I'wo additional cases of diphtherla Editor Deseret News: were reported from the Nineteenth Ward to day. Two cases of scarlet lever have been quarantined, one each at Ellerbeck's and Agramente's.

IF the grand jury would indict one of those keepers of houses of fil-fame to whom they referred in their report, it might give the officers a good chance to open another section of the "list."

TO-MORROW evening, at 7.30, a grand entertainment, consisting of sougs, recitations, tableaux and farces, will be given in the 17th Ward school house. Proceeds for the benefit of the M. I. A. HOTSTV.

IT was not the fear of his being able was the person wanted, that caused Mr. Farrell to be "promptly discharged" at the justice's court.

LTHE remains of the late John H. Rice, whose demise occurred in Tombstone last week, will arrive over the Contral Pacific to-morrow moruing, and services will be held at the residence of Mrs. S. F. Spencer, in the afternoon, at 2 o'clock.
