Fourth District Court.

The case of Ralph Laramore, charged with burglary, was postponed when the court sat at 10 o'clock yesterday. The case occupied the forenoon. After being charged by Judge Miller, the jury retired and in a very short time returned with a verdict of guilty and a sentence pronounced thereon.

A. M. Hubert, charged with burglarizing Westside Drug store, was placed on trial and the case occupied the remainder of the day. The testimony in the case was direct, the two principal witnesses were examined. When arrested Hubert was in possession of a mutilated half dollar which was recognized by the bartender, the proprietor, and his son. He was given 30 days. It will have been the day previous to the burglary. He has when arrested $100 in his pocket, and had given his employer all of which he refused to account for though he says he can't afford to pay it back. The direct testimony there was much circumstantial evidence adduced to prove defendant guilty. The case will be continued today.

A few short unimportant entries were entered.

Entertainments.

Several holiday balls and entertainments are advertised. Associations and organizations of all kinds are preparing to give a gay and gaudy array of gaiety. The Colored Association and the City Council will give a dinner and entertainment party at the City Hall, Deseret, 2812. The Golden Hour Club have advertised their time to take place at the Union Opera house, this evening. The Golden Hour Club expects to give their parents and friends an enterprising program of songs and recitations. The public school pupils have invited their parents and friends to a similar enjoyment this afternoon at 2:30.

Burglary.
