NEWS OF THE DAY.

Blaine's prostration is more severe than was supposed. He is to have absolute rest, and he is out of the campaign probably altogether.

.....Considerable enthusiasm over the nominations.

.....Plata drawn in the Louisiana State Republic Convention. One man chucked into the orchestra.

.....Washington Navy Yard employees to be furloughed to-morrow unless the appropriation bills are passed to-day.

.....Congressional news.

.....Various opinions of the press.

.....Lyons sends thirty-two workmen to the Centennial.

.....Yellow fever at Havana.

.....Earthquake at Corinth.

.....A few stray shots between the Turks and Servians. Anxiety on the Danube, etc.

.....About the escaped Fenian prisoners.

.....An Ohio nomination for Congress.

.....John G. Saxe is seriously ill.

.....Bulgaria declares its independence, etc.

.....Prince Milan "proclamates."

.....Two youths drowned at Hernandez, Miss.

.....Philadelphia wool market.

.....A. D. C. Judge unfit to sit on the bench.

.....The new Sultan thinks of abdication. Some other serious war talk.

.....Rigby won the Abercrombie cup rifle match.

.....Inquiry into the propriety of an Irish Parliament proposed.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

.....New Jersey has had three or four explosions of detonating powder in as many weeks. One was sufficient for this section, although we had three or four all at one time.

.....Before Senator Morrill declined the Secretaryship of the Treasury he was pestered with applications of office-seekers. A woman first informed him of his appointment, and immediately thrust into his hand an application for office duly indorsed. A Washington paper says, "The office-hunting fiend is one of the greatest annoyances to which heads of departments are subjected, and consequently most of them very properly decline to lose valuable time in listening to personal appeals."

....."It is a sin to steal a pin," but not to steal an umbrella, or a person's good name, or a few thousands from the public coffers, seems to be the morality of many people.

.....Daniel Drew says his money went "nor-west and way-boah."

.....Boston liquor dealers complain of the arbitrary enforcement of the license law.

.....Miss Temperance Anderson, of Baden, Pa., has hair six feet eight inches long on her head. She takes it with her to the Centennial, and hardly needs any other apparel.

.....Now the flattering unctious is laid to the republican soul that Cincinnati stands between St. Louis and Washington.

THE MUD-SLINGING STRUGGLE.

The Convention business is over, thank Heaven. It was rather hot and heavy yesterday (June 19). The tickets of the two great political parties are now out and dried, and the planks of the two platforms upon which one of the sets of candidates is eventually to float into the harbor of victory, and the other set up Salt River, are lashed together, committed to the wild waves of public opinion, and set adrift, and the colors of the rival parties are nailed to the mast head.

Now commences the campaign which by and by will wax into white heat and consuming ferocity. The American eagle will spread its wings and flap away in all its pompous glory. The friends of the rival candidates will exhaust their ingenuity and their virility in flinging mud at those candidates and at each other. Their vocabularies will be ransacked for hard names. Between this and November the peculiar beauties of "American institutions" will be exhibited in full, and without any reserve, to the gaze of an astonished, and ought to be, admiring world. The friends of the rival candidates will exhaust their ingenuity and their virility in flinging mud at those candidates and at each other. Their vocabularies will be ransacked for hard names. WASHINGTON, 20.—The House has passed the bill authorizing the use of the unexpended balances for ten days of the next fiscal year.

Fenian indisposed bills to create an additional land district in Idaho Territory, to provide for a reduction of the area of the Nezperce Indian reservation in Idaho, and protect bona fide settlers of reserved public lands in Idaho, which were referred.

Lane asked leave to report a bill providing for the sale of the lands in Modoc and Shoshone Counties, California.

Piper objected.

The House then proceeded to the consideration of the Geneva award bill, and was addressed by Frye, who spoke in favor of distributing the unappropriated balance of the award among the owners and merchants who had suffered under the American flag during the war.

WASHINGTON, 20.—John G. Saxe is lying seriously ill at his residence in Brooklyn. He expresses doubts himself of his recovery.

Memphis, 20.—W. C. Morgan, son of the slave-master, Bright Morgan, and a member of the Missouri legislature, was drowned in Harmon Lake, near there yesterday, in attempting to save the life of a companion.

Philadelphia, 20.—Wool is improved in demand, and the supply is ample for all demands. Cotton washed 15 @ 22, unwashed 15 @ 18 extra and medium 12 @ 15, No. 1 super 27 @ 30, Texas fine and medium 12 @ 15, California fine and medium 12 @ 22, coarse 14 @ 18.

WASHINGTON, 20.—Gen. R. B. Marney, a member of the Supreme Court, has placed a memorial in the hands of E. Knott, charging D. O. Humphreys, one of the associate justices of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia with being totally unfit to sit on the bench, that he is ignorant of law, incapable of logical reasoning, and given to feeble and disconnected statements.

WASHINGTON, 20.—The American political candidate should, in safety to himself, not away his narrow consciousness, as many do put away their moral sensitiveness, and should become "as cool as a cucumber." If such have the hide of a rhinoceros, a cuttlefish, a porcupine, a hedgehog, and a powerful shaft of the enemy, all the better for them. If they succeed, and much more so if they fail. It might be well also for them to be "dead as a post" to all that their opponents say in derogation of them. In politics, as with the believers in "Mormonism," a lack of nervous sensitiveness to the assaults of adversaries is a shield, and a sure defence not to be despised.

THE LAST DAY OF GRACE.

THIS (June 20) is the last day of grace, the only one day left for the Senate and the House to adjust their differences and effect a compromise upon the appropriation bills, in order to save the Government from the indignity and mortification of being unable to pay its way. If the bills are not passed, or some equivalent provision made for providing the needs for the expenses of the various departments and the salaries of the various officials of the Government, it will practically come to an end to-morrow, July 1, within a few days of the close of its first hundred years, for it certainly cannot continue without money, and it cannot have the money to use until it is lawfully appropriated for that purpose.

There is one thing to be said, however, if this contingency shall become a fact, it will be a good time to take a fresh start in the government of the Union. A hundred years has furnished a large fund of experience, and although considerable of it, especially of late years, has been of an unpleasant kind, it is sufficient to make the second century of the republic decidedly superior to almost every respect to the first. But in order to do this, this thing must be learned, that a number of lessons already learned will have to be unlearned.

APPROPRIATION FOR COURTS IN UTAH.

THE following is a portion of the minutes of the proceedings of the United States House of Representatives, June 22, during the consideration of the Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill.

"MR. HAMILTON, of New Jersey. I move to amend by inserting after the paragraph just read the following:

"For defraying the contingent expenses of the courts of the Territory of Utah, the sum of $10,000, to be paid out of the Treasury of the United States, under the act of June 22, 1874, in relation to courts and judicial officers in the Territory of Utah; also the expenses under said act of summoning jurors and subpoenaing witnesses, of arresting, guarding, and punishing prisoners, hiring and feeding guards, and supplying and caring for the penitentiary, to be paid under the direction and order of the Department of Justice, upon accounts duly verified and certified, $25,000, this amount to be in full for all matters covered hereto as against the United States."

"The amendment was agreed to."

TO-DAY'S DISPATCHES.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, 20.—Senator Cameron from the committee on foreign relations reported favorably on the House bill to carry into effect the Hawaiian treaty.

Morrill, of Vt., said this bill was a financial question, and he moved it be referred to the committee on finance. After discussion the motion was agreed to and the bill was referred.

At 11:55 the Senate took a recess till 5 p. m., on motion of Anthony, who stated, in making the motion, that it would be economy of time to take a recess in order to allow the conference committee on the appropriation bills an opportunity to perfect those measures. The republican senators, excepting those on conference committees, shortly afterwards went into caucus again.

WASHINGTON, 20.—The American political candidate should, in safety to himself, not away his narrow consciousness, as many do put away their moral sensitiveness, and should become "as cool as a cucumber." If such have the hide of a rhinoceros, a cuttlefish, a porcupine, a hedgehog, and a powerful shaft of the enemy, all the better for them. If they succeed, and much more so if they fail. It might be well also for them to be "dead as a post" to all that their opponents say in derogation of them. In politics, as with the believers in "Mormonism," a lack of nervous sensitiveness to the assaults of adversaries is a shield, and a sure defence not to be despised.
