

POLITICAL POT BEGINS TO BOIL.

Citizens of Wyoming Are Already Manifesting Great Interest.

WILL BE AN EVENTFUL YEAR.

People Called Upon to Elect Governor, Senator, Congressman, Supreme Court Justice and Others.

Special Correspondence.
Cheyenne, Wyo., March 27.—The political pot is beginning to boil here in Wyoming, and although the primaries will not be held for several months, interest in the coming campaign is increasing daily.

This will be an eventful year in Wyoming politics, for many offices are to be filled, and there are numerous candidates for many of the places. Interest centers chiefly upon the gubernatorial contestation, although the people will be called upon to elect successors to United States Senator Francis E. Warren, Congressman Frank W. Mondell, Justice Richard H. Scott of the state supreme court, Secretary of State Chat-terton, Auditor Grant, Superintendent of Public Instruction Tynan, and a successor to State Treasurer Wm. C. Ingram, who was elected for two years only, and that his term expires next January.

In addition to the United States senator, congressman and state offices, representatives and 15 state senators will be elected.

Who Are Mentioned.

The interest, then will center in the rivalry among the candidates for office among the Republicans.

For United States senator and congressman at large, only two names have been mentioned. Senator Francis E.
Warren and Congressman Frank W.
Mondell, it is believed, will have absolutely no opposition. They have made good with a vengeance, and there is no doubt of replacing them. The important places both hold on leading committees in their respective houses, and the seniority among their colleagues gained by many years' service makes them valued servants of the entire Rocky Mountain region, as well as of the people of Wyoming. Indeed, reservative Democrats admit that it would be a very unwise policy to even think of replacing these energetic and able men.

GOOD CHANCE FOR TWO.

Warren and Mondell will probably be re-elected, the former by a large majority of the Republican members of the legislature, and the latter by as large a majority as he secured two years ago, which was the largest ever given a candidate for the office.

For governor there are numerous names mentioned, although, strange to say, not a single candidate has been announced. Gov. R. B. Brooks desires a re-nomination, it is said, and the endorsements of Senator Pat Sullivan of Casper, Senator John T. Williams of Douglas, James Cosgriff of Rawlins, Thomas Cosgriff of Cheyenne, John L.
Bird of Newcastle, Dr. J. M. Wilson of Douglas, ex-Senator J. M. Carey of Cheyenne, and others, are being put forth by friends of each, but not one has made the slightest move toward the position. All are good men, and any one would make good as Wyoming's chief executive.

Gov. Brooks has naturally surrounded himself with many influential men from all parts of the state, and undoubtedly holds a strong position, and if he goes after the nomination, he will make it very interesting for other candidates. His long record of service in the last campaign, when he defeated Fenimore Chatterton, who was re-elected, is a strong asset.

Reports from the northern central counties say a deal has been made between either Senator Sullivan or Senator Williams will become the nominational candidate, and will receive the support of a certain element in the Republican party, but nothing definite is known of the plans, if such there be, for the campaign.

James and Thomas Cosgriff are regarded as strong men, and either will make a formidable candidate.
Dr. Wilson, whose name has been put forward for doing things, is well known throughout the state, is very popular, and his selection for the gov-ernatorial nomination would meet with favor among a large number of people.

Senator Carey has a large following in the state, and his splendid record in the United States senate, and his positions as the representative of the people of Wyoming, his long resistance to the federal government's interference with the state's rights, and his record in the legislature, all of which would justify the prediction that he would receive much encouragement from the people, and that he would be a strong contender for the gubernatorial honors.

The other state offices, few names have been mentioned. Albany county editor in the person of Jerome S.
Meyer, formerly speaker of the house, and Albany county already has a strong claim for the place in A. D. Cook, a former legislator, and a prominent man in the present incumbent, Hon.
J. B. Grant, the present incumbent, does not seek a re-nomination.

THROUGH WITH POLITICS.

The secretary of state, not a single name has been mentioned. Secretary Chatterton, it is understood, will not seek re-election, and that he will seek no office.

At the office of state treasurer is one of the most lucrative in the state, there is no doubt.

Royal Baking Powder Absolutely Pure

Royal Baking Powder is indispensable to finest cookery and to the comfort and convenience of modern housekeeping. Royal Baking Powder makes hot breads, cakes and pastry wholesome.
Perfectly leavens without fermentation.
Qualities that are peculiar to it alone.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

THEODORE LORCH AT THE GRAND TONIGHT.

Commencing tonight "The Great Conspiracy" will hold the boards at the New Grand theatre for three nights and Saturday evening matinee. It is a drama of the mountains of northern California, near Berkeley. It is claimed that such a strong play of life in the far west has not been seen since Bartley Campbell's "My Partner." The play is by the well known playwright, John McNana. "The Great Conspiracy" will be many candidates for the place, Laramie, Uinta, Sheridan, Wyo-ning, and one or two other counties will present candidates.

Already there is some complaint from the northern part of the state against the southern Wyoming candidates, and there promises to be a hard fight for this nomination. In years past the office has been filled by men from Albany and Albany county, and northern Wyoming says it is now time
to elect a northern man to the office.

For justice of the supreme court, only
one name has been mentioned, that
of Judge Richard H. Scott, who was recently appointed to the supreme bench
to succeed Judge Van Orsdel, who went
to Washington.

The Democrats will be searching for
candidates with a fine-toothed comb,
unless something unforeseen happens.
The only name that has been mentioned
for a place on the Democratic ticket
this fall is that of Senator S. A. D.
Kelster of Lander, who aspires to be
governor.

"MORMON" LOYALTY.

Devotion to Country Exhibited in the Schools of the Church.

Editor Deseret News.

Provo, March 27.—As long as the Smoot investigation committee is in the subject, a word on "Mormon" loyalty will be in order. Have we not always believed and taught that the Constitution is a divinely inspired document?
Have we not always taught that disloyalty or disaffection in the faith or practice of the Latter-day Saints, it would surely manifest itself in or about the Church schools, where religion is taught six days in a week?

I was a student in the Brigham
Young university in the spring of 1888, when recruiting for the Cuban war was in progress, and remember hearing prominent teachers say that the spirit of volunteering threatened to take all
the able-bodied men in the institution. I heard one young man in consoling his mother, justify his going to the war by saying his religion bound him as much to answer President Mc-Kinley's call as it would a call from Church authorities to go on a mission.
He but voiced the sentiments of the ordinary young Latter-day Saint.

"I will follow that old flag to the cannon's mouth," "My country is welcome to my blood," etc., are examples of numerous sentiments from eloquent speakers in mass meetings—boys who had never dared to arise in public, till
the fire of inborn patriotism consumed every restraining influence in fervent heat.

Your correspondent well remembers
the occasion of one of these meetings,
where the call to arms was being discussed. I heard one young man in con-
soling his mother, justify his going to
the war by saying his religion bound
him as much to answer President Mc-Kinley's call as it would a call from
Church authorities to go on a mission.
He but voiced the sentiments of the ordinary young Latter-day Saint.

Prof. Wolfe was speaking at the time, tells a simple story of pure heart integrity, absorbing, dramatic and powerful. Many new effects are introduced and sensation follows sensation with breathless rapidity. Clever and wholesome comedy abounds and so cunningly is the plot unfolded that laughter comes in the wake of every tear. Theo Lorch and company will produce this great play, with handsome and lavish scenery and every accessory of "The Great Conspiracy" will be a feast to the eye.

And if asked today would pay a high tribute to the true American spirit from the hands of a hated enemy, I received more enthusiastic devotion and so far, too, from the seat of war?
Against the southern Wyoming candidates, and there promises to be a hard
fight for this nomination. In years past
the office has been filled by men from Albany and Albany county, and
northern Wyoming says it is now time
to elect a northern man to the office.

For justice of the supreme court, only
one name has been mentioned, that
of Judge Richard H. Scott, who was recently appointed to the supreme bench
to succeed Judge Van Orsdel, who went
to Washington.

The Democrats will be searching for
candidates with a fine-toothed comb,
unless something unforeseen happens.
The only name that has been mentioned
for a place on the Democratic ticket
this fall is that of Senator S. A. D.
Kelster of Lander, who aspires to be
governor.

"MORMON" LOYALTY.

Devotion to Country Exhibited in the Schools of the Church.

Editor Deseret News.

Provo, March 27.—As long as the Smoot investigation committee is in the
subject, a word on "Mormon" loyalty
will be in order. Have we not always
believed and taught that the Constitution is a divinely inspired document?
Have we not always taught that disloyalty
or disaffection in the faith or practice of
the Latter-day Saints, it would surely
manifest itself in or about the Church
schools, where religion is taught six
days in a week?

I was a student in the Brigham
Young university in the spring of 1888,
when recruiting for the Cuban war was
in progress, and remember hearing
prominent teachers say that the spirit
of volunteering threatened to take all
the able-bodied men in the institution. I heard one young man in con-
soling his mother, justify his going to
the war by saying his religion bound
him as much to answer President Mc-Kinley's call as it would a call from
Church authorities to go on a mission.
He but voiced the sentiments of the ordinary young Latter-day Saint.

"I will follow that old flag to the
cannon's mouth," "My country is wel-
come to my blood," etc., are examples
of numerous sentiments from eloquent
speakers in mass meetings—boys who
had never dared to arise in public, till
the fire of inborn patriotism consumed
every restraining influence in fervent
heat.

Your correspondent well remembers
the occasion of one of these meetings,
where the call to arms was being discussed. I heard one young man in con-
soling his mother, justify his going to
the war by saying his religion bound
him as much to answer President Mc-Kinley's call as it would a call from
Church authorities to go on a mission.
He but voiced the sentiments of the ordinary young Latter-day Saint.

Prof. Wolfe was speaking at the time,

Caroline H. Lyon, wife of the late John Lyon, the well known Scotch poet, assembled at her residence in the Twentieth ward to do honor to the fiftieth anniversary of her wedding day. The affair was a surprise arranged by her descendants. A gold brooch, suitably engraved, was presented to the guest of honor as a memento of the occasion.
In a feeling response accepting the token, Mrs. Lyon told of conditions confronting newly-married people in this city 50 years ago. A souvenir containing the names of all of her descendants to the present time was given to each one present. This showed Mrs.
Lyon's living children to number five, her grandchildren 20 and her great-grandchildren two. During the evening refreshments were partaken of and the time was pleasantly spent in social conversation.

LIKE FINDING MONEY.

Finding health is like finding money —so think those who are sick. When you have a cough, cold, sore throat, or chest irritation, better act promptly than wait. I was once cured by Dr.
King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Greatest sale of any cough or lung medicine in the world.
At Z. C. M. I. drug store, 112-114
South Main St. 50c and $1.00; guaranteed.
Trial bottle free.

AFTER SLOT MACHINES.

Police Found Two in Operation and Took Them in Charge.

A thing upon orders from Chief of Police George Sheets, Sergeant John Hemple and other officers, yesterday afternoon went to various cigar stores and saloons where slot machines were supposed to be in operation. Only two were found, however, one at the cigar store of La Vieille, 19 West Second, and the other at the saloon at Lewis' on the same street. One of the machines was taken to police headquarters, and the other was destroyed. The proprietors were ordered to appear in the criminal division of the city court where they were charged with violating the charge of allowing gambling devices to be operated in their places of business, contrary to the provisions of the law.

GOT OFF CHEAP.

He may well think, he has got off cheap, who, after having contracted consumption or other disease, is still able to perfectly restore his health. Nothing will do this but Dr. King's New Life Pills. A quick, pleasant, and certain cure for headache, nervousness, etc.
25c at Z. C. M. I. Drug Store, 112-114 South Main Street; guaranteed.

CAPT. WOODS CHOSEN.

Has Been Elected Superintendent of The Canyon Crest Ranch.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Canyon Crest Ranch association yesterday afternoon in the juvenile court room, Capt. M. M. Woods, now chief probation officer of the juvenile court, was chosen as superintendent of the ranch. The purchase of the ranch was made a few days ago by Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Rice, who will hold it in trust for the association until sufficient funds are secured to pay for it. It is proposed to make the ranch a home for friendless boys and girls of this state.
During the meeting of the board a resolution of thanks to Mr. and Mrs.
Rice for their generous action in the matter was drawn up and adopted, and a copy will be presented to them.

Banner N. Smith, J. A. Greenwald, Willis Brown, Mrs. W. V. Rice and Mrs.
C. H. McMahon were appointed as a committee on ways and means to collect funds for the association and particularly to raise enough money to build a cottage on the ranch, and also to buy fruit trees and shrubs. J. A.
Greenwald, who is treasurer of the association, offered on behalf of his company to furnish free of cost any produce, and to have early the next month the southern Wyoming candidates, and there promises to be a hard
fight for this nomination. In years past
the office has been filled by men from Albany and Albany county, and
northern Wyoming says it is now time
to elect a northern man to the office.

For justice of the supreme court, only
one name has been mentioned, that
of Judge Richard H. Scott, who was recently appointed to the supreme bench
to succeed Judge Van Orsdel, who went
to Washington.

The Democrats will be searching for
candidates with a fine-toothed comb,
unless something unforeseen happens.
The only name that has been mentioned
for a place on the Democratic ticket
this fall is that of Senator S. A. D.
Kelster of Lander, who aspires to be
governor.

For justice of the supreme court, only
one name has been mentioned, that
of Judge Richard H. Scott, who was recently appointed to the supreme bench
to succeed Judge Van Orsdel, who went
to Washington.

The Democrats will be searching for
candidates with a fine-toothed comb,
unless something unforeseen happens.
The only name that has been mentioned
for a place on the Democratic ticket
this fall is that of Senator S. A. D.
Kelster of Lander, who aspires to be
governor.

For justice of the supreme court, only
one name has been mentioned, that
of Judge Richard H. Scott, who was recently appointed to the supreme bench
to succeed Judge Van Orsdel, who went
to Washington.

The Democrats will be searching for
candidates with a fine-toothed comb,
unless something unforeseen happens.
The only name that has been mentioned
for a place on the Democratic ticket
this fall is that of Senator S. A. D.
Kelster of Lander, who aspires to be
governor.

For justice of the supreme court, only
one name has been mentioned, that
of Judge Richard H. Scott, who was recently appointed to the supreme bench
to succeed Judge Van Orsdel, who went
to Washington.

The Democrats will be searching for
candidates with a fine-toothed comb,
unless something unforeseen happens.
The only name that has been mentioned
for a place on the Democratic ticket
this fall is that of Senator S. A. D.
Kelster of Lander, who aspires to be
governor.

For justice of the supreme court, only
one name has been mentioned, that
of Judge Richard H. Scott, who was recently appointed to the supreme bench
to succeed Judge Van Orsdel, who went
to Washington.

The Democrats will be searching for
candidates with a fine-toothed comb,
unless something unforeseen happens.
The only name that has been mentioned
for a place on the Democratic ticket
this fall is that of Senator S. A. D.
Kelster of Lander, who aspires to be
governor.

For justice of the supreme court, only
one name has been mentioned, that
of Judge Richard H. Scott, who was recently appointed to the supreme bench
to succeed Judge Van Orsdel, who went
to Washington.

The Democrats will be searching for
candidates with a fine-toothed comb,
unless something unforeseen happens.
The only name that has been mentioned
for a place on the Democratic ticket
this fall is that of Senator S. A. D.
Kelster of Lander, who aspires to be
governor.

For justice of the supreme court, only
one name has been mentioned, that
of Judge Richard H. Scott, who was recently appointed to the supreme bench
to succeed Judge Van Orsdel, who went
to Washington.

The Democrats will be searching for
candidates with a fine-toothed comb,
unless something unforeseen happens.
The only name that has been mentioned
for a place on the Democratic ticket
this fall is that of Senator S. A. D.
Kelster of Lander, who aspires to be
governor.

For justice of the supreme court, only
one name has been mentioned, that
of Judge Richard H. Scott, who was recently appointed to the supreme bench
to succeed Judge Van Orsdel, who went
to Washington.

The Democrats will be searching for
candidates with a fine-toothed comb,
unless something unforeseen happens.
The only name that has been mentioned
for a place on the Democratic ticket
this fall is that of Senator S. A. D.
Kelster of Lander, who aspires to be
governor.

For justice of the supreme court, only
one name has been mentioned, that
of Judge Richard H. Scott, who was recently appointed to the supreme bench
to succeed Judge Van Orsdel, who went
to Washington.

The Democrats will be searching for
candidates with a fine-toothed comb,
unless something unforeseen happens.
The only name that has been mentioned
for a place on the Democratic ticket
this fall is that of Senator S. A. D.
Kelster of Lander, who aspires to be
governor.

ans. Recitations were given by Isabella Leatham and Lilly Hunter. Biographical sketch of Bishop J. C. Watson by Edith Hunter. Piano selection by Jessie Smith.

Bishop Glaugue made a neat speech in behalf of the people of the ward, and presented Bishop Watson with a beautifully engraved gold headed ebony cane. Elder A. E. Poulton followed, presenting former Counselor Burt with a fine gold watch, and Elder James M.
Pulver presented Patrick Joseph West with an elegant gold headed cane. Each of these veterans made feeling responses of acceptance and recounted his early experiences of pioneer days in Salt Lake valley.

ARE YOU ENGAGED?

Engaged people should remember, that, after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided, by keeping their digestions in good condition with Electric Bitters.
S. A. Brown, of Benetsville, S. C., says: "For years, my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor, and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." Z. C. M. I. drugists, 112-114 South Main St., sell and guarantee them, at 50c a bottle.

MISS LAKE'S FUNERAL.

Stenographers of the City Will Meet
And Make Arrangements.

No relatives can be found of Gertrude Lake, the young woman who committed suicide by means of carbolic acid on Monday afternoon, at an office in the McCormick block. A movement is on foot by local stenographers to raise money to give the girl a proper burial.
To this end, a number of people will meet at the Kenyon parlors at 7:30 this evening, and it is desired that persons engaged in the same line of work as was the deceased, as well as others whose sympathies are extended to the unfortunate victim of Monday's tragedy, shall meet with them and assist in arranging plans for laying away the remains of the young woman in a befitting manner.

There is no doubt that Miss Lake's mind was unbalanced. Her husband was eccentric, and letters written to various people by her, indicate that her mind was often in a wandering condition.
The endeavor put forth by the stenographers for the disposal of the remains will no doubt receive the generous support of the public.

MONKEY WENT MAD.

And as a Result Charles Boylin, the Keeper, Was Badly Injured.

Charles Boylin is at the L. D. S. hospital, suffering with severe injuries about the arms and hands, the wounds having been inflicted by an infuriated monkey. Mr. Boylin is employed at Lagoon, and it was while caring for the animals in the little zoo at that resort that he met with the injuries. One of the monkeys suddenly became enraged and flew at the keeper, who was unable to fight the animal away before it had repeatedly fastened its teeth in his flesh. After freeing himself from the beast, Mr. Boylin found it almost impossible to stop the excessive flow of blood, and he was brought by friends to the hospital in this city.
It is reported today that he is in a fairly comfortable condition, and it is not thought that permanent injury will result from the wounds received.

ELKS ELECTION.

Presiding Officers Chosen for Coming Year—Frederick Warde Present.

The Elks held their annual election last night, with a crowded house present, when the expected happened and Thomas Homer was chosen exalted ruler. The other officers elected are:
George F. Strickley, esteemed leading knights; C. S. Pulver, esteemed loyal knights; W. F. Cooper, esteemed lecturing knight; W. R. Raybould, secretary; W. R. Sibley, treasurer; C. M.
Fred, trustee to serve for three years;
J. A. Place, trustee; Q. R. Chatterton, representative to the grand lodge; Lester D. Freed, alternate.

This is the thirteenth consecutive election at which Mr. Raybould has been chosen secretary. He has made a model officer; in fact has done so well that his friends are ready to believe he will prove to be the order of Elks in this city, what Chris Diehl is to the local Masons, and remain in the secretaryship in perpetuity. Mr. Raybould has the entire run of fraternity business at his finger's ends, and is one of the best known Elks in the west.

The financial report for the year was very gratifying to the order, and the local lodge membership was shown to be nearly 800. The financial resources
had increased $5,000 over and above
any call made on the lodge. A
marked and very pleasant feature of
the evening, was the presence of one
of the most beloved men in the entire
order, Frederick Warde, the noted Shakespearean actor and dramatic lecturer.

He was the first to be elected, and
the local lodge membership was shown to
be nearly 800. The financial resources
had increased $5,000 over and above
any call made on the lodge. A
marked and very pleasant feature of
the evening, was the presence of one
of the most beloved men in the entire
order, Frederick Warde, the noted
Shakespearean actor and dramatic lec-
turer.

He was the first to be elected, and
the local lodge membership was shown to
be nearly 800. The financial resources
had increased $5,000 over and above
any call made on the lodge. A
marked and very pleasant feature of
the evening, was the presence of one
of the most beloved men in the entire
order, Frederick Warde, the noted
Shakespearean actor and dramatic lec-
turer.

He was the first to be elected, and
the local lodge membership was shown to
be nearly 800. The financial resources
had increased $5,000 over and above
any call made on the lodge. A
marked and very pleasant feature of
the evening, was the presence of one
of the most beloved men in the entire
order, Frederick Warde, the noted
Shakespearean actor and dramatic lec-
turer.

He was the first to be elected, and
the local lodge membership was shown to
be nearly 800. The financial resources
had increased $5,000 over and above
any call made on the lodge. A
marked and very pleasant feature of
the evening, was the presence of one
of the most beloved men in the entire
order, Frederick Warde, the noted
Shakespearean actor and dramatic lec-
turer.

He was the first to be elected, and
the local lodge membership was shown to
be nearly 800. The financial resources
had increased $5,000 over and above
any call made on the lodge. A
marked and very pleasant feature of
the evening, was the presence of one
of the most beloved men in the entire
order, Frederick Warde, the noted
Shakespearean actor and dramatic lec-
turer.

He was the first to be elected, and
the local lodge membership was shown to
be nearly 800. The financial resources
had increased $5,000 over and above
any call made on the lodge. A
marked and very pleasant feature of
the evening, was the presence of one
of the most beloved men in the entire
order, Frederick Warde, the noted
Shakespearean actor and dramatic lec-
turer.

He was the first to be elected, and
the local lodge membership was shown to
be nearly 800. The financial resources
had increased $5,000 over and above
any call made on the lodge. A
marked and very pleasant feature of
the evening, was the presence of one
of the most beloved men in the entire
order, Frederick Warde, the noted
Shakespearean actor and dramatic lec-
turer.

He was the first to be elected, and
the local lodge membership was shown to
be nearly 800. The financial resources
had increased $5,000 over and above
any call made on the lodge. A
marked and very pleasant feature of
the evening, was the presence of one
of the most beloved men in the entire
order, Frederick Warde, the noted
Shakespearean actor and dramatic lec-
turer.

He was the first to be elected, and
the local lodge membership was shown to
be nearly 800. The financial resources
had increased $5,000 over and above
any call made on the lodge. A
marked and very pleasant feature of
the evening, was the presence of one
of the most beloved men in the entire
order, Frederick Warde, the noted
Shakespearean actor and dramatic lec-
turer.

He was the first to be elected, and
the local lodge membership was shown to
be nearly 800. The financial resources
had increased $5,000 over and above
any call made on the lodge. A
marked and very pleasant feature of
the evening, was the presence of one
of the most beloved men in the entire
order, Frederick Warde, the noted
Shakespearean actor and dramatic lec-
turer.

He was the first to be elected, and
the local lodge membership was shown to
be nearly 800. The financial resources
had increased $5,000 over and above
any call made on the lodge. A
marked and very pleasant feature of
the evening, was the presence of one
of the most beloved men in the entire
order, Frederick Warde, the noted
Shakespearean actor and dramatic lec-
turer.

He was the first to be elected, and
the local lodge membership was shown to
be nearly 800. The financial resources
had increased $5,000 over and above
any call made on the lodge. A
marked and very pleasant feature of
the evening, was the presence of one
of the most beloved men in the entire
order, Frederick Warde, the noted
Shakespearean actor and dramatic lec-
turer.

He was the first to be elected, and
the local lodge membership was shown to
be nearly 800. The financial resources
had increased $5,000 over and above
any call made on the lodge. A
marked and very pleasant feature of
the evening, was the presence of one
of the most beloved men in the entire
order, Frederick Warde, the noted
Shakespearean actor and dramatic lecturer.