock, but Mr. Pyper's illness renders this a matter of uncertainty.

A FIFTY FLOWER DISPLAY.

All afternoon there has been a steady stream of people visiting the up-town store of the Salt Lake Floral company in Smith's Drug Store, at 142 south Main street. The display certainly excites anything of its kind ever shown here, and consists of the very finest varieties of roses, carnations, chrysanthemums, etc. Some new roses are in the show, and everything indicates that the new concern means to lead in the floral trade of this city. The show tomorrow will be even larger and handsomer than the one today, and an invitation is extended to all to see it.

Miss Kidwell was Mrs. Jarley, and those representing the wax figures were: Misses Conch, Moritz, Johnson, Rouns, Lloyd, Meeks, Dunford, Swift, Patten, Hanley, Virginia Swift, Mesdames Howard and Green, and Mesdames Beamer, Belle, Sherman, Bellers, Glendinning, Seely, McCurdy, Beiringer, and Miss Walter Jenkins was accompanist, and with Prof. Schettler, and Miss Kidwell, rendered musical selections between the three acts. The Kaganer orchestra was played at the close, with a chorus of "Good Night" from the company.

The engagement of Miss Mary E. Twombly and Dr. Ambrey S. Hull is announced.

Yesterday the Woman's Democratic club met at the home of Mrs. E. J. D. Broudy and discussed plans for future work. Among other things the subject of securing recognition for women in the way of holding public office. The treasurer gave a report of expenses for the recent campaign, and showed a surplus of $40 in the treasury, where there had been a deficit for the previous year.

Mrs. Hayward was appointed chairman of arrangements and it was decided to give a card party early in December. A pleasant social time was enjoyed for a half hour, and refreshments were served.

Miss Bradstreet, who has been visiting Miss Leonard, has returned to her home in Gardiner, Me.

monthly periods for it meant a couple of days in bed in every month. I finally made up my mind that the good doctors were guessing; and hearing from different friends such good reports of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I tried that. I bless the day I did, for it was the dawning of a new life for me. I used five bottles before I was cured, but when they were taken I was a well woman once more. Your Compound is certainly wonderful. Several of my friends have used it since, and nothing but the best do I ever hear from him."

If Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound could cure Miss LaMonte—why not you? Try it and see for yourself.

Fest and Felicitations—The Sons Present Their Father With A Silk Hat.

SAYS HE IS PEACEABLE.

The local butcher named Rich, who figured rather prominently in a fist fight interview with a man named Brown Tuesday afternoon, made the statement today that he is a peaceable man; that he does not hunt trouble and had but few fights in his life. He affirms that Brown was the aggressor in Tuesday's affair.

Get the Most Out of Your Food

You don't and can't if your stomach is weak. A weak stomach does not digest all that is ordinarily taken into it. It gets tired easily, and what it fails to digest is wasted.

Among the signs of a weak stomach are uneasiness after eating, fits of nervous headache, and disagreeable belching.

"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla at different times for stomach troubles, and a run down condition of the system, and have been greatly benefited by its use. I would not be without it in my family. I am troubled especially in summer with weak stomach and nausea and find Hood's Sarsaparilla invaluable."

E. B. HICKMAN, W. Chester, Pa.

"My stomach was so weak I could not retain food. I found I could take three drops of Hood's Sarsaparilla and not throw it up. Increased the dose daily for three weeks. When I had taken two bottles I could eat anything, and six bottles made me well."

Mrs. LOTTIE E. NEWMAN, 31 Lewis street, Hartford, Conn.

EXCURSIONISTS

SECURE BERTHS.

Director Stephens Receiving Applications and Deposits.

ITALIAN BAND'S GUARANTEE

Put Up $500 for Appearance—Maconda's Concert—Opportunity to Hear Miss Gates.

Prof. Evan Stephens reports that he is daily receiving applications for berths in the excursion-train of the Tabernacle choir to California. The applications are accompanied by the guarantee fee of $10, and the choir director says that he expects to have his list full. In addition to the choir Mr. Stephens has arranged to carry one hundred persons. Should a greater number of applications than this be received another car will be added to the train, provided a carload is obtained. If not, then the applicants after 100 and less than sufficient to fill an extra car will have their deposit refunded. Applications for berths for parties have been already received from Milford, Provo, Park City, Bear Lake, and of course, Salt Lake.

The choir is preparing for its recital with Miss Gates, and inasmuch as this is to be the only opportunity to hear this talented young lady, it is expected that the house will be filled. Immediately after the concert Miss Gates will leave for the East to sing under Major Pond. At the concert here she will sing eight numbers in English, Italian, French and German. She appears here on December 5, has forwarded her program and desires to be heard at her best. Among other things she will sing the Infinitus from Rossini's Stabat Mater.

Prof. Stephens says also that he has received $500 guarantee money from the Royal Italian band which is to appear at the Tabernacle on December 9, 10 and 11. The four programs, (one matinee), says Mr. Stephens, are simply magnificent.
